4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim.

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalath, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the Lord, that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

7 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark: for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the Lord had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

13 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the Lord blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Hiram's kindness to David. 2 David's felicity in people, wives, and children. 8 His two victories against the Philistines.

NOW Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him an house.

2 And David perceived that the Lord had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.

3 And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters.

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shamua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 And Ithar, and Elishua, and Elpalet,

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 And Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

8 And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the Lord said unto him. Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim: and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place 2 Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David enquired again of God: and God said unto him, Go not up after them: turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the fame of David went out into all lands: and the Lord brought the fear of him upon all nations.

CHAPTER XV.

1 David, having prepared a place for the ark, ordereth the priests and Levites to bring it from Obad-edom. 25 He performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy. 29 Michal despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, 3 None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the Lord chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the Lord unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of Kohath: Uriel the chief, and his 4 brethren an hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Merari: Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

7 Of the sons of Gershon: Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty:

8 Of the sons of Eliphazaphan: Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred:

9 Of the sons of Hebron: Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore:

10 Of the sons of Uzziel: Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, the Lord our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the Lord.

16 And David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of music, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushiab;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unai, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphele, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and 2 Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unai, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Eliphele, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azariah, with harps on the Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanaah were doorkeepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark.

25 So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the Lord with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the Lord came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 David's festival sacrifices. 4 He ordereth a choir to sing thanksgiving. 7 The psalm of thanksgiving. 11 He appointeth ministers, porters, priests, and musicians, to attend continually on the ark.

SO they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the Lord, and to record, and to thank and praise the Lord God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 ¶ Then on that day David delivered ^cfirst this psalm to thank the Lord into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 d Give thanks unto the Lord, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord.

11 Seek the Lord and his strength, seek his face continually.

12 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

13 O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

14 He is the Lord our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant; the word which he commanded to a thousand generations;

16 Even of the covenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac;

17 And hath confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

18 saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, 2 the lot of your inheritance;

19 When ye were but 3 few, 7 even a few, and strangers in it.

20 And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people;

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he 9 reproved kings for their sakes.

22 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

23 ¶ Sing unto the Lord, all the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvellous works among all nations.

25 For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised: he also is to be feared above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols: but the Lord made the heavens.

27 Glory and honour are in his presence; strength and gladness are in his place.

28 Give unto the Lord, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

29 Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The Lord reigneth.

32 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the Lord, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 ¶ O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 ¶ And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 ¶ Blessed be the Lord God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the Lord.

37 ¶ So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the Lord Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required:

38 And Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be porters:

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the Lord in the high place that was at Gibeon.

40 To offer burnt offerings unto the Lord upon the altar of the burnt offering continually: 2 morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the Lord, which he commanded Israel;

41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the Lord, because his mercy endureth for ever;

42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were 3 porters.

43 ¶ And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Nathan first approving the purpose of David, to build God an house, 3 after by the word of God forbiddeth him. 11 He promisieth him blessings and benefits in his seed. 16 David's prayer and thanksgiving.

NOW ^a it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the Lord remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.

3 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but I have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Whosoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even 5 from following the sheep, that thou shouldst be ruler over my people Israel:

8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the Lord will build thee an house.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

14 But I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for evermore.

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 ¶ And David the king came and sat before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God: for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O Lord God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O Lord, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 O Lord, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, Lord, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, Lord, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The Lord of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house: therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, Lord, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

27 Now therefore let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou bleesest, O Lord, and it shall be blessed for ever.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites.

3 He smiteth Hadadzer king of the Syrians: 4 Thou servest Hadadzer with presents to bless David.

11 The presents and the spoil David dedicateth to God. 13 He putteth garrisons in Edom. 14 David's officers.

NOW after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab: and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David smote 5 Hadadzer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and 7 seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of 6 Damascus came to help Hadadzer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria-damascus: and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the Lord preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadzer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from 2 Tibbath, and from Chun, cities of Hadadzer, brought David very much brass, wherewith 7 Solomon made the brasen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 ¶ Now when 3 Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadadzer king of Zobah:

10 He sent 4 Hadoram his son to king David, 5 to enquire of his welfare, and 6 to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadadzer, and smitten him; (for Hadadzer 7 had war with Tou): and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

11 ¶ Them also king David dedicated unto the Lord, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations: from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover 8 Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt 4 eighteen thousand.

13 ¶ And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the Lord preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 ¶ So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, 9 recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Abitub, and 2 Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests: and 3 Shavsha was scribe.

17 And Benaiab the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Peishethites; and the sons of David were chief 4 about the king.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 David's messengers, sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash, are villainously entreated: 2 The Ammonites, strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joram and Abishai. 10 Shobach, making a new supply of the Syrians, is slain by David.

NOW it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, 5 Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaven them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Je-

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maacchab, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacchab and his people: who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the 4 choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of 5 Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the Lord do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle: and they died before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the River: and 7 Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And it was told David: and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel: and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men which fought in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.

19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Rabbah is besieged by Joab, spoiled by David, and the people thereof tortured. 4 Three giants are slain in three several overthrowes of the Philistines.

AND "it came to pass, that 8 after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And 9 Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David "took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it 9 to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, d that there 2 arose war at 4 Gezer with the Philistines; at which time "Sibbechai the Hushathite slew 5 Sippai, that was of the children of 6 the giant: and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines: and Elhanan the son of 7 Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet again f there was war at Gath, where was 8 a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was 9 the son of the giant.

7 But when he 2 defied Israel, Jonathan the son of 3 Shimea David's brother slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 David, tempted by Satan, Joab's Joab to number the people. 5 The number of the people being brought, David repenteth of it. 9 David having three plagues propounded by God chooseth the pestilence. 14 After the death of seventy thousand, David by repentance preventeth the destruction of Jerusalem. 18 David, by God's direction, proceaseth Ornan's threshing-floor: where having built an altar, God giveth a vision of his favour by fire, and stayeth the plague. 28 David sacrificeth there, being restrained from Gilead by fear of the angel.

AND 4 Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan: and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, The Lord make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 ¶ But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

7 4 And God was displeased with this thing: therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, d I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: "but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, 6 Choose thee

12 ⁹ Rither three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the Lord, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the Lord destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the Lord: for very great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 [†] So the Lord sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: as he was destroying, the Lord beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the Lord stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the Lord stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O Lord my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 [†] Then the angel of the Lord commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the Lord in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the Lord.

20 4 And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the Lord: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes; lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat offering; I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the Lord, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.

25 So he gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the Lord; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And the Lord commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 [†] At that time when David saw that the Lord had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 ⁹ For the tabernacle of the Lord, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon.

30 But David could not go before it to enquire of God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the Lord.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 David, foreknowing the place of the temple, prepareth abundance for the building of it. 6 He instructeth Solomon in God's promises, and his duty in building the temple. 17 He chargeth the princes to assist his son.

THEN David said, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight;

4 Also cedar trees in abundance: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the Lord must be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 [†] Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the Lord God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, fit was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the Lord my God:

8 But the word of the Lord came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 He shall build an house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, the Lord be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the Lord thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the Lord give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the Lord thy God.

13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the Lord charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the Lord an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight: for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

4 Moreover the sons of Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth,

5 Ammuel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed him.

6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were three-score and two of Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

10 Also ^a Hoshah, of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief:)

11 Hilkiyah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hoshah were thirteen.

12 Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the Lord.

13 ¶ And they cast lots, ³ as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

14 And the lot eastward fell to ⁴ Shemaiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward.

15 To Obed-edom southward; and to his sons the house of ⁵ Asuppim.

16 To Shuppim and Hoshah the lot came forth westward, with the gate Shailecheth, by the causeway of the going ⁶ up, ward against ward.

17 Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two.

18 At Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar.

19 These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.

20 ¶ And of the Levites, Abijah was ⁶ over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the ⁷ dedicated things.

21 ⁸ As concerning the sons of ⁹ Laadan; the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were ⁹ Jehieli.

22 The sons of Jehieli; Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasures of the house of the Lord.

23 Of the Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:

24 And ¹⁰ Shebuel the son of Gershon, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures.

25 And his brethren by Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and ¹¹ Shelomith his son.

26 Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated.

27 ¹² Out of the spoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the house of the Lord.

28 And all that Samuel ¹³ the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated; and whosoever had dedicated ¹⁴ any thing, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.

29 ¶ Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges.

30 And of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were ¹⁵ 2 officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward in all the business of the Lord, and in the service of the king.

31 Among the Hebronites was ¹⁶ Jerijah the chief, even among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour ¹⁷ 4 at Jazer of Gilead.

32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God, and ¹⁸ 5 affairs of the king.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 The twelve captains for every several month. 16 The princes of the twelve tribes. 23 The numbering of the people is hindered. 25 David's several officers.

NOW the children of Israel after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers that served the king in any matter of the courses, which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand.

2 Over the first course for the first month was ¹ 4 Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

3 Of the children of Perez was the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month.

4 And over the course of the second month was ² 4 Dodai an Ahobite, and of his course likewise were twenty and four thousand.

5 The third captain of the host for the third month was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a ³ 5 chief priest: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

6 This is that Benaiah, who was ⁴ 1 mighty a young the thirty, and above the thirty: and in his course was Ammizabad his son.

7 The fourth captain for the fourth month was ⁵ 7 Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

8 The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

9 The sixth captain for the sixth month was ⁶ 11 Ira the son of Ikesh the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

10 The seventh captain for the seventh month was ⁷ 11 Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

11 The eighth captain for the eighth month was ⁸ 11 Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

12 The ninth captain for the ninth month was ⁹ 11 Abiezer the Anetothite, of the Benjaminites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

13 The tenth captain for the tenth month was ¹⁰ 11 Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

15 The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Helaï the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

16 Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shuphatiah the son of Maachiah:

17 Of the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel: of the Aaronites, Zadok:

18 Of Judah, Elihu, one of the brethren of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael:

19 Of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel:

20 Of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah: of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiiah:

21 Of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner:

22 Of Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the Lord had said he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens.

24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath for it against Israel: neither was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

25 And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storerooms in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziel:

26 And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezer the son of Chelub:

27 And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: 4 over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabai the Shiphmite:

28 And over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the low plains was Bual-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Josiah:

29 And over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai:

30 Over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite:

31 And over the flocks was Jariz the Hagerite. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

32 Also Jonathan David's uncle was a counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons:

33 And Ahithophel was the king's counsellor: and Phushai the Archite was the king's companion:

34 And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abinath: and the general of the king's army was Joab.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 David in a solemn assembly, having declared God's favour to him, and promised to his son Solomon, exhorted him to fear God, &c. 2 He encouraged Solomon to build the temple. 11 He giveth him patterns for the form, and gold and silver for the materials.

AND David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood.

4 Howbeit the Lord God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, I the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel:

5 And of all my sons, (for the Lord hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the Lord your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now: for the Lord hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasures thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat,

12 And the pattern of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the Lord, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasures of the house of God, and of the treasures of the dedicated things:

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the Lord, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the Lord.

14 He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service: silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver:

17 Also pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basins he gave gold by weight for every basin; and likewise silver by weight for every basin of silver:

19 All this, said David, "the Lord made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the Lord God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord.

21 And, behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing skilful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 David, by his example and intreaty, ⁸caused the princes and people to offer willingly. 10 David's thanksgiving and prayer. 20 The people, having blessed God, and sacrificed, make Solomon king. 26 David's reign; and death.

FURTHERMORE David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet ^ayoung and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the Lord God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; ^bonyx stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of ^cOphir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the Lord?

6 ¶ Then ^dthe chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands, and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,

7 And gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the Lord, by the hand of ^fJehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they ^goffered willingly to the Lord: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 ¶ Wherefore David blessed the Lord before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 ^hA Thing, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 ⁱBoth riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort: for all things come of thee, and ^kof thine own have we given thee.

15 For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding.

16 O Lord our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou ^mtriest the heart, and ⁿhast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are ^opresent here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and ^pprepare their heart unto thee:

19 And ^qgive unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which ^rI have made provision.

20 ¶ And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the Lord your God. And all the congregation blessed the Lord God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the Lord, and the king.

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings unto the Lord, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel:

22 And did eat and drink before the Lord on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and ^sanointed him unto the Lord to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the Lord as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, ^tsubmitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And the Lord magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and ^ubestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES.

CHAPTER I.

1 The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon. 7 Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God. 13 Solomon's strength and wealth.

AND ^aSolomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and ^bthe Lord his God was with him, and ^cmagnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon: for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness.

4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover the brasen altar, that Bezaiel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the Lord: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar before the Lord, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

7 ¶ In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead.

9 Now, O Lord God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plantain as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, by their means.

CHAPTER II.

1, 17 Solomon's labourers for the building of the temple. 3 His embassy to Hiram for workmen and provision of stuff. 11 Hiram sendeth him a kind answer.

AND Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I will build an house to the name of the Lord my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the Lord our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 But who is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and in crimson, and in blue, and that can skill to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.

8 I send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and salign trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon: and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants.

dance: for the house which I am about to build shall be 2 wonderful great.

10 ^m And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 ¶ Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, ⁿ Because the Lord hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

12 Hiram said moreover, ^o Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, ^p that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, ^q endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the Lord, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Hiram my father's.

14 ¶ The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which ^r my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 ¶ And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, ^s as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in fletes by sea to Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 ¶ And Solomon numbered all ^t the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith ^u David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set ^v threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

CHAPTER III.

1 The place, and time of building the temple. 3 The measure and ornaments of the house. 11 The cherubims. 14 The veil and pillars.

THEN ^a Solomon began to build the house of the Lord at ^b Jerusalem in mount Moriah, ^c where the Lord appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of ^d Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ¶ Now these are the things ^e wherein Solomon was ^f instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the ^g porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And ^h the greater house he ciled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains.

6 And he ⁱ garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts and the walls thereof and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 ^j And in the most holy house he made two cherubims 2 of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 ¶ And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were ^k inward.

14 ¶ And he made the ^l veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon.

15 Also he made before the house ^m two pillars of thirty and five cubits ⁿ high, and the chapter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, ^o as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made ^p an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he ^q reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand ^r Jachin, and the name of that on the left ^s Boaz.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The altar of brass. 2 The molten sea upon twelve oxen. 3 The ten lavers, candlesticks, and tables. 4 The courts, and the instruments of brass. 19 The instruments of gold.

MOREOVER he made ^t an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

2 ¶ Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits ^u from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

3 ^v And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

5 And the thickness of it was an hand-breadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, ^w with flowers of lilies; and it received and held ^x three thousand baths.

6 ¶ He made also ^y ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: ^z such things as they offered for the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 And he made ten candlesticks of gold ^a according to their form and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 And he made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made an hundred 2 basons of gold.

9 Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.

10 And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

11 And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the 3 basons. And Hiram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God:

12 To wit, the two pillars, and the pom-mels, and the chapiters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were on the top of the pillars:

13 And four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were upon the pillars.

14 He made also 4 basas, and 6 layers made he upon the bases;

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it.

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Hiram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the Lord of 7 bright brass.

17 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the 2 clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

19 And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the shewbread was set;

20 Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn after the manner before the oracle, of pure gold;

21 And the novens, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that perfect gold;

22 And the snuffers, and the 2 basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold; and the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

CHAPTER V.

1 The dedicatory transactions. 2 The solemn induction of the ark into the oracle. 11 God being praised with a visible sign of his favour.

THUS all the work that Solomon made for the house of the Lord was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 And wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast which was in the seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there it is unto this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course:

12 Also the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having organs and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the Lord; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the Lord;

14 so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of God.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Solomon, having blessed the people, blesseth God. 12 Solomon's prayer in the consecration of the temple, upon the ark being set.

THEN said Solomon, The Lord hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.

2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood.

4 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spoke with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt: I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel.

8 But the Lord said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart:

9 Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The Lord therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built the house for the name of the Lord God of Israel.

11 And in it have I put the ark, f wherein is the covenant of the Lord, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And he stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands:

13 For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold, of five cubits 2long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven,

14 And said, O Lord God of Israel, h there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts:

15 ¶ Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

16 Now therefore, O Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, k There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.

17 Now then, O Lord God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? m behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!

19 Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication. O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee:

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth 4 toward this place.

21 Harken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall 5 make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwelling place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

22 ¶ If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house;

23 Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiring the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ¶ And if thy people Israel 7 be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee 8 in this house;

25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

26 ¶ When the n heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them;

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 ¶ If there 6 be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them 2 in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be:

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands 5 in this house:

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only 1 knowest the hearts of the children of men.)

31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, 4 so long as they live 5 in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 ¶ Moreover concerning the stranger, 2 which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house;

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that 6 this house which I have built is called by thy name.

34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name;

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their 7 cause.

36 If they sin against thee, (for there is *n*o man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and 8 they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

37 Yet if they 9 bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly;

38 If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name:

39 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their 2 cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee.

40 Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent 5 unto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Now 4 therefore arise, O Lord God, into thy resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O Lord God, be

CHAPTER VII.

1 God having given testimony to Solomon's prayer by fire from heaven, and glory in the temple, the people worship him. 4 Solomon's solemn sacrifices.
8 Solomon having kept the feast of tabernacles, and the feast of the dedication of the altar, dis-misseth the people. 12 God appearing to Solomon gives him promises upon condition.

NOW when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the house.

2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lord's house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good; f for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 ¶ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the Lord.

5 And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priests waited on their offices:
the Levites also with instruments of musick of the Lord, which David the king had made to praise the Lord, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.

8 ¶ Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the Lord had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the Lord, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the Lord, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

12 ¶ And the Lord appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice.

13 ¶ If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attend 2 unto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

17 ¶ And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments;

18 Then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, Thou shalt not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 ¶ But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them;

20 Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them:
and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations.

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and unto this house?

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the Lord, and his own house.

2 That the cities which Hiram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars.

6 And Baalath, and all the store cities, which Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 ¶ As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Per-izzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel,

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work: but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And there were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even a two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

11 ¶ And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for the 2 book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 ^m And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER X.

1 The Israelites, assembled at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, by Jeroboam make a suit of relaxation unto him. 3 Rehoboam, refusing the old men's counsel, by the advice of young men answereth them roughly. 15 Ten tribes revolting kill Hadoraim, and make Rehoboam to flee.

AND ^a Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, ^b whether he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father ³ put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the Lord might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoraim that was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam ² made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 ¶ And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Rehoboam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah. 5 He strengthened himself with forts and provision. 15 Ten priests and Levites, and such as feared God, forsaken by Jeroboam, strengthen the kingdom of Judah. 15 The wives and children of Rehoboam.

AND ^a when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the Lord came ^b to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the Lord, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa.

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Zorah, and Ajalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel ^c resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 For the Levites left ^d their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for ^e Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the Lord:

15 ¶ And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for ^f the devils, and for ^g the calves which he had made.

16 ¶ And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the Lord God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the Lord God of their fathers.

17 So they ^h strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Maachah the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

22 And Rehoboam ⁱmade Abijah the son of Maachab the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them victual in abundance. And he desired ^j2 many wives.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Rehoboam, forsaking the Lord, is punished by Shishak. 5 He and the princes, repenting at the punishing of Shemaiah, are delivered from destruction, but not from spoil. 13 The reign and death of Rehoboam.

AND ^a it came to pass, when Rehoboam ^bhad established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, ^che forsook the law of the Lord, and all Israel with him.

2 ^d And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the Lord.

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; ^e the Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ^f Then came ^g Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the Lord, ^h Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king ⁱ humbled themselves; and they said, ^j The Lord is righteous.

7 And when the Lord saw that they humbled themselves, ^k the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them ^l some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless ^m they shall be his servants; that they may know (my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 ⁿ So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had ^o made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them ^p to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the Lord, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the Lord turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: ^q 4 and also in Judah things went well.

13 ^r So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: ^s for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, ^t the city which the Lord had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he ^u 2 prepared not his heart to seek the Lord.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the ^v 3 book of Shemaiah the prophet, ^w and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? ^x And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David; and ^y Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Abijah succeeding his father war against Jeroboam. 4 He delivereth the right of his cause. 15 Trusting in God he overcometh Jeroboam. 21 The wives and children of Abijah.

NOW ^a in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was ^b Michajah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah ^c 4 set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 ^d And Abijah stood up upon mount ^e Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel;

5 Ought ye not to know that the Lord God of Israel ^f gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons? ^g by a covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath ^h rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him ⁱ 2 vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the Lord in the hand of the sons of David; and ye ^j 2 be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam ^k 4 made you for gods.

9 ^l Have ye not cast out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? ^m 2 So that whosoever cometh ⁿ 5 to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

10 But as for us, the Lord is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the Lord, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:

11 And they burn unto the Lord every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense: the ^o 2 shewbread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, ^p 2 to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the Lord our God; but ye have forsaken him.

12 And, behold, God himself ^q is with us for our captain, ^r and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. ^s O children of Israel, fight ye not against the Lord God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

13 ^t But Jeroboam caused an ambush-

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Asa succeeding destroyeth idolatry. 6 Having piety, he strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and armies. 8 He conquereth the overthrown Zerah, and smiteth the Ethiopians.

a 1 Kin. 15. 8. &c.

2 O Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and ⁹ Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

3 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God:

4 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down the image, and cut down the groves:

5 And commanded Judah to seek the Lord God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

6 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

7 ⁹ And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the Lord had given him rest.

8 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, ⁹ while the land is yet before us: because we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

9 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand: and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

11 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mar-sai-hi.

12 And Asa ⁹ cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is ⁹ nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O Lord our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O Lord, thou art our God: let not ⁹ man prevail against thee.

13 So the Lord ⁹ smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

14 And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves: for they were ⁹ destroyed before the Lord, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.

15 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar: for ⁹ the fear of the Lord came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

16 They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Asa with Judah, and many of Israel, moved by the prophecy of Asaiah the son of Isai, make a covenant with God. 16 He setteth upon Manassah his mother for her idleness. 18 He bringeth delicate things into the house of God, and enjoineth a long peace.

2 And ⁹ the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Obed:

3 And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah, and Benjamin: ² The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

4 Now ⁹ for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law.

5 But ⁹ when they in their trouble did turn unto the Lord God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

6 And ⁹ in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

7 And nation was ⁹ destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

8 He ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.

9 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Obed the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities ⁹ which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and removed the altar of the Lord, that was before the porch of the Lord.

10 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manassah, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

11 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the twentieth year of the reign of Asa.

12 And they offered unto the Lord ⁷ the same time, of ⁹ the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

13 And they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul:

14 ⁷ That whosoever would not seek the Lord God of Israel ⁹ should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

15 And they swore unto the Lord with 15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the Lord gave them rest round about.

16 ¶ And also concerning Maachab the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 ¶ And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah. Being reproved thereof by Hanani, he putteth him in prison. 11 Among his other acts in his disease he seeketh not to God, but to the physicians. 13 His death and burial

IN the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa ^a Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the Lord and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 ¶ And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, d Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the Lord thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the Lord, he delivered them into thine hand.

9 ¶ For the eyes of the Lord ran to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 ¶ And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the Lord, but to the physicians.

13 ¶ And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchre, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Jehoshaphat, succeeding Asa, reigneth well, and prospereth. 7 He sendeth Levites with the princes to teach Judah. 10 His enemies being terrified by God, some of them bring him presents and tribute. 12 His greatness, captaincy, and armies.

AND Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the Lord was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the Lord God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel.

5 Therefore the Lord established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the Lord: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

7 ¶ Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nathaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nathaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, priests.

9 ¶ And they taught in Judah, and had the book of the law of the Lord with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

10 ¶ And the fear of the Lord fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat.

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute silver: and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats.

12 ¶ And Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly: and he built in Judah castles, and cities of store.

13 And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

14 And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand.

15 And next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself unto the Lord; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Jehoshaphat, joined in affinity with Ahab, is persuaded to go with him against Ramoth-gilead & Ahab, seduced by false prophets, according to the word of Micahiah, is slain there.

NOW Jehoshaphat ^a had riches and honour in abundance, and ^b joined affinity with Ahab.

2 ^c And ^d after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 ^e And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, ^f Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the Lord to day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver us into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord ^g besides, that we might enquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the Lord: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micahiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his ^h officers, and said, ⁱ Fetch quickly Micahiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a ^j void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the Lord, With these thou shalt push Syria until ^k they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliver us into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micahiah spoke to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king ^l with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.

13 And Micahiah said, As the Lord liveth, ^m even what my God saith, that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micahiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I assure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the Lord?

16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep, that have no shepherd: and the Lord said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, ⁿ but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the Lord; I saw the Lord sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the Lord said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a ^o spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said, I will entice him. And the Lord said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the Lord said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, ^p the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and ^q smote Micahiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the Lord from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micahiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go into ^r an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micahiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, ^s Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micahiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the Lord spoken by me. And he said, Hearken all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will discuss myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on the robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the Lord helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again ^t from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow ^u at a venture, and smote the king of Israel ^v between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am ^w wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the sun going down he died.

1 Jehoshaphat, reproved to Jehu, visiteth his kingdom. 5 His instructions to the judges, 6 to the priests and Levites.

AN D Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

2 And Jehu the son of Hanani ^a the seer went out to meet him, and said to him Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and ^b love them that hate the Lord? therefore is ^c wrath upon thee from before the Lord.

3 Nevertheless there are ^d good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast ^e prepared thine heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and ^f he went out again through the people from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the Lord God of their fathers.

5 ^g And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city.

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the Lord. ^h Who is with you ⁱ in the judgment.

7 Wherefore now let the fear of the Lord be upon you; take heed and do it: for ^j there is no iniquity with the Lord our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

8 ^k Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat ^l set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the Lord, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do ^m in the fear of the Lord, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 ⁿ And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the Lord, and so ^o wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass.

11 And behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you ^p in all matters of the Lord: and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. ^q Deal courageously, and the Lord shall be ^r with the good.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Jehoshaphat in his fear proclaimed a fast. 5 His prayer. 15 The prophecy of Jahaziel. 20 Jehoshaphat exhorted the people, and attired singers to praise the Lord. 22 The great overthrow of the enemies. 28 The people, having raised foot of Ben-hadad, return in triumph. 31 Jehoshaphat's reign. 35 His recovery of ships, which he made with Ahab, according to the prophecy of Eliseus, whither he perished.

IT came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea, on this side Syria; and, behold, they be ^a in Hazazon-tamar, which is ^b En-gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to ^c seek the Lord, and ^d proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the Lord: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the Lord.

5 ^e And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the Lord, before the new court.

6 And said, O Lord God of our fathers, art not thou ^f God in heaven? and ^g I ruled not thou over all the kingdoms of the heaven? and ^h in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou ⁱ our God, ^j who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham ^k thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 ^l If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy ^m name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab, and mount Seir, whom thou ⁿ wouldst not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but ^o they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, ^p to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not ^q judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us: neither know we what to do: but ^r our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the Lord, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ^s Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiab, the son of Jeiel, the son of Matthanias, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, ^t came the Spirit of the Lord in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat. Thus saith the Lord unto you, ^u Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not your's, but God's.

16 To morrow so ye go down against them: behold they come up by the Schill of Ziz: and ye shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 ^v Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the Lord with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed: to morrow go out against them: ^w for the Lord will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the Lord, worshipping the Lord.

19 And the Levites of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korathites, stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ^x And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem: ^y Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the Lord, and ^z that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, ^a Praise the Lord: ^b for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 ^c And when they began ^d to sing and to praise, the Lord set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed the Lord: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the Lord had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the Lord.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the Lord fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his God gave him rest round about.

31 ¶ And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shihin.

32 And he walked in the way of Aha his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord.

33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the 7 book of Jehu the son of Hanani, who was mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 ¶ And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly:

36 ¶ And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Marashah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the Lord hath broken thy works. "And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish."

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Jehoram, succeeding Jehoshaphat, slayeth his brethren. 5 His wicked reign. 8 Edom and Moab revolt. 12 The prophetess Jezebel's death. 14 The prophetess Jezebel's death. 15 His incurable disease, infirmity, death, and burial.

NOW "Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to 2 Jehoram; because he was the firstborn.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 ¶ Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord.

7 Howbeit the Lord would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a light to him and to his sons for ever.

8 ¶ In his days the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand: because he had forsaken the Lord God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 ¶ And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of David thy father, because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Aha king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do as the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

14 Behold, with a great plague will the Lord smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods.

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 ¶ Moreover the Lord stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives: so that there was never a son left him, save Jehozabab, the youngest of his sons.

18 ¶ And after all this the Lord smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed ² without the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Ahaziah succeeding reigneth wickedly. 5 In his confederacy with Joram the son of Ahab, he is slain by Jehu. In Athaliah, destroying all the seed royal, save Joash, whom Jehoshaphat's sister hid, usurpeth the kingdom.

AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem made ^a Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the boldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

² Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

³ He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.

⁴ Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the Lord like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction.

⁵ ¶ He walked also after their counsel, and ⁶ went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.

⁷ And he returned to be healed in Jeze-reel because of the wounds ⁸ which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And ⁹ Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

¹⁰ And the destruction of Ahaziah ¹¹ was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he ¹² went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the Lord had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

¹³ And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and ¹⁴ found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

¹⁵ ¶ And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who ¹⁶ sought the Lord with all his heart.
So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

¹⁷ ¶ But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

¹⁸ But ¹⁹ Jehoshaphat, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehoshaphat, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

²⁰ And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Jehoiada, having set Olives in order, maketh Joash king. 12 Athaliah is slain. 18 Jehoiada reneweth the worship of God.

AND ^a in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jehoram, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Masseiah the son of Adasiah, and Elisha-phat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

² And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

³ And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God.
And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the Lord hath ⁴ said of the sons of David.

⁵ This is the thing that ye shall do: A third part of you ⁶ entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the doors;

⁷ And a third part shall be at the king's house: and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the Lord.

⁸ But let none come into the house of the Lord, save the priests, and ⁹ they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the Lord.

¹⁰ And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death:
but be ye with the king when he cometh in,
and when he goeth out.

¹¹ So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses.

¹² Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king
David's, which were in the house of God.

¹³ And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right ¹⁴ side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

¹⁵ Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and ¹⁶ gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king.

¹⁷ ¶ Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the Lord:

¹⁸ And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets also: the singers with instruments of music, and ¹⁹ such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason, Treason.

²⁰ Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whose followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the Lord.

²¹ So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering in of the horse-gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

²² ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the Lord's people.

²³ Then all the people went to the house of Baal and brake it down, and brake his AMAZIAH ^a was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, ^b but not with a perfect heart.

3 ^c ¶ Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was ² established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the Lord commanded, saying,

^d The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 ^e ¶ Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them ^f from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee: for the Lord is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath ^g power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the ^h army of Israel? And the man of God answered, ⁱ The Lord is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go ^j home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home ^k in great anger.

11 ^l ¶ And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to ^h the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 ^m ¶ But ⁿ the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ^o ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be ^p his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the Lord was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after ^q the gods of the people, which ^r could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath ^s determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ^t ¶ Then ^u Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehohaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The ^v thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by ^w a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldst thou meddle to ^x thine hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear: for ^y it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they ^z sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which ^{aa} belongeth to Judah.

22 And Judah was ^{ab} put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of ^{ac} Jehohaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to ^{ad} the corner gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 ^{ae} ¶ And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehohaz king of Israel fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

27 ^{af} ¶ Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away ^{ag} from following the Lord they ^{ah} made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of ^{ai} Judah.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Uzziah succeeding, and reigning well in the days of Zechariah, prospereth. 16 Wazing proud, he invadeth the priest's office, and is smitten with leprosy. 22 He dieth, and Jotham succeedeth him.

THEN all the people of Judah ^{aj} ^{ak} Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jeoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all 2 valiant men; because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers.

7 And Ziebi, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was 3 next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the Lord was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the Lord God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that 4 reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for 5 bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the Lord your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: 6 for the fierce wrath of the Lord is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war.

13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the Lord already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is 7 fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men 8 which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, 9 the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 1 At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away 4 captives.

18 1 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Shoboa with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

19 For the Lord brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel: for he 2 made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the Lord.

20 And 3 Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the Lord, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 4 And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the Lord: this is that 5 king Ahaz.

23 For 6 he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that 7 they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God. 8 And shut up the doors of the house of the Lord, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places 2 to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the Lord God of his fathers.

26 5 6 Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, Behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Hezekiah's good reign. 3 He restoreth religion. 5 He exhorteth the Levites. 12 They sanctify themselves, and cleanse the house of God. 29 Hezekiah's death, solemn sacrifices, wherein the Levites were more forward than the priests.

HEZEKIAH 9 began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter 6 of Zechariah.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that David his father had done.

3 1 He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, 2 opened the doors of the house of the Lord, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street.

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, 3 sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the Lord God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord our God, and have forsaken him, and have 4 turned away their faces from the habitation of the Lord, and 5 turned their backs.

7 1 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the 2 wrath of the Lord was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to 4 trouble, to astonishment, and to 5 hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For, lo, 6 our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make 7 a covenant with the Lord God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, 5 be not now negligent: for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and 6 burn incense.

12 1 Then the Levites arose, Malath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthan; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, 2 by the words of the LORD, "to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days: and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shew-bread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a P sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought 5 for the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, 4 to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

25 ¶ And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, " according to the commandment of David, and of ¶ Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: 7 for so was the commandment 4 of the LORD 5 by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments 2 of David, and the priests with 4 the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, 8 the song of the LORD began 4 also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were 2 present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have 2 consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and 4 thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was three-score and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not slay all the burnt offerings: wherefore 4 their brethren the Levites 2 aid help them, till the work was ended, and until the 4 other priests had sanctified themselves: 7 for the Levites were more 2 upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with 8 the fat of the peace offerings, and 4 the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimed a solemn passover on the second month for Judah and Israel. 16 The oxen, the rams, and the goats, the offering of abundance, keep the feast seven days. 27 The priests and Levites bless the people.

And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it 4 at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing 4 pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters 4 from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of 4 the kings of Assyria.

7 And he be not ye 4 like your fathers, and like your brethren, which transgressed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore 4 gave them up to destruction, as ye see.

8 Now 4 be ye not 4 stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but 2 yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever; and serve the LORD your God: that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall 4 and 2 compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the Lord your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the Lord.

13 And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the Lord.

16 And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the Lord.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good Lord pardon every one.

19 That prepareth his heart to seek God, the Lord God of his fathers, though he be not sanctified according to the purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the Lord hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the Lord day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the Lord.

22 And Hezekiah spoke comfortably unto all the Levites that taught the good knowledge of the Lord: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and making confession to the Lord God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep: and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy dwelling place, even unto heaven.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The people is feroce and in destroying idolatry. 2 Hezekiah ordereth the courses of the priests and Levites, and provideth for their work and maintenance. 3 The people's fervour in offerings and tithes. 4 Hezekiah appointeth officers to dispose of the tithes. 20 The sincerity of Hezekiah.

NOW when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the Lord.

3 He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the Lord.

4 Moreover he commanded the people that dwell in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the Lord.

5 And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field: and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwell in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the Lord their God, and laid them by heaps.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the Lord, and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the Lord, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty for the Lord hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.

11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the Lord; and they prepared them.

12 And brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: over which Coniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asabel, and Jerimoth, and Joazabad, and Eliel, and Imaebiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Coniah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the free-will offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the Lord, and the most holy things. 15 And next him were Eden, and Minia-min, and Joshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their 2^d set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small:

16 Beside their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the Lord, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses;

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses;

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their 3^d set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

19 Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth before the Lord his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Sennacherib invading Judah, Hezekiah fortified himself, and encouraged his people. 2 Against the blasphemies of Sennacherib, by means and letters, Hezekiah and Isaiah pray. 3 An angel destroyed the host of the Assyrians, to the glory of Hezekiah. 24 Hezekiah praying in his sickness, God giveth him a sign of recovery. 25 He was lying proud is humbled by God. 26 His word, and works. 27 His error in the ambassador of Babylon. 28 He prayeth, and his prayer is answered.

AFTER these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?

5 Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired 4 miles in the city of David, and made 7 darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be strong and courageous, for he not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him:

8 With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the Lord our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his 2 power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The Lord our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the Lord God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also letters to rail on the Lord God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to fright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.

20 And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

21 And the Lord sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his God, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the Lord saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the Lord to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the Lord: and he gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him: for his heart was lifted up; therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. so that the wrath of the Lord came upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 ^q And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels; ²⁸ storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stails for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.

30 ^k This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 ^l Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 ^m Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33 ⁿ And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the schi-fest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 Manasseh's wicked reign. 3 He setteth up idols, and maketh nets to catch men. 11 He carried into Babylon. 12 Even his son to God he is rebellious, and putteth down his father. 18 His acts. 2 Heeding, Amon succedeth him. 21 Amon's reign. 22 He setteth up idols, and maketh nets to catch men. 23 The murders he doth, Judah succedeth him.

MANASSEH ^a was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 ^b For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the Lord, whereof the Lord had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven ^c in the two courts of the house of the Lord.

6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed omens, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers: so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the Lord had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the Lord spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hear.

11 ^d Wherefore the Lord brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the Lord his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him: and he was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord he was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about the city, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the Lord, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the Lord, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the Lord, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings, and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the Lord God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the Lord their God only.

18 ^e Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the Lord God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

19 His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespasses, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.

20 ^f So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 ^g Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them:

23 And humbled not himself before the Lord, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

24 ^h And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 ⁱ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon: and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Josiah's good reign. 3 He destroyeth idolatry. 8 Hezekiah ordereth the repair of the temple. 14 Hosiah's having found a book of the law, Josiah sent to Huldah to enquire of the Lord. 28 Huldah prophesied the destruction of Jerusalem, but Josiah turned in Josiah's time. 29 Josiah's death, and the mourning for him. 30 Josiah's death, and the mourning for him.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah, and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 ¶ And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the 2 images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the 3 graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he 9 burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And as did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their 4 metteks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had 4 beaten the graven images 3 into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 ¶ Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azabiah, and Manasseh the governor of the city, and Josh the son of Johaz the recorder, to repair the house of the Lord his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered 4 the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the Lord, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the Lord, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to fix the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully; and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Gedoniah and Meshulam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward: and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of music.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: And of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, Hilkiah the priest 20 found a book of the law of the Lord given by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the Lord. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed 2 to thy servants, they do it.

17 And they have 5 gathered together the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. 19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and 3 Abeniah the son of Michah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying, 21 Go, enquire of the Lord for us, and for them that are left in Israel; and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the Lord, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of 6 Tachan, the son of 4 Elishah, keeper of the 5 wardrobe: now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college; and they spake to her to that effect.

23 And she answered them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Tell ye the men that sent you to me,

24 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curse that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands: therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the Lord, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard:

27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst read thy clothes, and weep before me: I have even heard thee also, saith the Lord.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 ¶ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the Lord.

31 And the king stood in 7 the place, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused all that were 8 present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand with him. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all the 9 oblations out of all the churches that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the Lord their God. ^aAnd all his days they departed not ^bfrom following the Lord, the God of their fathers.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 Josiah keepeth a most solemn passover. 20 He, smiting Pharaoh-necho, is slain at Megiddo. 35 Lamentations for Josiah.

MOREOVER ^aJosiah kept a passover unto the Lord in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the ^bfourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their ^ccharges, and ^dencouraged them to the service of the house of the Lord,

3 And said unto the Levites ^ethat taught all Israel, which were holy unto the Lord, ^fPut the holy ark ^gin the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; ^hit shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the Lord your God, and his people Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves by the ⁱhouses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the ^jwriting of David king of Israel, and according to the ^kwriting of Solomon his son.

5 And ^lstand in the holy place according to the divisions of ^mthe families of the fathers of your brethren ⁿthe people, and after the division of the families of the Levites,

6 So kill the passover, and ^osanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

7 And Josiah ^pgave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

8 And his princes ^qgave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabab, chief of the Levites, ^rgave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests ^sstood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

11 And they killed the passover, and the priests ^tsprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites ^uflayed them.

12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the Lord, as it is written ^vin the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.

13 And they ^wroasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings ^xand they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and ^ydivided them speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their ^zplace, according to the ^{aa}commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters ^{ab}waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service, for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the Lord was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were ^{ac}present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of ^{ad}unleavened bread seven days.

18 And ^{ae}there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 ^{af}After all this, when Josiah had prepared the ^{ag}temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Ephraim: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against ^{ah}the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but ^{ai}disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore ^{aj}wounded.

24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried ^{ak}in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And ^{al}all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 ^{am}And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and ^{an}all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, ^{ao}and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his ^{ap}goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the Lord, 27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

THEN ^athe people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt ^bput him down at Jerusalem, and ^ccondemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiachim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God.

6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in 2 fetters, to carry him to Babylon.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiachin, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord.

10 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, & with the goodly vessels of the house of the Lord, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the Lord.

13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the Lord God of Israel.

14 Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen: and polluted the house of the Lord which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 And the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place:

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

20 And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon: where they served servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

21 To fulfil the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil three-score and ten years.

22 And now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the Lord spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the Lord God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The Lord his God be with him, and let him go up.

CHAPTER I.

1 The proclamation of Cyrus for the building of the temple. 5 The people provide for the return. 7 Cyrus restoreth the vessels of the temple to Sheshbazzar.

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth: and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the Lord God of Israel, (he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place 2 help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods:

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives.

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

14 The children of Bigvai, two thousand fifty and six.

15 The children of Adin, four hundred fifty and four.

16 The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight.

17 The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and three.

18 The children of ^f Jorah, an hundred and twelve.

19 The children of Hashum, two hundred twenty and three.

20 The children of ^g Gibbar, ninety and five.

21 The children of Beth-lehem, an hundred twenty and three.

22 The men of Netophah, fifty and six.

23 The men of Anathoth, an hundred twenty and eight.

24 The children of ^h Azmaveth, forty and two.

25 The children of Kirjath-arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty and three.

26 The children of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty and one.

27 The men of Michmas, an hundred twenty and two.

28 The men of Beth-el and Ai, two hundred twenty and three.

29 The children of Neho, fifty and two.

30 The children of Magbish, an hundred fifty and six.

31 The children of the other ⁱ Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

32 The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty.

33 The children of Lod, 2 Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and five.

34 The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five.

35 The children of Senaah, three thousand and six hundred and thirty.

36 ^j The priests: the children of ^k Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three.

37 The children of ^l Immer, a thousand fifty and two.

38 The children of ^m Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven.

39 The children of ⁿ Harim, a thousand and seven.

40 ^o The Levites: the children of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the children of ^p Hodaviah, seventy and four.

41 ^q The singers: the children of Asaph, an hundred twenty and eight.

52 The children of ^x Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha, 53 The children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Tamah, 54 The children of Neziha, the children of Hatipha,

55 ^y The children of ^z Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereh, the children of ^{aa} Peruda, 56 The children of Jaalah, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel,

58 All the ^{ac} Nethinims, and the children of ^{ad} Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

59 And these were they which went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, ^{ae} Adan, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, and their ^{af} 2 seed, whither they were of Israel:

60 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two.

61 ^{ag} And of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai: which took a wife of the daughters of ^{ah} Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name:

62 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: ^{ai} therefore ^{aj} 3 were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

63 And the ^{ak} 4 Tirshatha said unto them, that they ^{al} 2 should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with ^{am} Urim and with Thummim.

64 ^{an} ^{ao} The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore,

65 Beside their servants and their maids,

11 ¶ And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the Lord; because he is good. ¶ For his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid.

12 ¶ But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The adversaries, being not accepted in the building of the temple with the Jews, endeavour to hinder it. 7 Their letter to Artaxerxes. 17 The letters of Artaxerxes. 22 The building is hindered.

NOW when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel;

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, ¶ Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building.

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even unto the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of S Absuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 ¶ And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithraiah, Taubel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions: the Dinaites, the Apharsathites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Delavites, and the Elamites.

10 ¶ And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Assuapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and at such a time.

11 ¶ This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king: Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not ² pay tithes, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings.

14 Now because ⁴ we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king;

15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have ⁵ moved sedition ⁶ within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 ¶ Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their ⁷ companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time.

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And ⁸ I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath ⁹ made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ⁴ ruled over all countries ¹ beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

21 ² Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 ¶ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease ⁵ by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

CHAPTER V.

1 Zerubbabel and Joshua, invited by Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple.

3 Tatnai and Shethar-bozrai could not hinder the Jews. 6 Their letter to Darius against the Jews. THEN the prophets, ^a Haggai the prophet, and ^b Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then rose up ^c Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

3 ¶ At the same time came to them ^d Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-bozrai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, ^e Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

4 ¶ Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men ^f that make this building?

5 But ^g the eye of the king was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 ¶ The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-bozrai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter unto him, ² wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with ⁵ great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, ⁴ Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded ¹ and set up.

12 But ^m after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of ⁿ Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of ^o Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And ^p the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto ^q one, ^r whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made ^s governor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and ^t laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and ^u yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore, if ^v it seem good to the king, ^w let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Darius, finding the decree of Cyrus, maketh a new decree for the advancement of the building. 13 By the help of the enemies, and the directions of the prophets, the temple is finished. 16 The feast of the dedication is kept, 19 and the passover.

THEN Darius the king made a decree, ^a and search was made in the house of the ^b scrolls, where the treasures were ^c laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at ^d Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid: the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

 5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.
 6 d Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-bosnai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:
 7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.
 8 Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not hindered.
 9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:
 10 That they may offer sacrifices 6 of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.
 11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon: and let his house be made a dunghill for this.
 12 And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter any to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.
 13 e Then Tattenai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-bosnai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.
 14 f And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the secondment of Artaxerxes king of Persia.
 15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.
 16 g And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy.
 17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.
 18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which rest Jerusalem:
 19 as it is written in the book of Moses.
 20 And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month.
 21 For the priests and the Levites were purined together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the Lord God of Israel, did eat.

22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the Lord had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

*N*OW after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Bilkiah,

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Merathai,

4 The son of Zerabiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon: and he was ready to write in the law of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the Lord his God upon him.

7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babylon: and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the women books of the Law, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time.

13 I make a decree that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Jewish and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand:

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem.

16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy shekels with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat offerings and their drink offerings,

THESE are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

2 Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; ^a Hattush.

^b ch. 2. 3.

3 Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of ^b Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males an hundred and fifty.

4 Of the sons of Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

6 Of the sons also of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Elam; Joshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

8 And of the sons of Shephathiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Elipelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and 3 Zabud, and with them seventy males.

15 ^c And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there ^a abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the ^c sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and 5 I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the ^d good hand of our God upon us they ^e brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 ^f Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

21 ^g Then I ^h proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might ⁱ afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a ^j right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For ^k I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, ^l The hand of our God is upon all them for ^m good that seek him: but his power and his wrath is ⁿ against all them that ^o forsake him.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was ^p intreated of us.

24 ^q Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them ^r the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel ^s there present, had offered:

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents:

27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of ^t fine copper, ^u precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are ^v holy unto the Lord; the vessels are ^w holy also;

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day: and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 ¶ For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, 11 Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us each deliverance as this:

14 Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O Lord God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

NOW when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and fasting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore.

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehoiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God, to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commitment of our God: and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise: for this matter becometh unto thee: we also will be with thee. Be of good courage, and do it.

fore thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and ² confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 ⁴ We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have ⁵ not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, ⁴ If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 ⁴ But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them: ⁵ though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 ⁴ Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

11 O Lord, I beseech thee, ² let not thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who ³ desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's ⁴ cupbearer.

CHAPTER II.

1 Artaxerxes understanding the cause of Nehemiah's sending him, which letters and commission to Jerusalem. 2 Nehemiah, to the proof of his truth, cometh to Jerusalem. 3 He sheweth the ruins of the walls. 4 He inviteth the Jews to build in despite of the enemies.

AND it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of ² Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and ³ I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been ⁴ beforetime and in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but ³ sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, ² Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when ³ the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (The queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him ⁴ his time.

7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over (till I come into Judah):

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which ² appertaineth ³ to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 ⁴ Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, they grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 ⁴ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night ² by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon wall, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the ² gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the ² brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ⁴ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more ⁵ a reproach.

18 Then I told them of ² the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they ⁴ strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Gesenius the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? ⁵ will ye rebel against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us: therefore we his servants will arise and build: ² but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER III.

The names and order of them that builded the wall.

THEN ² Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; ³ even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of ⁴ Hannanel.

2 And next unto them builded ² the men of Jerusalem. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

3 ⁴ But the fish gate did the sons of Hananiah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and ⁵ set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

Jews which dwell by them came, they said unto us ten times, ²From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 ¶ Therefore set I ³in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded ⁴by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 ¶ And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.

CHAPTER V.

1 The Jews complain of their debt, mortgages, and bondage. 2 Nehemiah rebuketh the usurers, and causeth them to make a covenant of restitution. 3 He forbeareth his own allowance, and keepeth hospitality.

AND there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then ²I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk ³in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury. 11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also ⁴I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the Lord. And the people did according to this promise.

14 ¶ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver: yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but ⁵so did not I, because of the fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover there were ⁶at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

60 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

61 ¶ And these were they which went up also from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherna, 3 Adon, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their 4 seed, whether they were of Israel.

62 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two.

63 ¶ And of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Darzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name.

64 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

65 And 2 the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

66 ¶ The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore.

67 Beside their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women.

68 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five.

69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

70 ¶ And 5 some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. ¶ The Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.

71 And 6 some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work 7 twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver.

72 And 8 that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

73 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and 9 some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities: 10 and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

2 And Ezra the priest brought 4 the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all 4 that could hear with understanding, 4 upon the first day of the seventh month.

3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate 5 from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand: and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a 6 pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose: and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Sheneia, and Ananiah, and Urabai, and Balkiah, and Massebiah, on his right hand: and on his left hand, Pothai, and Yehoiada, and Maicheiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 And Ezra opened the book in the 7 sight of all the people: (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people 8 stood up:

6 And Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shebethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelash, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 ¶ And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, ¶ This day is holy unto the Lord your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

11 So the Levites said all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy: neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the Lord had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month:

15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness.

18 Also ¶ day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

CHAPTER IX.

1 A solemn fast, and repentance of the people. 4 The Levites make a religious confession of God's goodness, and their unbelief.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of IN this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

2 And ¶ the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the Lord their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the Lord their God.

4 ¶ Then stood up upon the 2 stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebani, Banni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the Lord their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabai, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebani, and Pethiah, said, Stand up and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 ¶ Thou, even thou, art Lord alone: thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the Lord the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham:

8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and thou hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 ¶ And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea:

10 And shewdest signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 ¶ And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 ¶ Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy Sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 ¶ But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments.

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness; the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy promised spirit to instruct them, and withholdest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Shimon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of the king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of Heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruitful trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 And therefore thou deliverdest them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou hearest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore ledest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou hearest them from heaven: and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies.

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgements, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

30 Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit unto thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake (thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God).

32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepeth covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee. 2 that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

33 Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly.

34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

35 For they have not served thee in thy kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, we are servants unto this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have domination over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38 And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, 2 seal unto it.

CHAPTER X.

1 The names of them that sealed the covenant. 24

The points of the covenant.

NOW those that sealed were, Nehemiah, the Tirshatha, the son of Hachabiah, and Zakkiah, 2 Serubbab, Azariah, Jeremiah, 3 Paschur, Amariah, Malchiah, 4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malchiah, 5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, 6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Barnah, 7 Mesuliam, Abijah, Nijman, 8 Maaziah, Bilgai, Shebaniah: these were the priests.

9 And the Levites: both Jeshua the son of Azariah, Binnui of the sons of Beandad, Kadmiel;

10 And their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodiah, Eliah, Pethiah, Hanan.

11 Michah, Rehob, Hashabiah, 12 Zaccor, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, 13 Hodiah, Bani, Beniam.

14 The chief of the people; d Farosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, 15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, 16 Adoniah, Bigvai, Adin, 17 Ater, Hizkiah, Azzer,

18 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai, 19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, 22 Pethiah, Hanan, Ananiah, 23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub,

24 Hallohesh, Pitha, Shaluk, 25 Rehum, Hashabiah, Maseiah, 26 And Abijah, Hanan, Awan, 27 Malchiah, Harim, Barnah.

28 e And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinims, and all they that had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding:

29 They came to their brethren, their wives, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the Lord our Lord, and his judgments, and his statutes;

30 And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons:
31 And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the ¹seventh year, and the ²exaction of 2 every debt.
32 Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God;
33 For ³the shewbread, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.
34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, ⁴for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the Lord our God, ⁵as it is written in the law:
35 And ⁶to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the Lord:
36 Also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written ⁷in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God:
37 And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and ⁸the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.
38 And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, ⁹when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to ¹⁰the chambers, into the treasure house.
39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi ¹¹shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: ¹²and we will not forsake the house of our God.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The rulers, voluntary men, and the tenth man chosen by lot, dwell at Jerusalem. 2 A catalogue of their names. 30 The residue dwell in other cities.

AND the rulers of the people dwell at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem ¹the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men, that ²willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

3 ³Now these are the chief of the province that dwell in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwell every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and ⁴the Nethinims, and ⁵the children of Solomon's servants.

4 And ⁶at Jerusalem dwell certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah: Athaiab the son of Uzziab, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahaleel, of the children of ⁷Perez;

5 And Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.

6 All the sons of Perez that dwell at Jerusalem were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men.

7 And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiab, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah.

8 And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight.

9 And Joel the son of Zichri the son of the overseer: and Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city.

10 ¹⁰Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin.

11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiab, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zartok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of God.

12 And their brethren that did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malechiah, 13 And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshilemoth, the son of Immer.

14 And their brethren, mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiel, ¹⁴2 the son of one of the great men.

15 Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

16 And Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, ¹⁶3 had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God.

17 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakkukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Sham-mua, the son of Galai, the son of Jeduthun.

18 All the Levites in ¹⁸4 the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four.

19 Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept ¹⁹4 the gates, were an hundred seventy and two.

20 ²⁰5 And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

21 But the Nethinims dwell in ²¹5 Ophel, and Ziha and Giapa were over the Nethinims.

22 The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the house of God.

23 For ²³6 it was the king's commandment concerning them, that ²³6 a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day.

24 And Pethahiah the son of Meshezab-eel, of the children of ²⁴6 Zerah the son of Judah, was ²⁴6 at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

25 And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwell at ²⁵6 Kirjath-arba, and in the villages thereof, and at Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Jekabzeel, and in the villages thereof,

CHAPTER XII.

1 The priests, 8 and the Levites, which came up with Zerubbabel. 10 The consecration of high priests. 22 Certain chief Levites. 23 The solemnity of the dedication of the walls. 34 The offices of priests and Levites appointed in the temple.

NOW these are the 8 priests and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shestiel, and Jeshua: b Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra.

2 Amariah, 4 Malluch, Hattush,

3 Shechaniah, 6 Rehun, 7 Meremoth,

4 Iddo, 8 Ginnetho, c Abijah.

5 9 Miniamin, 2 Maadiah, Bilgah,

6 Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chief of the priests and of their brethren in the days of d Jeshua.

8 Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, c which was 4 the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.

9 Also Bakkubiah and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the watches.

10 e And Jeshua began Joiakim. Joiakim also began Eliashib, and Eliashib began Joiada.

11 And Joiada began Jonathan, and Jonathan began Jaddua.

12 And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

13 Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

14 Of Melicun, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

15 Of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

16 Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

17 Of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Meshiah, Ittai;

18 Of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

19 And of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzai;

20 Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nathaneel.

22 f The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, 9 according to the commandment of David the man of God, a ward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakkubiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the 2 thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Joazak, and in the days of Nehemiah: the governor, and of Ezra the priest, 4 the scribe.

27 g And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, h both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geza and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof i one went on the right hand upon the wall o toward the dung gate;

32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah, 33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah.

35 And certain of the priests' sons p with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Meshiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with q the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 r And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by s the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto t the water gate eastward.

38 u And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond v the tower of the furnaces even unto w the broad wall;

39 x And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above y the old gate, and above z the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto aa the sheep gate: and they stood still in b the prison gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests: Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzai, and Jehohanan, and Nathaniah, and Eiam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices; and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: ³ for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites ⁴ that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, ² according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David ¹ and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: ¹ and they ⁵ sanctified ⁶ holy things unto the Levites: ⁴ and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Upon the reading of the law separation ¹ was made from the mixed multitude. 4 Nehemiah at his return, counsell the chambers to be cleaned. 10 He reformeth the offices in the house of God. 15 The violation of the sabbath, 23 and the marriages with strange wives.

ON that day ⁶ they read in the book of Moses in the ⁷ audience of the people; and therein was found written, ⁶ that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever; ² Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but ³ hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: ⁴ howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

8 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, ⁶ that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this, Eliashib the priest, ⁸ having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, ⁷ where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, ⁹ which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: ⁴ for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and ² after certain days ³ obtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in ¹ preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they ¹ cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had ¹ not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to ² his field.

11 Then ¹ contended I with the rulers, and said, ² Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their ¹ place.

12 ¶ Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the ⁵ treasures.

13 ¶ And I made treasurers over the treasures, Shemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites. Pedaiah: ¹ and next to them was Hanan the son of Zacur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted ² faithful, and ³ their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 ¶ Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my ⁴ good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the ⁵ offices thereof.

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses ¹ on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, ² which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 ¶ Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

18 ¶ Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem ² began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: ⁴ and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye ⁶ about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that ⁶ they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. ¶ Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the ⁷ greatness of thy mercy.

23 ¶ In those days also saw I Jews that ² had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and ² could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language ² of each people.

25 And I ¹ contended with them, and ⁵ cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them ⁷ swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

26 ¶ Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet ² among many nations was there no king like him, ¹ who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: ³ nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to ⁴ transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?

28 And one of the sons ² of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Hionite: therefore I chased him from me.

29 ¶ Remember them, O my God, ⁴ because

THE BOOK OF ESTHER.

CHAPTER I.

1 ^a Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10 ^b Vashti, sent for, refused to come. 13 ^c Ahasuerus, by the counsel of Memucan, maketh the decree of men's governments.

NOW it came to pass in the days of ^a Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, ^b from India even unto Ethiopia, ^c over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

2 ^d That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,

3 In the third year of his reign, he ^e made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were ^f present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace:

6 ^g Where were white, green, and ^h blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: ⁱ the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement ^j of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and ^k royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 ^l On the seventh day, when ^m the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Memucan, Biztha, ⁿ Harbona, Biztha, and Abitha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven ^o chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was ^p fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment ^q by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 ^r Then the king said to the ^s wise men, (which knew the times, for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsana, and Memucan, the ^t seven princes of Persia and Media, ^u which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom:)

15 2 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall ^v despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 ^w If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment ^x from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, ^y that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus: and let the king give her royal estate ^z unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall ^a give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying ^b pleased the king and the princes: and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, ^c unto every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should ^d bear rule in his own house, and ^e that it should be published according to the language of every people.

CHAPTER II.

1 ^f Out of the choice of women a queen is to be chosen. 5 ^g Mordecai sheweth the vision of Esther. 8 ^h Esther is preferred by Esther before the king. 12 ⁱ The vision of Mordecai, and going in to the king. 15 ^j Esther hath planning the king is made queen. 21 ^k Mordecai discovering a treason is rewarded in the chambers.

AFTER these things, when the wrath of ^l king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and ^m what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, ⁿ unto the custody of ^o the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women: and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king: and he did so.

5 ^p Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimeon, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her the things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and she preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 For Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to add six months with oil of myrror, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women:)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shasbazz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

20 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, 2 Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

CHAPTER III.

1 Haman, advanced by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jews. 2 He casteth lots. 3 He obtaineth by calumniation a decree of the king to put the Jews to death.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom: and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasures.

10 And the king took this ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king

 13 And the letters were ^Psent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, ^Qin one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and ^Rto take the spoil of them for a prey.
 14 ^SThe copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.
 15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but ^Tthe city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews.
 4 Esther, understanding it, saith to Mordecai, who sheweth the cause, and adviseth her to undertake the suit. 10 She exclaiming herself is threatened by Mordecai. 15 She appointing a fast undertaketh the suit.

WHEN Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai ^arent his clothes, and put on sackcloth ^bwith ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and ^ccried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 And came even before the king's gate: for none ^dmight enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, ^ethere was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and ^fmany lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 ^gSo Esther's maids and her ^hchamberlains came and told ⁱher. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, ^jone of the king's chamberlains, ^kwhom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of ^lthe sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasures for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him ^mthe copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew ⁿit unto Esther, and to declare ^oit unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 ^pAgain Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai:

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into ^qthe inner court, who is not called, ^rthere is one law of his to put him to death, except such ^sto whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there be enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for ^tsuch a time as this?

15 ^uThen Esther bade them return Mordecai ^vthis answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are ^wpresent in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink ^xthree days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: ^yand if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mordecai ^zwent his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

CHAPTER V.

1 Esther, adventuring upon the king's favour, obtaineth the grace of the golden sceptre, and inviteth the king and Haman to a banquet. 6 She, being encouraged by the king in her suit, inviteth them to another banquet the next day. 8 Haman, proud of his advancement, repineth at the contempt of Mordecai. 14 By the counsel of Zeresh he counsel, for him a pair of gallows.

NOW it came to pass ^aon the third day, that Esther put on ^bher royal apparel, and stood in ^cthe inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that ^dshe obtained favour in his sight: and ^ethe king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Haman drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? ^fIt shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 ^gAnd the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, ^hWhat is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what ⁱis thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is:

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and ^jto perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

9 ^kThen went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless Haman ^lrefrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and ^mthe multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the mighty whom the king delighteth to honour, and 2 bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him. Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: 3 let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him. Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 ¶ And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman fainted to his house mourning, and having his head covered.

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hastened to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Esther, entertaining the king and Haman, maketh suit for her own life and her people's. 5 She accuseth Haman. 7 The king in his anger, under standing of the gallows which Haman had made for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon.

SO the king and Haman came 2 to banquet with Esther the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day 2 at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

4 For we are 4 sold, I and my people, 3 to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

5 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, 4 that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, 5 The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid 6 before the king and the queen.

7 ¶ And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also 7 before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they 4 covered Haman's face.

9 And 4 Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, 7 the 2 gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10 So 2 they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

ON that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told 2 what he was unto her.

the king, and fell down at his feet, and brought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

12 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirtieth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

16 The Jews had Plight, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day.

And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The Jews (the rulers, for fear of Mordecai, helping them) slay their enemies with the ten sons of Haman, 12 Ahasuerus, at the request of Esther, granteth another day of slaughter, and Haman's sons to be hanged. 20 The two days of Purim are made festival.

NOW in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirtieth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them.)

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, 9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha, 10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan: and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar and slew three hundred men at Shushan: but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey.

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same routed they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together ¹on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar ²a day of gladness and feasting, ³and a good day, and of ⁴sending portions one to another.

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To establish ⁵this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly;

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was ⁶turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of ⁷sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, ⁸had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to ⁹consume them, and to destroy them;

25 But ^{5a}when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should ¹⁰return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of ¹¹Pur. Therefore for all the world of ¹²this letter, and of ¹³that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as ¹⁴joined themselves unto them, so as it should not ¹⁵fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not ¹⁶fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them ¹⁷perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, ¹⁸the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with ¹⁹all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to ²⁰the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, 31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed ²¹for themselves and for their seed, the matters of ²²the fastings and their cry.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

CHAPTER X.

1 Ahasuerus's greatness. 3 Mordecai's advancement
AND the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute ¹A upon the land, and upon ²the isles of the sea.

2 And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, ³whereunto the king ⁴advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Jew was ⁵next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, ⁶seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

CHAPTER I.

1 The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children. 6 Satan, appearing before God, by calumny obtains leave to tempt Job. 13 Understanding of the loss of his goods and children, in his mourning he bleseth God.

THERE was a man ¹a in the land of Uz, whose name was ²b Job; and that man was ³c perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

3 His ⁴d substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great ⁵e household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, ⁶f and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job ⁷g continually.

6 ¶ Now ⁸there was a day ⁹h when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and ¹⁰i Satan came also ¹¹j among them.

7 And the Lord said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, From ¹²k going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the Lord said unto Satan, 2 ¹³hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, ¹⁴l a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

9 Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 ¹⁵hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? ¹⁶thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his ¹⁷m substance is increased in the land.

11 ¹⁸But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, ¹⁹n and he will ²⁰o curse thee to thy face.

12 And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy ²¹p power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord.

13 ¶ And there was a day ²²q when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, 21 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.

22 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

CHAPTER III.

1 Satan appearing again before God obtaineth further leave to tempt Job. 2 He smiteth him with sore boils. 3 Job reproacheth his wife, moving him to curse God. 11 His three friends console him in silence.

AGAIN there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the Lord.

2 And the Lord said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he doth not fast his integrity, although thou movest me against him, 7 to destroy him without reason.

4 And Satan answered the Lord, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life.

7 So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes.

9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads to mourn.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAPTER III.

1 Job curses the day and services of his birth. 13 The case of death. 20 He complaineth of life, because of his sorrows.

AFTER this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Job spake, and said, 3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, whose ears are ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11 Why died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest.

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which build desolate places for themselves;

15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

17 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together; there they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

19 The small and the great are there; and the servant is free from his master.

20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul?

21 Which I long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures;

22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?

24 For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion. 7 He teacheth God's judgments to be not for the righteous, but for the wicked. 12 His fearful vision, to humble the excellency of creatures before God.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 If we assay 3 to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but 4 who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou 2 hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholding him that was falling, and thou 6 hast strengthened 5 the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this 6 thy fear, d thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, 6 who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, f they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and 6 by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and 9 the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11 4 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was 7 secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.

13 i In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, 14 Fear 8 came upon me, and 4 trembling, which made 9 all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes. 2 there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 i Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker?

18 Behold, he 6 put no trust in his servants; 3 and his angels he charged with folly:

19 6 How much less in them that dwell in 2 houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20 4 They are 4 destroyed from morning to evening; they perish for ever without any regarding it.

21 7 Both not their excellency which is in them go away? 7 they die, even without wisdom.

CHAPTER V.

1 The harm of inconsideration. 3 The end of the wicked is misery. 6 God is to be regarded in affliction. 17 The happy end of God's correction.

CALL now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou 5 turn?

2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and 6 envy slayeth the silly one.

3 6 I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 6 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, 6 neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and d the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although 2 affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;

7 Yet man is 6 born unto 3 trouble, as 4 the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

9 7 Which doeth great things 5 and unsearchable; marvellous things 6 without number:

10 9 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the 7 fields:

11 4 To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 4 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands 8 cannot perform their enterprise.

13 4 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 i They 9 meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night.

15 But 6 he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

16 6 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 9 Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:

18 9 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

19 9 He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven 7 there shall no evil touch thee.

20 9 In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war 2 from the power of the sword.

21 i Thou shalt be hid 5 from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: 6 neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 2 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt know 4 that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not 5 sin.

25 Thou shalt know also that 9 thy seed shall be 6 great, and thine offspring 2 as the grass of the earth.

26 2 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn 7 cometh in in his season.

27 Lo this, we have 6 searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it 8 for thy good.

3 For now it would be heavier 6 than the sand of the sea: therefore 2 my words are swallowed up.

measured?5 Doth the wild ass bray 2 when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat.8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me 3 the thing that I long for!9 Even 4 that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea,
I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for I have not concealed the words of 5 the Holy One.11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?12 Is my strength the strength of stones?
or is my flesh 6 of brass?13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?14 7 To him that is afflicted pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.15 8 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and 9 as the stream of brooks they pass away;16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:17 What time they wax warm, 6 they vanish: 7 when it is hot, they are 8 consumed out of their place.18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.19 The troops of 9 Tema looked, the companies of 10 Sheba waited for them.20 They were 11 confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.21 12 For now 13 ye are 2 nothing; ye see my casting down, and 14 are afraid.22 Did I say, Bring unto me 15 or, Give a reward for me of your substance?23 Or, deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue; and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.25 How forcible are right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?27 Yea, 3 ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye 16 dig a pit for your friend.28 Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is 4 evident unto you if I lie.29 9 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is 5 in it.30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot 6 my taste discern perverse things?

CHAPTER VII.

1 Job excuseth his desire of death. 12 He complaineth of his own weakness, 17 and God's weakness.18 There not 7 a appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?19 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:3 So am I made to possess 6 months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.4 8 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and 9 the night be gone? and I amfull of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.5 My flesh is 1 clothed with worms and clouds of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.6 1 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.7 O remember that / my life is wind:
mine eye 2 shall no more 3 see good.8 4 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and 4 I am not.9 5 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so 6 he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.11 Therefore I will 7 not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will 8 complain in the bitterness of my soul.12 9 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou set-test a watch over me?13 10 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;14 Then thou searest me with dreams, and terriblest me through visions:15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather 11 than my life.16 12 I hate it; I would not live always:
13 13 I hate it; for I would not live always:

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Bildad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men according to their works. 8 Hea cometh suddenly to prove the certainty of his justice. 20 He completh God's just dealing with Job.THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,2 How long wilt thou speak these things?
and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?3 4 Both God pervert judgment; or doth the Almighty pervert justice?4 If 5 the children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away 6 for their transgression;5 7 If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;6 8 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.7 9 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.8 10 For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:9 11 (For 12 we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)10 12 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?11 13 Can the rush grow up without mire?
can the flag grow without water?

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the Hypocrite's hope shall perish:

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be as a spider's web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and reach the place of stones.

18 If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and he out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers:

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame: and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nothing.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Job, acknowledging God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Man's innocency is not to be condemned to afflictions.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should a man be just with God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not, and sealeth up the stars.

8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.

10 Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.

11 Alas, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to his mercy.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, he filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

23 He scourge saith suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof: if not, where, and who is he?

25 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

26 They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself:

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?

30 If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall I abhor me.

32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

33 Neither is there any daysman between us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me:

35 Then would I speak, and not fear him: but it is not so with me.

CHAPTER X.

1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions. 15 He complaineth of his afflictions, and crieth a little ease before death.

MY soul is weary of my life: I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldst oppress, that thou shouldst despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,

6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

7 And thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

8 Thine hands have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, I owe unto me: and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore I see thou mine affliction;

16 For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.

17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

19 I should have been as though I had not

CHAPTER XI.

1 Zophar reproveh Job, for justifying himself. 5 God's wisdom is unsearchable. 13 The assured blessing of repentance.

THESE answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy 3 lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For "thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

5 But that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;

6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that God exareth of thee less than thine inquiry deserveth.

7 "Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

10 If he be cut out, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?

11 For "he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

12 For "vain man may be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

13 "If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15 "For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear:

16 Because thou shalt "forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away;

17 And thine age shall be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall make suit unto thee.

20 But "the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Job maintaineth his faith toward his friends that receive him. 5 He acknowledgeth the general doctrine of God concerning

AND Job answered and said,

2 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But "I have a perfect understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yea, I who knoweth not a secret thing as these?

4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, as ch. 10, 10, & 17, 2, 6 & 21, 3 & 30, 1.

who "calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 "He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

6 "The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure: into whose hand God bringeth a snare.

7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the Lord hath wrought this?

10 "In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.

11 "Doth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat?

12 "With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

13 "With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, "he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again; he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, "he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up; also he "smothereth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 "With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He breaketh down the pillars away spoiled, and maketh the pillars to quake.

18 He breaketh the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.

19 He breaketh princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

20 "He removeth away "the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

21 "He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

22 "He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 "He increaseth the nations, and de-strengtheth them: he ennobles the nations, and straiteneth them again.

24 He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and "causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 "They creep in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Job reproveh his friends for partiality. 14 He professeth his faith in God. 22 He acknowledgeth his own sin, and his purpose in afflictions.

I, O mine eye, hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 "What ye know the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you.

3 "Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are fools of men, ye are all physicians of no value.

5 O that ye would altogether hold your peace, and it should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 "Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 2 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

15 4 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for a hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

19 4 Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 I only do not two things unto me: then will I not hide myself from thee.

21 2 Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities, and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 2 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?

25 2 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

27 2 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Job inventeth God for favour, but the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 16 By sin the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN that is born of a woman is 6 of few days, and 4 full of trouble.

2 6 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And 4 dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

4 7 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 7 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass:

6 2 Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11 2 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up;

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not:

4 till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 2 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, 2 till my change come.

15 2 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 2 For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 2 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou wastest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changeest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself. 17 He reproveth by tradition the antiquities of wicked men.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk: or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, 5 thou castest off fear, and restrainest 6 prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth 7 uttereth thine iniquity, and thou chooseth the tongue of the crafty.

6 2 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not 1: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 2 Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

8 Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 2 What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 2 With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 2 Are the consolations of God small with thee: is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why dost thine heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 2 What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 2 Behold, he putteth no trust in his mounts: yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

16 2 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, hear me: and that which I have seen I will declare:

18 Which wise men have told 2 from their fathers, and have not hid it:

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 A dreadful sound is in his ears: "in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He "wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that "the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid: they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers: "27 Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collars of fat on his banks.

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and "by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31 Let not him that is deceived "trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence.

32 It shall be "accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake of his purple grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 "They conceive mischief, and bring forth "vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Job reproveth his friends of unmercifulness. 7 He sheweth the pitifulness of his case. 17 He recommenceth his testimony.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.

3 Shall vain words have an end? or what embollement thee that thou answerest?

4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and "shake mine head at you.

5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should announce "your grief.

6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged; and though I forbear, "what am I eased?

7 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

9 "He teareth me in his wrath, he hateth me: he longeth upon me with his teeth; "d mine enemy hath sharpened his eyes upon me.

10 They have "gaped upon me with their mouth; they "have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully: they have "gathered themselves together against me.

11 God "hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and "set me up for his mark.

13 His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant.

15 I have sowed sackcloth upon my skin, and "bedewed my horn in the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 Not for any iniquity in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and "let my cry have no place.

19 Also now, behold, "my witness is in heaven, and my record is "on high.

20 My friends "scoorn me: but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.

21 "O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his "neighbour!

22 When a few years are come, then I shall "go the way whence I shall not return.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Job appealeth again unto God. 8 The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted may be compared, but not dissimulate the righteous. 11 His hope is set on life that is in death.

MY "breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, "the graves are ready for me.

2 Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye "continue in their "provocation?

3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee: who is he that "will strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid thy heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt thee.

5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath made me also as a byword of the people; and "beforetime I was as a taunt.

7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all "my members are as a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath "clean hands "shall be stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, "do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.

11 "My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even "the thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day: the light is "short because of darkness.

13 If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

14 I have said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister.

15 And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

16 They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our "rest together is in the dust.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Bildad reproveth Job of presumption and impiety. 5 The calamities of the wicked.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou ere ye make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak.

3 Wherefore are we counted "as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?

4 He teareth himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for them, and shall the rock be removed out of his place?

5 Yea, "the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

10 The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.

13 It shall devour the strength of his skin: even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength.

14 His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.

15 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

16 His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.

17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.

18 He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

19 He shall neither have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.

20 They that come after him shall be astonished at his day, as they that went before were affrighted.

21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Job, complaining of his friends' cruelty, sheweth there is misery enough in him to feed their cruelty. 21. 28. He craveth pity. 25. He believeth the resurrection.

THEY Job answered and said,

2 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

3 These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye make yourselves strange to me.

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

5 If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach:

6 Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

8 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

9 He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.

11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies.

12 His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.

13 He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

14 My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I intreated him with my mouth.

17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I intreated for the children's sake of mine own body.

18 Yea, young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me.

19 All my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.

20 My bone cleaveth to my skin, and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.

22 Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!

25 For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

26 And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God:

27 Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.

28 But ye should say, Why persecute we him, seeing the root of the matter is found in me?

29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgment.

CHAPTER XX.

Zophar sheweth the state and portion of the wicked.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste.

3 I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

4 Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth,

5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds;

7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

9 The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.

10 His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.

11 His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;

13 Though he spare it, and forsake it not; but keep it still within his mouth:

14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him.

15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.

21 There shall none of his meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the 7 wicked shall come upon him.

23 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: 26 terrors are upon him.

26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: 27 a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

27 The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Job sheweth that even in the judgment of man he hath reason to be grieved. 2 Sometimes the wicked do no prosper, as they despise God. 3 Sometimes their destruction is manifest. 4 The happy and unhappy are alike in death. 5 The judgment of the wicked is in another world.

BUT Job answered and said,

2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolation.

3 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, I mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?

5 Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are safe from fear, and neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

14 Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, their good is not in their hand; the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out! and how oft cometh their destruction upon them! God distributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm 2 carrieth away.

19 God layeth up his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 One dieth in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

24 His breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 They shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where are the dwelling places of the wicked?

29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens, 30 That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

31 Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

33 The cloths of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

34 How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth 2 falsehood?

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Eliphaz sheweth that man's goodness profiteth not God. 2 He accuseth Job of divers sins. 21 He reborth him to repentance, with promises of mercy.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 Can a man be profitable unto God, 3 as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

6 For thou hast 2 taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and 4 stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for 3 the mighty man, he dwelt the earth; and the 6 honourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.

12 Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold 7 the height of the stars, how high they are!

wicked men have trodden?16 Which I were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflowed with a flood:17 Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Almighty do for them?18 Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.19 The righteous see it, and are glad:
and the innocent laugh them to scorn.20 Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.23 If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.24 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.25 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.29 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person.30 He shall deliver the island of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pure-ness of thine hands.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Job longeth to appear before God, in confidence of his mercy. 8 God, who is invisible, observeth our ways. 11 Job's innocency. 13 God's decree is immutable.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 Even to day is my complaint bitter:
my stroke is heavier than my groaning.3 Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.5 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.6 Will he plead against me with his great power? No; but he would put strength in me.7 There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there;
and backward, but I cannot perceive him:9 On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:10 But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.11 My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined.12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; for I have ac-teemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

13 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.14 For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with him.15 Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him.16 For God maketh my heart soft, and the Almighty troubleth me:17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Wickedness goeth often unpunished. 17 There is a secret judgment for the wicked.WHY, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?2 Some remove the landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof.3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they take the widow's ox for a pledge.4 They turn the needy out of the way:
the poor of the earth hide themselves together.5 Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.6 They reap every one his corn in the field: and they gather the vintage of the wicked.7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their vinepresses, and suffer thirst.12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.13 They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the way thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.14 The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.15 As the eagle also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and he disguiseth his face.16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: they know not the light.17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he beareth not the way of the vineyards.19 Drought and heat consume the snow waters: so doth the grave those which have sinned.20 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; (he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.21 He evil entreateth the barren that beareth not; and doeth not good to the widow.22 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety,

25 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

CHAPTER XXV.

Bildad sheweth that man cannot be justified before God.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not ⁴ his light arise?

4 How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.

6 How much less man, that is a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm?

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Job, reproving the uncharitable spirit of Bildad, 6 acknowledgeth the power of God to be infinite and unsearchable.

BUT Job answered and said,

2 How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?

4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

5 Dead things are formed from under the waters, 4 and the inhabitants thereof.

6 Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering.

7 He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

8 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.

9 He holdeth back the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloud upon it.

10 He hath compassed the waters with bounds, 5 until the day and night come to an end.

11 The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproof.

12 He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.

13 By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed ² the crooked serpent.

14 Lo, these are parts of his ways: but how little a portion is heard of him? but the thunder of his power who can understand?

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Job protesteth his sincerity. 8 The hypocrite is without hope. 11 The blessings which the wicked have are turned into curses.

MOREOVER Job 7 continued his parable, and said,

2 As God liveth, ³ who hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul;

3 All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;

4 My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

5 God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me.

6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: ⁴ my heart shall not reproach me 2 so long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

11 I will teach you 5 by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?

13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but (the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a tooth that the keeper maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: 4 he would fain flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 There is a knowledge of natural things. 12 But wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

SURELY there is 3 a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the 6 earth, and brass is molten out of the stove.

3 He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath 7 dust of gold.

7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the 8 rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods 9 from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?

13 Man knoweth not the 4 price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.

14 The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Job's honour is turned into extreme contempt. 15 His prosperity into calamity.

BUT now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste.

4 Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat.

5 They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief;)

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

8 They were children of fools, yea, children of base men: they were viler than the earth.

9 And now am I their song, yea, I am their byword.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

11 Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue 8 my soul as the wind: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest.

CHAPTER XXXI.

Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity in several duties.

I MADE a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hastened to deceit;

6 Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;

8 Then let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;

10 Then let my wife grind unto me, and let others bow down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me;

14 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided 5 her from my mother's womb);

19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

20 If his loins have not been blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:

22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.

23 For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;

26 If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness;

27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is above.

29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him;

30 Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.

31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

32 The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveller.

33 If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom:

34 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?

35 Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book.

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me.

37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near unto him.

38 If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain;

39 If I have eaten 8 the fruits thereof without money, or 6 have 9 caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

9 Heb. caused the soul of the owners thereof to expire, or, breathe out. 6 Gen. 3. 13. 2 Or, noisome weeds.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends. 6 Because wisdom cometh not from age, he reproveth them the boldness of his youth. 11 He reproves them for not satisfying of Job. 16 His zeal to speak.

SO these three men ceased 3 to answer Job, because he was 2 righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified 4 himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had 5 waited till Job had spoken, because they were 6 elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am 7 young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words: I gave ear to your 9 reasons, whilst ye searched out 2 what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words:

13 For I felt ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which ⁶ hath no vent: it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 I will speak, ⁷ that I must be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, ⁸ accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 Elihu offereth himself instead of Job, with sincerity and meekness, to reason with God. 8 He accuseth God from giving man an account of his ways, by his greatness. 14 God calleth man to repentance by visions, 19 by afflictions, 23 and by his ministers. 31 He inciteth Job to attention.

WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken ⁸ in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 ⁹ The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If then canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.

6 ¹⁰ Behold, I am ⁹ according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am ² formed out of the clay.

7 ¹¹ Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken ³ in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying, 9 ¹² I am clean without transgression, I am innocent: neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy, 11 ¹³ He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13 Why dost thou ⁹ strive against him? for ⁴ he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 ¹⁴ For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 ¹⁵ In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 ¹⁶ Then ⁵ he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction.

17 That he may withdraw man from his ⁶ purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life ⁷ from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 ¹⁷ So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul ⁸ dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found ² a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher ³ than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 ⁴ He looketh upon men, and if any ⁵ say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it ⁶ profited me not:

28 ⁵ He will ⁷ deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God ⁸ oftentimes with man, 30 ⁹ To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, ⁹ hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with injustice. 10 God cannot be unjust. 21 Man must humble himself unto God. 34 Elihu reproacheth Job.

FURTHERMORE Elihu answered and said,

2 Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 ¹⁰ For the ear trieth words, as the ⁷ mouth tasteth meat.

4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job hath said, ⁸ I am righteous: and ⁹ God hath taken away my judgment.

6 ¹¹ Should I lie against my right? ⁸ my wound is incurable without transgression.

7 What man is like Job, ⁹ who drinketh up scolding like water?

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

9 For ¹² he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye ⁹ men of understanding: ⁹ far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 ¹³ For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty ¹⁰ pervert judgment.

13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed ² the whole world?

14 If he set his heart ³ upon man, if he ⁴ gather unto himself his spirit and his breath:

15 ¹¹ All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

17 ¹² Shall even he that hateth right ⁴ govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 ¹³ Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that ⁵ accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for ⁶ they all are the work of his hands.

2 Or, My father, let Job be tried.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled ⁷ at midnight, and pass away: and ² the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

21 ⁷ For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22 ⁴ There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should ³ enter into judgment with God.

24 ⁷ He shall break in pieces mighty men ⁴ without number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are ⁵ destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men ⁶ in the open sight of others;

27 Because they ⁷ turned back ⁷ from him, and ⁸ would not consider any of his ways:

28 So that they ⁹ cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he ² heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest ² the people be ensnared.

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, ⁶ I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

32 That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

33 ⁸ Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

34 Let men ⁹ of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

35 ⁶ Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 ² My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend unto him. 9 Many cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for want of faith.

ELIHU spake moreover, and said, 2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

3 For ² thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, ⁵ if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 I will answer thee, and ⁶ thy companions with thee.

5 ⁶ Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 ⁶ If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 ⁷ By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But none saith, ⁹ Where is God my Maker, who giveth sons in the night;

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 ² There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not bear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 ² Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore ³ trust thou in him.

15 But now, because it is not so, ² he hath ⁵ visited in his anger; yet ³ he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 ⁷ Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways. 16 How Job a sinner hindered God's blessings. 24 God's works are also to be magnified.

ELIHU also proceeded, and said, 2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee ⁴ that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: ² he is mighty in strength and ³ wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the ⁴ poor.

7 ⁶ He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but ² with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be held in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 ⁶ He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, ⁷ they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart ⁹ heap up wrath: they cry out when he bindeth them.

14 ² They die in youth, and their life is among the ³ unclean.

15 He delivereth the 2 poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait ² into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and ³ that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: ⁴ judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, because lest he take thee away with his stroke: then ² a great ransom cannot ³ deliver thee.

19 ⁷ Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, ⁹ regard not iniquity: for ² this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: ⁹ who teacheth like him?

23 ⁷ Who hath enjoined him his way? or ² who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou ⁹ magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we ² know

28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.

32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works.
15 His unsearchable in them.

At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it not under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvelously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind; and cold out of the north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given; and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth his bright cloud:

12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

18 Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

22 Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 God challenge Job to answer. 4 God, by his mighty works, convinceth Job of ignorance, 31 and of imbecility.

THEN the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

3 I will demand of thee, and thou shalt answer me.

4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof?

7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,

10 And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the dayspring to know his place;

13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?

14 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

15 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken.

16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea; or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

17 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all.

19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof?

20 That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?

21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?

22 Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail, 23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

24 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

25 Who hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder;

26 To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

27 To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

28 Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

31 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of the Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?

32 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?

33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?

36 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven?

38 When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clouds cleave fast together?

39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions?

40 When they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?

41 Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 Of the wild goats and kinds. 5 Of the wild ass.

8 The unicorn. 13 The peacock, stork, and ostrich in the house. 28 The hawk. 29 The eagle.

KNOWEST thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.

4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not unto them.

5 Who hath sent out the wild ass free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?

6 Where house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.

7 He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.

8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.

9 Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy crib?

10 Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?

11 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him?

12 Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn?

13 Darest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or 7 wings and feathers unto the ostrich?

14 Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in dust.

15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.

16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not her's: her labour is in vain without fear;

17 Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.

18 What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.

19 Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?

20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.

21 He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men.

22 He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turneth he back from the sword.

23 The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield.

24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.

25 He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

26 Deth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?

27 Deth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high?

28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.

29 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.

30 Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

CHAPTER XL.

1 Job humbleth himself to God. 6 God strengthen him up to show his righteousness, power, and wisdom. 15 Of the behemoth.

MOREOVER the Lord answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 Then Job answered the Lord, and said,

4 Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 Then answered the Lord unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

7 Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee: he catch grass as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his bones are wrapped together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

CHAPTER XLII.

Of God's great power in the leviathan.

CANST thou draw out 4 ^a leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord 5 ^b which thou letteth down?

2 CANST thou 6 put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?

11 ^c Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? ^d whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him 6 with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

15 His 7 scales are his pride, shut up together: as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 9 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.

26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the 2 habergeon.

27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.

30 2 Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

32 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.

33 Upon earth there is not his like, 3 who is made without fear.

34 He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 Job submitteth himself unto God. 7 God, preferring Job's cause, maketh his friends submit themselves, and accepteth him. 10 He magnifieth and blesseth Job. 11 Job's age and death.

THEN Job answered the Lord, and said. 2 I know that thou 4 canst do every thing, and that 4 no thought can be withholden from thee.

3 ^b Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; 6 things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: 4 I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.

6 Wherefore I 6 abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

7 9 And it was so, that after the Lord had spoken these words unto Job, the Lord said to Eliphaz the Temanite. My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now 7 seven bullocks and seven rams, and 9 go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall 4 pray for you: for 5 him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the Lord commanded them: the Lord also accepted 6 Job.

10 And the Lord turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the Lord 7 gave Job 4 twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him / all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before; and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

12 So the Lord blessed 10 the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had 14 fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

13 9 He had also seven sons and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 After this 11 lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

17 So Job died, being old and 9 full of days.

PSALM IV.

1 David prayeth for audience. 2 He reprovveth and exhorteth his enemies. 6 Man's happiness is in God's favour.

To the 2 chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of David.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; ^a have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? ^b how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

3 But know that ^c the Lord hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the Lord will hear when I call unto him.

4 ^d Stand in awe, and sin not: ^e commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

7 Thou hast put ^h gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: ⁱ for thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety.

1 David prayeth, and professeth his study in prayer. 4 God favoureth not the wicked.

David, professing his faith, prayeth unto God to guide him, 10 to destroy his enemies, 11 and to preserve the godly.

To the chief Musician upon Nebiloth, A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my words, O Lord, consider my meditation.

2 Harken unto the ^a voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for ^b unto thee will I pray.

3 ^c My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 ^d The foolish shall not stand ^e in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

12 For thou, Lord, wilt bless the righteous: with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

PSALM VI.

1 David's complaint in his sickness. 8 By faith he triumpheth over his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neghinoth. 5 Upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord; for I am weak: O Lord, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O Lord, how long?

4 Return, O Lord, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning; 7 all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

7 Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my supplication; the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

PSALM VII.

1 David prayeth against the malice of his enemies, professing his innocency. 10 By faith he seeth his defence, and the destruction of his enemies.

8 Shigaion of David, which he sang unto the Lord. 9 concerning the 2 words of Cush the Benjamite.

O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:

2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my lands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me: (yea, if I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy)

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

6 Arise, O Lord, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

8 The Lord shall judge the people: judge me, O Lord, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

10 4 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

11 5 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

14 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will praise the Lord according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the Lord most high.

PSALM VIII.

God's glory is magnified by his works, and by his love to man.

To the chief Musician 5 upon Gittith, A Psalm of David.

O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9 O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM IX.

1 David praiseth God for executing judgment. 11 He inviteth others to praise him. 13 He prayeth that he may have cause to praise him.

To the chief Musician upon Muth-labben, A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most high.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fail and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

9 The Lord also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

PSALM X.

1 David complaineth to God of the outrage of the wicked. 12 He prayeth for remedy. 16 He protesteth his confidence.

WHY standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and he boasteth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: 7 God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous; 7 thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: 7 for I shall never be in adversity.

7 His mouth is full of cursing and 9 deceit and fraud: 7 under his tongue is mischief 2 and 2 vanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: 2 in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: 3 his eyes 3 are privily set against the poor.

9 He lieth in wait 4 secretly as a lion in his den: he is high in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall 4 by his strong arms.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: 9 he hideth his face; he will never see 4.

12 Arise, O LORD: O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

13 Wherefore 4 doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require 4.

PSALM XI.

1 David encourageth himself in God against his enemies. 4 The providence and justice of God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my trust: 4 how say I ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

2 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, 4 they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may 4 privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's throne is in heaven: 4 he has beheld, his eyes try the children of men.

5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

6 Upon the wicked he shall rain 4 snare, fire and brimstone, and 4 an horrible tempest: 4 this shall be the portion of their cup.

To the chief Musician 7 Upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

HELP, LORD: for the godly man ceaseth: 4 for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: 4 with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips and the tongue that speaketh 4 proud things:

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail: our lips 4 are our own, who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise with the LORD: I will set him in safety from him that 4 putteth at him.

6 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

PSALM XIV.

David describeth the corruption of a natural man.
He convinceth the wicked by the light of their conscience. 7. He glorieth in the salvation of God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the Lord.

There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the Lord is his refuge.

Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the Lord bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM XV.

David describeth a citizen of Zion.

A Psalm of David.

Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

David. Ps. 15. 8. Deut. 16. 19. Ps. 15. 8.

PSALM XVI.

David, in distrust of merits, and hatred of idols, ascribeth to God for preservation. 5. He sheweth the hope of his calling, of the resurrection, and life everlasting.

Michtam of David.

PRESERVE me, O God: for in thee do
I put my trust.

O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord,
Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee;

But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places: yea, I have a goodly heritage.

I will bless the Lord, who hath given me counsel: for my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

I have set the Lord always before me:
because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy
One to see corruption.

Thou wilt shew me the path of life:
in thy presence is fulness of joy: at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM XVII.

David, in confidence of his integrity, craveth defence of God against his enemies. 10. He sheweth their pride, craft, and eagerness. 15. He prayeth against them in confidence of his hope.

A Prayer of David.

HEAR the right, O Lord, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

Thou hast proved mine heart: thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing: I am pur-posed that my mouth shall not transgress.

Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

Shew thy marvellous lovingkindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

From the wicked thou shalt oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who compass me about.

They are incircled in their own fat:
with their mouth they speak proudly.

They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

Arise, O Lord, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wickedness which is thy sword:

From men which are thy hand, O Lord, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are like children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

PSALM XVIII.

David praiseth God for his manifold and manifold blessings.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of the Lord, who spake unto the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said,

I WILL love thee, O Lord, my strength. 2 The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, 4 my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. 3 I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke of our nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place: his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.

13 The Lord also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail stones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O Lord, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the Lord was my stay.

19 He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 Therefore hath the Lord recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.

25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.

28 For thou wilt light my candle: the Lord my God will enlighten my darkness.

29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

31 For who is God save the Lord? or who is a rock save our God?

32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the Lord, but he answered them not.

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me.

45 The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

46 The Lord liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

47 It is God that saveth me, and he subdueth the people unto me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above them: that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

49 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

50 Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

1 A thanksgiving for victory. Confidence of David.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 THE king shall joy in thy strength, O Lord: and ^a in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!

2 ^b Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.

3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou ^c settest a crown of pure gold on his head.

4 ^d He desired life of thee, and thou gavest it him, ^e even length of days for ever and ever.

5 His glory is great in thy salvation: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.

6 For thou hast ^f made him most blessed for ever: ^g thou hast ^h made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.

7 For the king trusteth in the Lord, and through the mercy of the most High he ⁱ shall not be moved.

8 ^j Thine hand shall ^k find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9 ^l Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the Lord shall ^m swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

10 ⁿ Their fruit shall thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against thee: they ^o imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore ^p shalt thou make them turn their ^q back, when thou shalt make ready ^r thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, Lord, in thine own strength: ^s so will we sing and praise thy power.

har, A Psalm of David.

MY ^a God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? ^b why art thou so far ^c from helping me, and from ^d the words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season, and I am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the ^e praises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: ^f they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But I am ^g a worm, and no man: I am reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 All they that see that me laugh me to scorn: they ^h shoot out the lip, ⁱ they shake the head, saying,

8 ^j He trusted on the Lord that he would deliver him: ^k let him deliver him, ^l seeing he delighted in him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou ^m didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: ⁿ thou art my God from my mother's belly.

11 Be not far from me: for trouble is near; ^o for there is ^p none to help.

12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

13 ^q They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, ^r and all my bones are ^s out of joint: ^t my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 ^u My strength is dried up like a potsherd: and ^v my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For ^w dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: ^x they pierced my hands and my feet.

21 ^a Save me from the lion's mouth: ^a for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.
22 ^a I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.
23 ^a Ye that fear the Lord, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.
24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but ^a when he cried unto him, he heard.
25 ^a My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: ^a I will pay my vows before them that fear him.
26 ^a The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the Lord that seek him: your heart ^a shall live for ever.
27 ^a All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord: ^a and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.
28 ^a For the kingdom is the Lord's: and he is the governor among the nations.
29 ^a All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: ^a all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him: and none can keep alive his own soul.
30 A seed shall serve him, ^a it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.
31 ^a They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

PSALM XXIII.

David's confidence in God's grace.

A Psalm of David.

THE Lord is ^a my shepherd; ^b I shall not want.
2 ^a He maketh me to lie down in ^a green pastures: ^a he leadeth me beside the ^a still waters.
3 He restoreth my soul: ^a he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of ^a the shadow of death, ^a I will fear no evil: ^a for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
5 ^a Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou ^a hast anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord ^a for ever.

PSALM XXIV.

1 God's lordship in the world. 2 The citizens of his universal kingdom. 3 An exhortation to rescue him.

A Psalm of David.

THE ^a earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.
2 ^a For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.
3 ^a Who shall ascend unto the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy places?
4 ^a He that hath ^a clean hands, and a pure heart: who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor ^a sworn deceitfully.
5 He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and all his works shall prosper.
6 Job 17. 9. 1 Tim. 2. 8.

Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that ^a seek thy face, ^a O Jacob. Selah.
7 ^a Lift up your heads, O ye gates: and be ye ^a lifted up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.
8 Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.
9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates: even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.
10 Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

PSALM XXV.

1 David's confidence in prayer. 2 He prayeth for remission of sins, and for help in affliction. A Psalm of David.

UNTIL ^a thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
2 O my God, I ^a trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, ^a let not mine enemies triumph over me.
3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.
4 ^a Shew me thy ways, O Lord; and teach me thy paths.
5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.
6 Remember, O Lord, ^a thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses: for they have been ever of old.
7 Remember not ^a the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: ^a according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness's sake, O Lord.
8 Good and upright is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.
9 The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.
10 All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
11 ^a For thy name's sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity: ^a for it is great.
12 What man is he that feareth the Lord? Him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.
13 ^a His soul ^a shall dwell at ease; and ^a his seed shall inherit the earth.
14 ^a The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him: ^a and he will shew them his covenant.
15 ^a Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.
16 ^a Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me: for I am desolate and afflicted.
17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring them me out of my distresses.
18 ^a Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins.
19 Consider mine enemies: for they are many; and they hate me with ^a cruel hatred.
20 O keep me, soul, and deliver me: ^a for me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee.
21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me: for I wait on thee.
22 ^a Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

PSALM XXVII.

1 David sustains his faith by the power of God, & by his love to the service of God, & by prayer.

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is my light and my salvation: whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

4 One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy: I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face: my heart said unto thee, Thy face LORD, will I seek.

9 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help: leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

14 Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

PSALM XXVIII.

1 David prays earnestly against his enemies. 8 He blesseth God. 9 He prays for the people.

A Psalm of David.

UNTIL thou wilt cry, O Lord, my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands towards thy holy oracle.

3 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert.

5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

6 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.

8 The LORD is my strength, and he is the strength of my anointed.

9 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

PSALM XXIX.

1 David exhorteth princes to give glory to God, by reason of his power, and protection of his people.

A Psalm of David.

GIVE unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon 2 many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars: yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness: the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.

11 The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

PSALM XXX.

1 David praiseth God for his deliverance. 4 He exhorteth others to praise him by example of God's dealing with him.

A Psalm and Song 8 at the dedication of the house of David.

I WILL extol thee, O Lord: for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

PSALM XLII.

1 David showing his confidence in God craveth his help. 7 He rejoiceth in his mercy. 10 He prayeth in his calamity. 13 He praiseth God for his goodness.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

IN ⁴thee, O Lord, do I put my trust: let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness.

2 Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.

3 For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore ⁵for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.

4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.

5 Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of truth.

6 I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the Lord.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities:

8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing; my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

13 For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side; while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

14 But I trusted in thee, O Lord: I said, Thou art my God.

15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me by thy mercies' sake.

17 Let me not be ashamed, O Lord; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.

15 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

16 How great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee: which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

17 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

18 Blessed be the Lord: for he hath showed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

19 For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

20 O love the Lord, all ye his saints: for the Lord preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

21 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord.

PSALM XXXII.

1 Blessedness consisteth in remission of sins. 3 Confession of sin causeth ease to the conscience. 6 God's promises being joy.

A Psalm of David, Maschil.

BLESSED is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man upon whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

7 Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: mine eye will guide thee with mine eye.

9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

11 Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous: and about for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM XXXIII.

1 God is to be praised for his goodness. 8 For his power. 12 and for his presence. 20 Confidence in the Lord.

REJOICE in the Lord, O ye righteous: for his praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the Lord with harps: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song: play skillfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the Lord is right; and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and indurment: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

8 Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For the spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 ¹¹ The Lord ¹² bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 ¹² The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart ¹³ to all generations.

12 ¹⁴ Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath ¹⁵ chosen for his own inheritance.

13 ¹⁶ The Lord looketh from heaven; he beareth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; ¹⁶ he considereth all their works.

16 ¹⁷ There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 ¹⁸ An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 ¹⁹ Behold, the eye of the Lord is ²⁰ upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

19 To deliver their soul from death, and ²⁰ to keep them alive in famine.

20 ²¹ Our soul waiteth for the Lord: ²² he is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

22 Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

1 David praiseth God, and exhorteth others thereto by his experience. 8 They have blessed that trust in God. 11 He exhorteth to the fear of God. 15 The privileges of the righteous.

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before A Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.

I WILL ¹ bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: ³ the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O ⁴ magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

4 I ⁵ sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 ⁶ They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 ⁷ This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and ⁸ saved him out of all his troubles.

7 ⁹ The angel of the Lord ¹⁰ encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O ¹¹ taste and see that the Lord is good: ¹² blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 ¹³ O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10 ¹⁴ The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: ¹⁵ but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: ¹² I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

12 ¹³ What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 ¹⁴ Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from ¹⁵ speaking guile.

14 ¹⁶ Depart from evil, and do good: ¹⁷ seek peace, and pursue it.

15 ¹⁸ The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their ¹⁹ cry.

16 ²⁰ The face of the Lord is against them that do evil: ²¹ to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 ²² The righteous cry, and ²³ the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 ²⁴ The Lord is nigh ²⁵ unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be ²⁶ of a contrite spirit.

19 ²⁷ Many are the afflictions of the righteous: ²⁸ but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: ²¹ not one of them is broken.

21 ²² Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous ²³ shall be desolate.

22 The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

PSALM XXXV.

1 David prayeth for his own safety, and his enemies' confusion. 11 He complaineth of their wrongful dealing. 22 Thereby he incited God against them.

A Psalm of David.

PLEAD ¹ my cause, O Lord, with them that strive with me: ² fight against them that fight against me.

2 ³ Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 ⁵ Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be ⁶ turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

5 ⁷ Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the Lord chase them.

6 Let their way be ⁷ dark and slippery: and let the angel of the Lord persecute them.

7 For without cause have they ⁸ hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

8 Let destruction come upon him ⁹ as an awarance: and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the Lord: ¹⁰ it shall rejoice in his salvation.

10 ¹¹ All my bones shall say, Lord, ¹² who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

11 ¹³ False witnesses did rise up; ¹⁴ they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 ¹⁵ They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul.

13 But as for me, ¹⁴ when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: ¹⁵ I humbled my soul with fasting: ¹⁶ and my prayer returned into mine own bosom.

14 ¹⁷ I behaved myself ¹⁸ as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine ¹⁶ adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not: they did ¹⁷ tear me, and caused not.

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, ¹⁷ they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM XXXVII.

David persuadeth to patience and confidence in God, by the different estate of the good and the wicked.

A Psalm of David.

FRET ^a not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down ^b like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the Lord, and do good: ^c shalt thou dwell in the land, and ^d verily thou shalt be fed.

4 ^e Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 ^f Commit thy way unto the Lord: trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

6 ^g And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

7 ^h Rest in the Lord, ⁱ and wait patiently for him: I fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: ^j fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 ^k For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For ^l yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, ^m thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 ⁿ But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked ^o plotteth against thee, and enmisseth upon him with his teeth.

13 ^p The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that ^q his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay ^r such as be of upright conversation.

15 ^s Their sword shall enter into their own neck, and their bows shall be broken.

16 ^t A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

17 For ^u the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the Lord upholdeth the righteous.

18 The Lord ^v knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be ^w for ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and ^x in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall be as ^y the fat of lambs: they shall consume: ^z into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked ^a trembleth, and payeth not again: but ^b the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.

22 ^c For ^d such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth: and they that be cursed of him ^e shall be cut off.

23 ^f The steps of a ^g just man are ^h ordered by the Lord: and he delighteth in his way.

24 ⁱ Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

25 ^j I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed ^k begging bread.

26 ^l He is ^m ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

27 i Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

28 For the Lord loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

31 The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The Lord will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree.

36 Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the Lord: he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And the Lord shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

PSALM XXXVIII.

David moveth God to take compassion of his pitiful case.

A Psalm of David, 4 to bring to remembrance.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For 6 thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; 4 neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.

4 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am troubled; 7 I am bowed down greatly; 8 I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a cleathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore; and my kinsmen stand afar off.

12 They also that seek after my life lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt speak mischief things, and imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not: and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For 2 in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou wilt hear, O Lord my God.

16 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

17 For I am ready 4 to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

18 For I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies are lively, and they are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

20 They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; 5 because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.

22 Make haste 6 to help me, O Lord 4 my salvation.

PSALM XXXIX.

1 David's care of his thoughts. 3 The consideration of the brevity and vanity of life. 7 the reverence of God's judgments, 10 and prayer, are his chief of immaturity.

To the chief Musician, even to 7 Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

I SAID, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep 3 my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was 5 stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue.

4 Lord, I make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: 6 verily every man 5 at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6 Surely every man walketh in 4 a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: 4 he heareth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not 6 the reproach of the foolish.

9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because 6 thou didst it.

10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the 5 blow of thine hand.

11 When thou wilt rebuke 6 dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest 6 his beauty to consume away like a moth: 7 surely every man is vanity. Selah.

12 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: 7 for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, 7 as all my fathers were.

13 O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

2 He brought me up also out of - an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our Lord: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

4 Blessed is that man that maketh the Lord his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O Lord, my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, (and thy thoughts which are to me unsearchable) they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

6 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire: mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me,

8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained of my lips, O Lord, I thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart: I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness, and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me.

13 Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me: O Lord, make haste to help me.

14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it: let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil.

15 Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Ah, ah.

16 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The Lord be magnified.

17 But I am poor and needy: yet the Lord thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

PSALM XLII.

1 God's care of the poor. 4 David complained of his extreme misery. 10 He desires to God for aid.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.

2 The Lord will preserve him, and keep him alive: and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

3 The Lord will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in sickness.

4 I said, I have been merciful unto me: heal my soul: for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish.

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart is as a stone, he belitteth it: when he shall arise, he will talk of it.

7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt.

8 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he hath he shall rise up no more.

9 Yea, 2 mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.

10 But thou, O Lord, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that thou favorest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

12 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.

13 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

PSALM XLIII.

1 David's zeal to serve God in the temple. 6 He desires to go up to the temple in Jerusalem.

To the chief Musician, 4 Maschil, for the sons of Korah.

AS the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3 My tears have been my meat day and night, while I continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

4 When I remember these things, my soul is enlarged, for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holiday.

5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? A hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

7 Deep is my sorrow: unto deep, at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 Yet the Lord will command his lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why so I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me: while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIV.

1 David, praying to be returned to the temple, promises to serve God faithfully. 5 He encourages his soul to trust in God.

JUDGE ME, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation: O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength: why dost thou cast me off? why so I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

4 Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God my God.

5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIV.

1 The church, in memory of former favours, 7 complaineth of their present evils. 17 Professing her integrity, 23 she fervently prayeth for succour.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, ^a our fathers have told us, ^b what thou didst in their days, in the times of old. ^c How ^d thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantest them; ^e how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

3 For ^f they got not the hand in possession by their own sword, neither did they own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, ^g because thou hadst a favour unto them.

4 ^h Thou art my Jacob, O God: command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through thee ⁱ will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For ^j I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast ^k put them to shame that hated us.

8 In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

9 But ^l thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11 ^m Thou hast given us 2 like sheep appointed for meat; and hast ⁿ scattered us among the heathen.

12 ^o Thou sellest thy people 3 for nought, and dost not increase ^p thy wealth by their price.

13 ^q Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 ^r Thou makest us a byword among the heathen, ^s a shaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me.

16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; ^t by reason of the enemy and avenger.

17 ^u All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee. neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 Our heart is not turned back, ^v neither have our steps declined from thy way;

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in ^w the place of dragons, and covered us ^x with the shadow of death.

20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or ^y stretched out our hands to a strange god;

21 ^z Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 ^{aa} Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 ^{ab} Awake, my sleepiest thou, O Lord? arise, ^{ac} and cast us not off for ever.

24 ^{ad} Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

25 For ^{ae} our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise ^{af} for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

PSALM XLV.

1 The majesty and grace of Christ's kingdom. 10 The duty of the church, and the benefits thereof. To the chief Musician, upon Shoshannim, for the sons of Korah, 7 Maschil, A Song of loves.

MY heart 2 is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 Thou art fairer than the children of men: ^a grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, ^b O most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

4 ^c And in thy majesty ^d ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; ^e whereby the people fall under thee.

6 ^f Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

7 ^g Thy lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore ^h God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8 ⁱ All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

9 ^j Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women: ^k upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Harken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear: ^l forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;

11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: ^m for he is thy Lord; and worship thou him.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift: ⁿ even ^o the rich among the people shall intreat ^p thy favour.

13 ^q The king's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

14 ^r She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework: the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the king's palace.

16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, ^s whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth.

17 ^t I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

PSALM XLVI.

1 The confidence which the church hath in God. 8 An exhortation to behold it.

To the chief Musician ^a for the sons of Korah, 7 A Song upon 8 Alamoth.

GOD is our ^b refuge and strength, ^c a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into ^d the midst of the sea:

3 ^e Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

4 There is ^f a river, the streams whereof shall make glad ^g the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

5 God is ^h in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, ⁱ and that right early.

6 ^j The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, ^k and the earth melted.

7 ^l The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is ^m our refuge. Selah.

8 ⁿ Behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

8 ¹ I will not reprove thee ² for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.
9 ³ I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.
10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.
11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are 2 mine.
12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: For the world is mine, and the fullness thereof.
13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?
14 ⁴ Offer unto God thanksgiving; and ⁵ pay thy vows unto the most High:
15 And ⁶ call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt ⁷ glorify me.
16 But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?
17 ⁸ Seeing thou hatest instruction, and ⁹ castest my words behind thee.
18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou ¹⁰ consentedst with him, and ¹¹ hast been ¹² partner with adulterers.
19 ¹³ Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and ¹⁴ thy tongue frameth deceit.
20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.
21 These things hast thou done. ¹⁵ And I kept silence; ¹⁶ thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.
22 Now consider this, ye that ¹⁷ forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.
23 ¹⁸ Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and ¹⁹ to him ²⁰ that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.

PSALM LI.

1 David prayer for remission of sins, whereof he made him confession. 2 He prayed for forgiveness. 3 That he might not iniquify, but in sincerity. 4 He prayed for the church.
To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.
When Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.
HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies ¹ blot out my transgressions.
2 ² Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.
3 ³ For ⁴ I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.
4 ⁵ Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil ⁶ in thy sight: ⁷ that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.
5 ⁸ Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; ⁹ and in sin did my mother conceive me.
6 ¹⁰ Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward part: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.
7 ¹¹ A Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be ¹² whiter than snow.
8 ¹³ Make me to hear joy and gladness: that the bones ¹⁴ which thou hast broken ¹⁵ may rejoice.
9 ¹⁶ Hide thy face from my sins, and ¹⁷ blot out all mine iniquities.
10 ¹⁸ Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew ¹⁹ a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away ² from thy presence; and take not thy ³ holy spirit from me.
12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation: and uphold me with thy ⁴ free spirit.
13 ⁵ Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.
14 Deliver me from ⁶ bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and ⁷ my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.
15 ⁸ O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.
16 For ⁹ thou desirest not sacrifice: ¹⁰ else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.
17 ¹¹ The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.
18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.
19 Then shalt thou be pleased with ¹² the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSALM LII.

1 David, condemning the evil counsel of Doeg, prophesying his destruction. 2 The righteous shall rejoice at it. 3 David, upon his conscience in God's mercy, giveth thanks.
To the chief Musician. Maschil. A Psalm of David, ⁴ when Doeg the Edomite came and ⁵ told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.
WHY boastest thou thyself in mischief, O ⁶ mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.
2 ⁷ Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; ⁸ like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
3 ⁹ Thou lovest evil more than good; and ¹⁰ dilyng rather than to speak righteousness, Selah.
4 ¹¹ Thou lovest all devouring words, ¹² thou doest deceitful tongue.
5 ¹³ God shall likewise ¹⁴ destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and ¹⁵ root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.
6 ¹⁶ The righteous also shall see, and fear, ¹⁷ and shall laugh at him:
7 ¹⁸ Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but ¹⁹ trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.
8 ²⁰ But I ²¹ am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

PSALM LIV.

1 David, complaining of the Ziphims, prayeth for redemption. 2 Upon his confidence in God's help he promitteth a sacrifice.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil. A Psalm of David. When the Ziphims came and said to Saul, Both not David hide himself with us?

SAVE me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah.

4 Behold, God is mine helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: cut them off in thy truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy name, O Lord: for it is good.

7 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble: and mine eye hath seen his ac-tise upon mine enemies.

PSALM LV.

1 David in his prayer complaineth of his fearful enemies, with protection and redemption, of whom he confesseth and thanketh for his deliverance. 2
He comforteth himself in God's preservation of him, and confutation of his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil,
A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God: and hide thy not thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise;

3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.

4 My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath overwhelmed me.

6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Watchmen are in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from their streets.

12 For I was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it:
neither was it he that hated me that did iniquity against me: then I would have hid myself from him:

13 But it was thou, O man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance.

14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company.

15 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God: and the Lord shall save me.

17 Evening and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me.

19 God shall hear, and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah. 2 Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God.

20 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant.

21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

22 Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: thou blowest away deceitful men: thou shalt not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

24 They men of blood and deceit: 2 Heb. shall not half their days. 3 Heb. shall not half their days.

PSALM LVI.

1 David, praying to God in consequence of his bloodshed, complaineth of his enemies, to the promise which he gave him of a sword, and promitteth to praise him.

To the chief Musician upon Jonatham-rehebekin, 7 Nishlam of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.

BE merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.

2 Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they say many that fight against me, O thou most High.

3 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

4 In God I will praise his word, in God
I have put my trust: of I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

5 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps: when they wait for my soul.

7 Shall they escape by iniquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God.

8 Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I knew, for a God is for me.

10 In God will I praise his word: in the Lord will I praise his word.

11 In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

12 Thy woes are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver me from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

PSALM LVII.

1 David in prayer fleeing into the cave, complaineth of his enemies, and of his own fear, to the promise which he gave him of a sword, and promitteth to praise him.

To the chief Musician, 2 Alas with Mi-cham of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul is troubled within me: I am in the shadow of thy wings until I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

2 I will cry unto God most high: unto God that performeth all things for me.

3 He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.
4 My soul is among lions: and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.
5 O Lord, exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth.
6 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah.
7 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.
8 Awake up, my glory: awake, psalter and harp: I myself will awake early.
9 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.
10 For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.
11 O Lord, thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

PSALM LVIII.

1 David reproveth wicked judges, 3 describeth the nature of the wicked, 6 denoteth them to God's judgments, 10 uttereth the righteous shall rejoice.

To the chief Musician, 4 5 Al-taschith, Michtam of David.

DO ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

4 Their poison is like the deaf adder that stappeth her ear;

5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Lord.

7 Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.

8 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, 2 both living, and in his wrath.

10 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance; he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth.

PSALM LIX.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from his enemies, 4 He denoteth their cruelty, 8 He trusteth in God, 11 He prayeth against them, 10 He putteth trust in God.

To the chief Musician, 4 5 Al-taschith, Michtam of David: when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

DELIVER me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to help me, and behold.

5 Thou therefore, O Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.

6 They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

7 Behold, they bethowen with their mouth: swords are in their lips: for who, say they, doth hear?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.

9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee: for God is my defence.

10 The God of my mercy shall prevent me: God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power; and bring them down, O Lord our shield.

12 For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak.

13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that God ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah.

14 And at evening let them return: and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

15 Let them wander up and down for meat, and grudge if they be not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy.

PSALM LX.

1 David, complaining to God of former judgment, 3 denoteth upon better hope, prayeth for deliverance, 6 Comforting himself in God's promises, he exhorteth that help whom he trusteth.

To the chief Musician 7 upon Shushan-eduth, Michtam of David, to teach; 9 when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.

1 O Lord, thou hast cast us off: thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased: O turn thyself to us again.

2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: thou hast broken the branches thereof: for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

5 That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear me.

6 God hath spoken in his holiness: I will rejoice, I will divide shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver;

8 Moab is my washpot: over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, 3 triumph thou because of me.

9 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

10 Will not thou, O God, which hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies?

PSALM LXI.

1 David fleeth to God upon his 'former experience.
A Psalm of David, when he was in the cave of Adullam.

To the chief Musician, upon Neginah,
A Psalm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God: attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

4 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: 'I will 'trust in the covert of thy wings.

5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

6 I will praise thee, O Lord, as many generations: thy name shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy 'and truth, which my prayer hath.

7 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform thy vows.

PSALM LXII.

1 David professeth his confidence in God, because he is his rock and his salvation.
A Psalm of David, when he was in the cave of Adullam.

To the chief Musician, a Psalm of David.

TRULY 'my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my 'defence: 'I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They only counsel to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in him: they bless with their mouths, but they curse inwardly. Selah.

5 My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence: I shall not be moved.

7 In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times: ye people, A poor out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

9 Many men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance they are falling together: lighter than vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart on them.

11 Trust not in man, 'O Lord, thou have I heard thee, that 'power reacheth unto thee, O God.

12 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth 'supremacy: for 'thou art exalted to every man according to his work.

PSALM LXIII.

1 David desireth to see the face of God, because he is his rock and his salvation.
A Psalm of David, when he was in the cave of Adullam.

To the chief Musician, a Psalm of David.

MY soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

2 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

3 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

4 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

5 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

6 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

7 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

8 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

9 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

10 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

11 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

12 My soul thirsteth for God, my soul thirsteth for God: my soul thirsteth for God.

O GOD, thou art my God: early will I seek thee: 'my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is:

2 To see 'thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 'Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

4 When I have said, I have been a wanderer: I have said, I have been a wanderer: I have said, I have been a wanderer.

5 My soul shall be 'satisfied as with 'meat and fatness: and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

6 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watch:

7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul 'hath said after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 And they shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for the flames.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God: every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM LXIV.

1 David professeth his confidence in God, because he is his rock and his salvation.
A Psalm of David, when he was in the cave of Adullam.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked: from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 Who shall their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they say, 'We shall never be caught: for they say, 'We shall never be caught.

6 They stretch out their hands, and say, 'We shall never be caught: for they say, 'We shall never be caught.

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow: suddenly shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall make 'their own tongue to fall upon themselves: 'all that see them shall flee away.

9 And all men shall fear, and shall glorify the work of God: for they shall wisely consider of his ways.

10 The righteous shall be glad in the Lord, and shall glory in him: and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM LXV.

1 David professeth his confidence in God, because he is his rock and his salvation.
A Psalm of David, when he was in the cave of Adullam.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

PRaise ye the Lord, O God, in the firmament of heaven: and unto thee shall the voice be heard.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, 'unto thee shall all men come.

3 'Because thy power prevail a great man: so far our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou shalt bless, O God, in the firmament of heaven: and unto thee shall the voice be heard.

5 The Lord shall be praised in the firmament of heaven: and unto thee shall the voice be heard.

6 The Lord shall be praised in the firmament of heaven: and unto thee shall the voice be heard.

satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; ^h being girded with power:

7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, & the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and ^{3m} waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it ⁿ with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: ⁴ thou settest the furrows thereof: ⁵ thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest ⁶ the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills ⁷ rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; ⁸ the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM LXVI.

1 David exhorteth to praise God, 5 to observe his great works, 8 to bless him for his gracious benefits. 12 He voweth for himself religious service to God. 16 He declareth God's special goodness to himself.

To the chief Musician, A Song or Psalm.

^a MAKE a joyful noise unto God, ⁸ all ye lands:

2 Sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How ^b terrible art thou in thy works! ^c through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies ⁹ submit themselves unto thee.

4 ^d All the earth shall worship thee, and ^e shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.

5 ^f Come and see the works of God: ^{he} is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 ^g He turned the sea into dry land: ^h they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

7 He ruleth by his power for ever: ⁱ his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

8 O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard:

9 Which ^j holdeth our soul in life, and ^k suffereth our feet to be moved.

10 For ^l thou, O God, hast proved us: ^m thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

11 ⁿ Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins.

12 ^o Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads: ^p we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a ⁴ wealthy place.

13 ^q I will go into the house with burnt offerings: ^r I will pay thee my vows, 14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

15 I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of ^s fatlings, with the increase of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah.

16 ^t Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

17 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

18 ^u If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me:

19 ^v But verily God ^{hath} heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 ^w Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

PSALM LXVII.

1 A prayer for the enlargement of God's kingdom, 3 to the joy of the people, 6 and the increase of God's blessings.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song.

^GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us: ^{and} ^a cause his face to shine ² upon us; Selah.

2 That ^b thy way may be known upon earth, ^c thy saving health among all nations.

3 ^d Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

4 ^e Let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for ^f thou shalt judge the people righteously, and ^g govern the nations upon earth. Selah.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

6 ^f Then shall the earth yield her increase: and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

7 God shall bless us; and ^h all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

PSALM LXVIII.

1 A prayer at the removing of the ark. 4 An exhortation to praise God for his mercies, 7 for his care of the church, 19 for his great works.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm or Song of David.

^IET ^a God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee ⁴ before him.

2 ^b As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: ^c as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But ^d let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them ⁵ exceedingly rejoice.

4 ^e Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: ^{extol} him that rideth upon the heavens ⁹ by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 ^f A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, ^{is} God in his holy habitation.

6 ^g God setteth the solitary ⁶ in families: ^{he} bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but ^h the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

7 O God, ^m when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness: Selah:

8 ⁿ The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 ^o Thou, O God, didst ⁷ send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst ⁸ confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: ^p thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it.

12 ^q Kings of armies ² did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

 pots, ye shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.
 14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in salomon.
 15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan: an high hill as the hill of Bashan.
 16 Why leap ye, ye high hills: this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in;
 ye, the Lord will dwell in it for ever.
 17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, seven thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.
 18 Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for man; yea, for the rebe-lions also, that the Lord God might dwell among them.
 19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily load-eth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Selah.
 20 He that is our God is the God of salvation: and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death.
 21 But God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses.
 22 The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea.
 23 That thy foot may be set in the blood of thine enemies, and the tongue of thy dogs in the same.
 24 They have seen thy goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.
 25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after: among them were the damels playing with timbrels.
 26 Bless ye God in the congregation, even the Lord, from the fountain of Israel.
 27 There is a little Benjamin with their ruler, the princes of Judah and their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.
 28 Thy God hath commanded thy strength: strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us.
 29 Because of thy temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto thee.
 30 Rebuke the company of swarmer, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, fill every one submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war.
 31 Princes shall come out of Egypt:
 Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.
 32 Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth: O sing praises unto the Lord; Selah:
 33 To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old; in he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.
 34 Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds.
 35 O God, between art terrible out of thy holy places: the God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people.
 Blessed be God.

PSALM LXIX.

1 David's complaint of his affliction. 10 He prayeth for deliverance. 20 He doth not receive destruction. 30 He praiseth God with thank-giving.

To the chief Musician. Upon Shoshannim,
 A Psalm of David.

SAVE me, O God: for the waters are come in unto my soul.
 2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.
 3 I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.
 4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.
 5 O God, thou knowest my foolishness;
 and my sins are not hid from thee.
 6 Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord
 God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake:
 let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.
 7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach: shame hath covered my face.
 8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.
 9 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up: and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.
 10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.
 11 I made sackcloth also my garment:
 and I became a proverb to them.
 12 They that sit in the gate speak against me: and I was the song of the drunkards.
 13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee,
 O Lord, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.
 14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.
 15 Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.
 16 Hear me, O Lord: for thy loving-kindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.
 17 And hide not thy face from thy servant: for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.
 18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.
 19 Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.
 20 Reproach hath broken my heart: and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none;
 and for comforters, but I found none.
 21 They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
 22 Let their table become a snare before them: and that which they have hid become their welfare, let it become a trap.
 23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their reins continually to shake.
 24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.
 25 Let their habitation be desolate;
 and let none dwell in their tents.
 26 For they persecute the poor whom thou hast smitten: and they talk of the grief of those whom thou hast wounded.
 27 Add iniquity unto their iniquities:
 and let them not come into thy righteousness.
 28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

32 ^m The humble shall see this, and be glad: and ⁿ your heart shall live that seek God.

33 For the Lord heareth the poor, and despiseth not ^o his prisoners.

34 ^p Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, ^q and every thing that ³ moveth therein.

35 ^r For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

36 ^s The seed also of his servants shall inherit it: and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

PSALM LXX.

David soliciteth God to the speedy destruction of the wicked, and preservation of the holy.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David,

⁴ to bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, ^a O God, to deliver me; make haste ⁵ to help me. O Lord.

2 ^b Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

3 ^c Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.

4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 ^d But I am poor and needy: ^e make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O Lord, make no tarrying.

PSALM LXXI.

1 David, in confidence of faith, and experience of God's favour, prayeth both for himself, and against the enemies of his soul. 14 He prometheth contrivance, 17 He prayeth for perseverance. 18 He praiseth God, and prometheth to do it cheerfully.

IN ^a thee, O Lord, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion.

2 ^b Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: ^c incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

3 ^d Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given ^e commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4 ^f Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 ^g For thou art ^h my hope, O Lord God: thou art my trust from my youth.

6 ⁱ By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee.

7 ^j I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.

8 ^k Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.

9 ^l Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 ^m For mine enemies speak against me, and they that say wait for my soul: ⁿ take counsel together, 11 Saying, God hath forsaken him: persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

12 ^o O God, be not far from me: O my God, ^p make haste for my help.

13 ^p Let them that be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

15 ^q My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for ^r I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

18 ^s Now also ² when I am old and grey-headed, O God, forsake me not: until I have shewed ³ thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

19 ^t Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: ^u O God, who is like unto thee?

20 ^v Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, ^w shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

22 I will also praise thee ⁴ with the psalter, even thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou ⁵ Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee; and ⁶ my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

24 ⁷ My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for ⁸ they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

PSALM LXXII.

1 David, praying for Solomon, sheweth the goodness and glory of his, in type, and in truth, of Christ's kingdom. 15 He bleaseth God.

A Psalm 56 for Solomon.

GIVE the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2 ^a He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

3 ^b The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

4 ^c He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

5 They shall fear thee ^d as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 ^e He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.

7 In his days shall the righteous flourish: ^f and abundance of peace ⁷ so long as the moon endureth.

8 ^g He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9 ^h They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; ⁱ and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 ^j The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 ^k Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

12 For he ^l shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

13 ^m He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

PSALM LXXIII.

1 The prophet, proceeding in a temptation, 2 sheweth the occasion thereof, the prosperity of the wicked, 3 the wound given thereby, confidence, 4 the victory over it, assumption of God's purpose, in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the righteous.

5 A Psalm of 6 Asaph.

1 TRULY God is good to Israel, even to 1 such as are 2 of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

3 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is 5 firm.

5 6 They are not 2 in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued 3 like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them 7 as a garment.

7 8 Their eyes stand out with fatness: 4 they have more than heart could wish.

8 9 They are corrupt, and 5 speak wickedly concerning oppression: they 2 speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth 6 against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hither: 7 and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, 8 How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13 14 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and 15 washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 17 When I thought to know this, 6 it was too painful for me;

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I 9 their end.

18 Surely 10 thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 21 As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, 6 when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was 7 grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 23 So foolish was I, and 2 ignorant: I was as a beast 3 before thee.

23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 25 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 26 Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.

26 27 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the 4 strength of my heart, and 5 my portion for ever.

27 For lo, 6 they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that do a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may 7 declare all thy works.

PSALM LXXIV.

1 The prophet, complaining of the desolation of the sanctuary, 2 He moveth God to keep in remembrance of his covenant, 3 of his merciful covenant, of his children, and of his covenant.

5 Maschil of Asaph.

1 GOD, why hast thou 2 cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger 3 smoke against 4 the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation, 5 which thou hast purchased of old: the 6 seat of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 7 Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; 8 they set up their ensigns for signs.

5 9 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down 10 the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 11 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled 12 by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.

8 12 They said in their hearts, Let us 3 destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signs: 13 there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

11 12 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

12 For 14 God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 15 Thou didst 7 divide the sea by thy strength: 8 thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads of Leviathan in pieces, and gavest him 9 to be meat 10 to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 16 Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: 17 thou driedst up 5 mighty rivers.

16 The day is thine, the night also is thine: 18 thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast 19 set all the borders of the earth: 20 thou hast 4 made summer and winter.

18 21 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O Lord, and that 1 the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.
21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed:
let the poor and needy praise thy name.
22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause:
f remember how the foolish man reproach-eth thee daily.
23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies:
the tumult of those that rise up against thee ^g increaseth continually.

PSALM LXXV.
1 The prophet ^h praiseeth God. 2 He promiseth to judge uprightly. 3 He rebuketh the proud by consideration of God's providence. 3 He prais-eth God, and promiseth to execute justice.
To the chief Musician, ⁱ 3 A. Al-tashith, A.
Psalm or Song ^j of Asaph.
UNTO thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for ^k that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare.
2 ^l When I shall receive the congregation
I will judge uprightly.
3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it.
Selah.
4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly:
and to the wicked, ^m Lift not up the horn:
5 lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.
6 For promotion ⁿ cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south.
7 But ^o God is the judge: ^p he putteth down one, and setteth up another.
8 For ^q in the hand of the Lord ^r there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is ^s full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same:
f but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.
9 But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
10 ^t All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but ^u the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

PSALM LXXVI.
1 A declaration of God's majesty in the church. 11
An exhortation to seek him reverently.
To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A.
Psalm or Song ^v of Asaph.
IN ^w Judah is God known: his name is great in Israel.
2 In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion.
3 ^x There brake he the arrows of the bow,
the shield, and the sword, and the battle.
Selah.
4 Thou art more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey.
5 ^y The stouthearted are spoiled, ^z they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands.
6 ^a At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.
7 Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?
8 ^b Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; ^c the earth feared, and was still.
9 When God ^d arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah.
10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.

11 ^e Vow, and pay unto the Lord your God: ^f let all that be round about him bring presents 2 unto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes:
^g he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

PSALM LXXVII.

1 The psalmist sheweth what fierce combat he had with his sinners. 10 The victory which he had by consideration of God's great and glorious works.
To the chief Musician, ^h 3 to Jeduthun, A.
Psalm ⁱ of Asaph.

^a I CRIED unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

2 ^b In the day of my trouble I ^c sought the Lord: ^d my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and ^e my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot sleep.

5 ^f I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance ^g my song in the night: ^h I commune with mine own heart:
and my spirit made diligent search.

7 ⁱ Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he ^j be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth ^k his promise fail ^l for evermore?

9 Hath God ^m forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies?
Selah.

10 And I said, This is ⁿ my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High.

11 ^o I will remember the works of the Lord: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

13 ^p Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary:
P who is so great a God as our God?

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders:
thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

15 ^q Thou hast with ^r thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph.
Selah.

16 ^s The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee: they were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

17 ^t The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: ^u thine arrows also went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: ^v the lightnings lightened the world:
the earth tremble and shook.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, ^w and thy footsteps are not known.

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion ^{which} he loved.

69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever.

PSALM LXXIX.

1 The psalmist complaineth of the desolation of Jerusalem. 8 He prayeth for deliverance, 13 and promitteth thanksgiving.

A Psalm of Asaph.

1 GOD, the heathen are come into ^{thy} thine inheritance: ^{thy} holy temple have they defiled; ^{they} have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; ^{and there} was none to bury them.

4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

5 How long, Lord? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have ^{not} known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have ^{not} called upon thy name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.

8 Remember not against us ^{former} iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are ^{brought} very low.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, ^{for} thy name's sake.

10 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed.

11 Let ^{the} sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power ^{preserve} thou those that are appointed to die;

12 And render unto our neighbours ^{sevenfold} into their bosom ^{their} reproach, where-with they have reproached thee, O Lord.

13 So ^{we} thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: ^{we} will shew forth thy praise ^{to} all generations.

PSALM LXXX.

1 The psalmist in his prayer complaineth of the miseries of the church. 8 God's former favours are turned into judgments. 14 He prayeth for deliverance.

To the chief Musician 2 upon Shoshannim-Eduth. A Psalm of Asaph.

1 GIVE ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph ^{like} a flock; ^{thou} that dwellest between the cherubims, ^{shine} forth.

2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasse stir up thy strength, and ^{come} and save us.

3 Turn us again, O God, ^{and} cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

4 O Lord God of hosts, how long ^{will} thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

8 Thou hast brought ^{as} a vine out of Egypt: ^{thou} hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou ^{preparedst} room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.

11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches ^{unto} the river.

12 Why hast thou ^{then} broken down her hedge, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

13 The bear out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: ^{look} down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;

15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong ^{for} thyself.

16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man ^{whom} thou madest strong for thyself.

18 So will not we go back from thee: quicken us, and we will call upon thy name.

19 Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

9 There shall no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god. 10 I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me. 12 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels.

13 P Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15 The haters of the Lord should have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

PSALM LXXXII.

1 The psalmist, having rebuked the judges, 5 and reproved their negligence, 8 prayeth God to judge.

A Psalm 6 of Asaph.

GOD standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of order.

6 I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.

7 But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

8 Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

PSALM LXXXIII.

1 A complaint to God of the enemies' conspiracies. 9 A prayer against them that oppress the church.

A Song or Psalm 6 of Asaph.

KEEP not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.

2 For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation: that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee:

6 The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

7 Gilead, and Ammon, and Amalek: the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8 Assur also is joined with them: they have helped the children of Lot. Selah.

9 Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

10 Which perished at Endor: they became as dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna:

12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind.

14 As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire;

15 So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O Lord.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

18 That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth.

PSALM LXXXIV.

1 The prophet, longing for the communion of the sanctuary, 4 sheweth how blessed they are that dwell therein 5 He prayeth to be removed unto it.

To the chief Musician 2 upon Gittith, A

Psalm 5 for the sons of Korah.

HOW amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are the ways of them.

6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also 5 filleth the pools.

7 They go 6 from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion 7 appeareth before God.

8 O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9 Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. 7 I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the Lord God is 8 a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: 8 no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12 O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSALM LXXXV.

1 The psalmist, out of the experience of former mercies, prayeth for the continuance thereof 2 He promitteth to assist thereon, out of confidence of God's goodness

To the chief Musician, A Psalm 89 for the sons of Korah.

LORD, thou hast been 2 favourable unto thy land: thou hast 3 brought back the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: 4 thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

5 Will thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

6 Wilt thou not 5 revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.

1 speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly.

2 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

3 Mercy and truth are met together: righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

4 Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

5 Yea, the Lord shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase.

6 Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps.

PSALM LXXXVI.

1 David strengtheneth his prayer by the conscience of his religion, 5 by the goodness and power of God, 11 He desireth the continuance of former grace, 14 Complaining of the proud, he craveth some token of God's goodness.

2 A Prayer of David.

BOW down thine ear, O Lord, hear me: for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul: for I am holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I cry unto thee daily.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord: neither are there any works like unto thy works.

9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them.

15 But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

16 O Turn unto me, and have mercy upon me: give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.

17 Shew me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou, Lord, hast helped me, and comforted me.

PSALM LXXXVII.

1 The nature and glory of the church, 4 The increase, honour, and comfort of the members thereof.

A Psalm or Song 7 for the sons of Korah. HIS foundation is in the holy mountains.

2 The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

3 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah.

4 I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there.

5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the highest himself shall establish her.

6 The Lord shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah.

7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

A prayer containing a grievous complaint.

A Song or Psalm 2 for the sons of Korah, to the chief Musician upon Mahalath Leannoth, 3 Maschil of 4 Heman the Ezrahite.

LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee:

2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

3 For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the grave.

4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength:

5 Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.

7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah.

8 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: Lord, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

11 Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 But unto thee have I cried, O Lord; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.

14 Lord, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

16 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

17 They came round about me, daily like water; they compassed me about together.

18 Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.

PSALM LXXXIX.

1 The psalmist praiseth God for his covenant, 5 for his wonderful power, 15 for the care of his church, 19 for his favour to the Kingdom of David, 38 Then complaining of contrary events, 46 He expostulateth, prayeth, and bleareth God.

7 Maschil of 8 Ethan the Ezrahite.

4 d Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne / to all generations.
Selah.
5 And e the heavens shall praise thy wonders.
O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation f of the saints.
6 For g who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?
7 h God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.
8 i O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD (like unto thee?) or to thy faithfulness round about thee?
9 m Thou rulest the raging of the sea:
when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest
them.
10 n Thou hast broken 2 Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies 3 with thy strong arm.
11 o The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.
12 p The north and the south thou hast created them: q Tabor and r Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.
13 Thou hast 4 a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.
14 s Justice and judgment are the 5 habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.
15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the 6 light of thy countenance.
16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.
17 For thou art the glory of their strength:
and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.
18 For 6 the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our king.
19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and midst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one c chosen out of the people.
20 a I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:
21 b With whom my hand shall be established; mine arm also shall strengthen
him.
22 c The enemy shall not exact upon him;
nor the son of wickedness afflict him.
23 d And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.
24 But e my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and f in my name shall his horn be exalted.
25 g I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.
26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art 7 my father, my God, and 8 the rock of my salvation.
27 Also I will make him 9 my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth.
28 m My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and n my covenant shall stand fast with him.
29 o His seed also will I make to endure for ever, P and his throne q as the days of heaven.
30 r If his children s forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments;
31 If they 7 break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;
32 Then t will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.
33 u Nevertheless my lovingkindness 2 will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness 3 to fail.
34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
35 Once have I sworn v by my holiness that I will not lie unto David.
36 w His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne x as the sun before me.
37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven.
Selah.
38 But thou hast 9 cast off and 6 abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.
39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.
40 d Thou hast broken down all his hedges;
thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.
41 All that pass by the way spoil him:
he is 4 a reproach to his neighbours.
42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.
43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle.
44 Thou hast made his 5 glory to cease, and f cast his throne down to the ground.
45 The days of his youth thou hast shortened: thou hast covered him with shame.
Selah.
46 y How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself for ever? z shall thy wrath burn like fire?
47 a Remember how short my time is:
wherefore hast thou made all men in vain?
48 b What man is he that liveth, and shall not / see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.
49 LORD, where are thy former lovingkindnesses, which thou 5 swarest unto David w in thy truth?
50 Remember, LORD, the reproach of thy servants; c how I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people;
51 p Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O LORD; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.
52 q Blessed be the LORD for evermore.
Amen, and Amen.

plaining of human fragility, 7 divine chastise-ments, 10 and brevity of life. 12 He prayeth

2 b Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.
3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, c Return, ye children of men.

but as yesterday 9 when it is past, and as a watch in the night.
5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; e they are as a sleep: in the morning
f they are like grass which 2 growth up.
6 g In the morning it flourisheth, and growth up: in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.
7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

12 & So teach us to number our days, that we may 4 apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O Lord, how long; and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let 5 thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

17 6 And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us: and 7 establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

PSALM XCI.

1 The state of the godly. 3 Their safety. 8 Their habitation. 11 Their servants. 14 Their friend, with the effects of them all.

HE 4 that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall 5 abide 6 under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 7 I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3 Surely 8 he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4 9 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 10 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6 11 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noon day.

7 12 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 13 Only 9 with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

9 14 Because thou hast made the Lord, which is 10 my refuge, even the most High, 11 thy habitation;

10 12 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 13 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12 14 They shall bear thee up in their hands, 15 lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13 15 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shall thou trample under feet.

14 16 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath 17 known my name.

15 17 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: 18 I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and 19 honour him.

16 18 With 7 long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

PSALM XCII.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God, 4 for his great works, 8 for his judgments on the wicked, 10 and for his goodness to the godly.

A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day.
IT 2 is a 3 good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High:

2 To 4 shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness 2 every night.

3 5 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; 6 upon the harp with 4 a solemn sound.

4 7 For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 8 O Lord, how great are thy works! and 9 thy thoughts are very deep.

6 9 A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

7 10 When 2 the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever:

8 11 But thou, Lord, art most high for evermore.

9 12 For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall 13 be scattered.

10 13 But 14 my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be 15 anointed with fresh oil.

11 16 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

12 17 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 18 Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish 19 in the courts of our God.

14 19 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and 20 flourishing:

15 20 To shew that the Lord is upright: 21 He is my rock, and 22 there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM XCIII.

The majesty, power, and holiness of Christ's kingdom.

THE 2 Lord reigneth, 3 he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, 4 wherewith he hath girded himself: 5 the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

6 6 Thy throne is established 6 of old: thou art from everlasting.

7 7 The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

8 8 The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

9 9 Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, 7 for ever.

PSALM XCIV.

1 The prophet, calling for justice, complaineth of tyranny and impiety. 8 He teacheth God's providence. 12 He sheweth the blessedness of a pious man. 16 God is the defender of the afflicted.

1 LORD 2 God, 3 to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, 4 shew thyself.

2 5 Lift up thyself, thou 6 judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

3 7 Lord, 8 how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

4 9 How long shall they 10 utter and speak hard things: and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

5 10 They break in pieces thy people, O Lord, and afflict thine heritage.

6 11 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

7 12 Yet they say, The Lord shall not see neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 13 Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise?

10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?

11 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law;

13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be dig-ged for the wicked.

14 For the Lord will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

17 Unless the Lord had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.

18 When I said, My foot slippeth; thy mercy, O Lord, held me up.

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.

20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?

21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

22 But the Lord is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.

23 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God shall cut them off.

PSALM XCV.

1 Aⁿ exhortation to praise God, 3 for his greatness,
6 and for his goodness, 8 and not to tempt him.

COME, let us sing unto the Lord: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and bow down:
let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

7 For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

8 To day if ye will hear his voice,
8 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11 Unto whom I sware in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM XCVI.

1 Aⁿ exhortation to praise God, 4 for his greatness, 5 for his kingdom, 11 for his general judgment.

SING unto the Lord a new song:
sing unto the Lord, all the earth.

2 Sing unto the Lord, bless his name;
show forth his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

4 For the Lord is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the Lord made the heavens.

6 Honour and majesty are before him:
strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 Give unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

8 Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

10 Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad: let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice.

13 Before the Lord: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

PSALM XCVII.

1 The majesty of God's kingdom. 7 The church rejoiceth at God's judgments upon idolaters. 10
An exhortation to godliness and goodness.

THE Lord reigneth: let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of islands be glad thereof.

2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne.

3 A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

4 His lightning enlightened the world:
the earth saw, and trembled.

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

7 Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols:
worship him, all ye gods.

8 Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O Lord.

9 For thou, Lord, art high above all gods:
thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 Ye that love the Lord, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

12 Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

PSALM XCVIII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the Jews, & the Gentiles,
7 and all the creatures to praise God.

A Psalm.

SING unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

2 The Lord hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all

4 A Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

5 Sing unto the Lord with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

6 I With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the Lord, the King.

7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

8 Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together.

9 Before the Lord; for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

PSALM XCIX.

1 The prophet, setting forth the kingdom of God in Zion, 3 exhorteth all, by the example of forefathers, to worship God at his holy hill.

THE Lord reigneth: he is seated between the cherubims; let the earth be moved.

2 The Lord is great in Zion; and he is exalted above all the people.

3 Let them praise thy great and terrible name: for it is holy.

4 The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executeest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at thy holy footstool; for he is holy.

7 He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

8 Thou answeredst them, O Lord our God: thou wast a God that forgoest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

9 Exalt the Lord our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the Lord our God is holy.

PSALM C.

1 An exhortation to praise God cheerfully, 3 for his greatness, 4 and for his power.

4 A Psalm of 5 praise.

MAKE a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.

2 Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the Lord is God: it is he that hath made us, and not ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

5 For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

PSALM CI.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O Lord, will I sing.

2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way: when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: he him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the Lord.

PSALM CII.

1 The prophet in his prayer maketh a grievous complaint. 12 He taketh comfort in the eternity and mercy of God. 16 The mercies of God are to be recorded. 23 He sustineth his weakness by the unchangeableness of God.

A Prayer of the afflicted, 5 when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the Lord.

HEAR my prayer, O Lord, and let my cry come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily.

3 For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my skin.

6 A I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping, 10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are like a shadow that declineth; and my bones are withered like grass.

12 But thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever; and thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in thy stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the Lord, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be written for the generation to come; and of the people which shall be created shall praise the Lord.

19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary: from heaven did the Lord behold the earth;

20 For he hath heard the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those that are appointed to death;

21 To declare the name of the Lord in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the Lord.

23 He weakeneth my strength in the way: he shortened my days.

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

PSALM CIII.

1 An exhortation to bless God for his mercy, 15 and for the constancy thereof.

A Psalm of David.

BLESS ^athe LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, ^bbless his holy name.
 2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:
 3 ^cWho forgetteth all thine iniquities; who ^dhealeth all thy diseases;
 4 ^eWho redeemeth thy life from destruction: who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;
 5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that ^fthy youth is renewed like the eagle's.
 6 ^gThe LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.
 7 ^hHe made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.
 8 ⁱThe LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and ^jplenteous in mercy.
 9 ^kHe will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.
 10 ^lHe hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
 11 ^mFor ⁿas the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.
 12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he ^oremoved our transgressions from us.
 13 ^pLike as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.
 14 For he knoweth our frame; ^qhe remembereth that we are ^rdust.
 15 ^sAs for man, ^this days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
 16 For the wind passeth over it, and ^uit is gone; and ^vthe place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness ^wunto children's children;
 18 ^xTo such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

19 The LORD hath prepared his ^ythrone in the heavens; and ^zhis kingdom ruleth over all.

20 ^aBless the LORD, ye his angels, ^bthat excel in strength, that ^cdo his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

21 Bless ye the LORD, all ye ^dhis hosts; ^eye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

22 ^fBless the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion: ^gbless the LORD, O my soul.

PSALM CIV.

1 A meditation upon the mighty power, 7 and wonderful providence of God. 31 God's glory is eternal. 33 The prophet voweth perpetually to praise God.

BLESS ^athe LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; ^bthou art clothed with honour and majesty.

2 ^cWho coverest thyself with light as with a garment: ^dwho stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

3 ^eWho layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: ^fwho maketh the clouds his chariot: ^gwho walketh upon the wings of the wind:

4 ^hWho maketh his angels spirits; ⁱhis ministers a flaming fire:

5 ^jWho layeth the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

6 ^kThou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

7 ^lAt thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hastened away.

8 ^mThey go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto ⁿthe place which thou hast founded for them.

9 ^pThou hast set a bound that they may not pass over: ^qthat they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 ^rHe sendeth the springs into the valleys, which ^srun among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses ^tquench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which ^using among the branches.

13 ^vHe watereth the hills from his chambers: ^wthe earth is satisfied with ^xthe fruit of thy works.

14 ^yHe causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth ^zfood out of the earth;

15 And ^awine that maketh glad the heart of man, and ^boil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap: the cedars of Lebanon, ^cwhich he hath planted;

17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats: and the rocks for ^dthe conies.

19 ^eHe appointed the moon for seasons: the sun ^fknoweth his going down.

20 ^gThou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein ^hall the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21 ⁱThe young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto ^jhis work and to his labour until the evening.

24 ^kO LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships: there is that ^lleviathan, whom thou hast ^mmade to play therein.

27 ⁿThese wait all upon thee: that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

28 ^oThat thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

29 ^pThou hidest thy face, they are troubled: ^qthou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

30 ^rThou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.

31 The glory of the LORD ^sshall endure for ever: the LORD ^tshall rejoice in his works.

32 He looketh on the earth, and it ^utrembleth: ^vhe toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

PSALM CV.

1 An exhortation to praise God, and to seek out his works. The story of God's providence over Abraham, 15 over Joseph, 23 over Jacob in Egypt, 26 over Moses delivering the Israelites, 35 over the Israelites brought out of Egypt, fed in the wilderness, and planted in Canaan.

O ^a GIVE thanks unto the Lord; call upon his name: ^b make known his deeds among the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: ^c talk ye of all his wondrous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord.

4 Seek the Lord, and his strength: ^d seek his face evermore.

5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the Lord our God: ^f his judgments are in all the earth.

8 He hath ^g remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

9 ^h A Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

11 Saying, ⁱ Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, 2 the lot of your inheritance:

12 ^j When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people;

14 ^k He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, ^l he reprov'd kings for their sakes;

15 ^m Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover ⁿ he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole ^o staff of bread.

17 ^p He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who ^q was sold for a servant:

18 ^r Whose feet they hurt with fetters: ^s he was laid in iron:

19 Until the time that his word came: ^t the word of the Lord tried him.

20 ^u The king sent and loosed him, even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

21 ^v He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his ^w substance:

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom.

23 ^x Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned ^y in the land of Ham.

24 And ^z he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 ^a He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.

26 ^b He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 ^c They shewed ^d his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 ^e He sent darkness, and made it dark; and ^f they rebelled not against his word.

29 ^g He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

30 ^h Their hand brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.

31 ⁱ He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coats.

32 ^j He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

33 ^k He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coats.

34 ^l He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number.

35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 ^m He smote also all the firstborn in their land, ⁿ the chief of all their strength.

37 ^o He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

38 ^p Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them.

39 ^q He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night.

40 ^r The people asked, and he brought quails, and ^s satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 ^t He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For he remembered ^u his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with ^v gladness:

44 ^w And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people;

45 ^x That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws: ^y Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CVI.

1 The psalmist exhorteth to praise God. 4 He prayeth for pardon of sin, as God did with the fathers. 7 The story of the people's rebellion, and God's mercy. 31 He concludes with prayer and praise.

PRAISE ^a ye the Lord. ^b O ^c give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 ^d Who can utter the mighty acts of the Lord? ^e who can shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that ^f doeth righteousness at all times.

4 ^g Remember me, O Lord, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 ^h We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; ⁱ but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

8 Nevertheless he saved them: ^j for his name's sake, ^k that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 ^l He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so ^m he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he ⁿ saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 ^o And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

12 ^p Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

13 ^q They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel:

14 ^r But ^s lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15 ^t And he gave them their request; but ^u sent leanness into their soul.

16 ^v They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the Lord.

PSALM CVII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the redeemed, in praising God, to observe his manifold providence, & over travellers, 10 over captives, 17 over sick men, 23 over seamen, 33 and in divers varieties of life.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.
 2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.
 5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.
 10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in afflic-tion and iron;

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel
 of the most High:

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.
 18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

21 Oh that men would praise the LORD
 for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commandeth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like

32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

34 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.

36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

39 Again, they are diminished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

40 He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh his families like a flock.

42 The righteous shall see it, and rejoice; and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

43 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the Lord.

PSALM CVIII.

1 David encourageth himself to praise God. 5 He prayeth for God's assistance according to his promise. 11 His confidence in God's help.

A Song or Psalm of David.

O GOD, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

3 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;

6 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness: I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head;

9 Judah is my lawgiver;

10 Moab is my washpot: over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph.

11 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

12 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off: and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

13 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

14 Through God we shall do valiantly:

for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM CIX.

1 David, complaining of his slanderous enemies, under the person of Judas devoteth them. 18 He sheweth their sin. 21 Complaining of his own misery, he prayeth for help. 28 He promieth thankfulness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOLD not thy peace, O God of my praise;

2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause.

4 For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.

5 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

6 Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin.

8 Let his days be few; and let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

11 Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour.

12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the Lord; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them be before the Lord continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.

17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle where-with he is girded continually.

20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the Lord, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But do thou for me, O God the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

25 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shaked their heads.

26 Help me, O Lord my God: O save me according to thy mercy.

27 That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, Lord, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice.

29 ^a Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the Lord with my mouth; yea, ^b I will praise him among the multitude.

31 For ^c he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

PSALM CX.

1 The kingdom, ^d the priesthood, ^e the conquest, ^f and the possession of Christ.

A Psalm of David.

THE ^a Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2 The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

3 ^b Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, ^c in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and ^d will not repent, ^e Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

5 The Lord ^f is at thy right hand shall strike through kings ^g in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; ^h he shall wound the heads over many countries.

7 ⁱ He shall drink of the brook in the way: ^j therefore shall he lift up the head.

PSALM CXI.

1 The psalmist by his example inciteth others to praise God for his glorious, ^a and gracious works. 10 The fear of God breedeth true wisdom.

PRAISE ^b ye the Lord. ^c I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 ^d The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is ^e honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: ^f the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He hath given ^g meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are ^h verity and judgment; ⁱ all his commandments are sure.

8 ^j They stand fast for ever and ever, and are ^k done in truth and uprightness.

9 ^l He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: ^m holy and reverend is his name.

10 ⁿ The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: ^o a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

PSALM CXII.

1 Godliness hath the promises of this life, ^a and of the life to come. 10 The prosperity of the godly shall be an rejoice to the wicked.

PRAISE ^b ye the Lord. ^c Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that ^d delighteth greatly in his commandments.

2 ^e His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

3 ^f Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 ^g Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: ^h he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

5 ⁱ A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

6 Surely ^j he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

7 ^k He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, ^l trusting in the Lord.

8 His heart is established, ^m he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9 ⁿ He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor; ^o his righteousness endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

10 ^p The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; ^q he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: ^r the desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM CXIII.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his excellency, ^a for his mercy.

PRAISE ^b ye the Lord. ^c Praise, O ye servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord.

2 ^d Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time forth and for evermore.

3 ^e From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the Lord's name is to be praised.

4 The Lord is ^f high above all nations, ^g his glory above the heavens.

5 ^h Who is like unto the Lord our God, who dwelleth on high.

6 ⁱ Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth!

7 ^j He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill;

8 That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

9 ^k He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXIV.

An exhortation, by the example of the dumb creatures, to fear God in his church.

WHEN ^a Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob ^b from a people of strange language;

2 ^c Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.

3 ^d The sea saw it, and fled: ^e Jordan was driven back.

4 ^f The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.

5 ^g What ailest thee, O thou sea, that thou felledest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

6 ^h Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?

7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob;

8 ⁱ Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

PSALM CXV.

1 Because God is truly glorious, ^a and idols are vanity, ^b he exhorteth to confidence in God. 12 God is to be blessed for his doings.

NOT ^c unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

2 Wherefore should the heathen say, ^d Where is now their God?

5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:

6 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:

7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.

8 ^e They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

9 ^f O Israel, trust thou in the Lord: ^g he is thy help and their shield.

10 O house of Aaron, trust in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

11 Ye that fear the Lord, trust in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

12 The Lord hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.

13 ^h He will bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great.

14 The Lord shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

15 Ye are ⁱ blessed of the Lord ^k which made heaven and earth.

16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

17 ^l The dead praise not the Lord, neither any that go down into silence.

18 ^m But we will bless the Lord from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the Lord.

PSALM CXVI.

1 ⁿ The psalmist professeth his love and duty to God for his deliverance. 12 He studieth to be thankful.

I ^o LOVE the Lord, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him ^p as long as I live.

3 ^q The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell ^r gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon the name of the Lord; O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 ^s Gracious is the Lord, and ^t righteous; yea, our God is merciful.

6 The Lord preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.

7 Return unto thy ^u rest, O my soul: for ^v the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

8 ^w For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the Lord ^x in the land of the living.

10 ^y I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted:

11 ^z I said in my haste, 'All men are liars.

12 What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?

13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord.

14 ^{aa} I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

15 ^{ab} Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

16 O Lord, truly ^{ac} I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and ^{ad} the son of thine handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds.

17 I will offer to thee ^{ae} the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord.

18 ^{af} I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people, 19 In the ^{ag} courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXVII.

An exhortation to praise God for his mercy and truth.

O ^{ah} PRAISE the Lord, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

2 For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and ^{ai} the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXVIII.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy.

2 ^{aj} The psalmist by his experience sheweth how good it is to trust in God. 19 Under the type of the psalmist the coming of Christ in his kingdom is expressed.

O ^{ak} GIVE thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.

2 ^{al} Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the Lord say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

5 ^{am} I called upon the Lord ^{an} in distress: the Lord answered me, and ^{ao} set me in a large place.

6 ^{ap} The Lord is ^{aq} on my side: I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

7 ^{ar} The Lord taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall ^{as} I see my desire upon them that hate me.

8 ^{at} It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man.

9 ^{au} It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed me about: but in the name of the Lord will I ^{av} destroy them.

11 They ^{aw} compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the Lord I will destroy them.

12 They compassed me about ^{ax} like bees; they are quenched ^{ay} as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the Lord I will ^{az} destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the Lord helped me.

14 ^{ba} The Lord is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly.

16 ^{bb} The right hand of the Lord is exalted: the right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly.

17 ^{bc} I shall not die, but live, and ^{bd} declare the works of the Lord.

18 The Lord hath ^{be} chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.

19 ^{bf} Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the Lord:

20 ^{bg} This gate of the Lord, ^{bh} into which the righteous shall enter.

21 I will praise thee: for thou hast ^{bi} heard me, and ^{bj} art become my salvation.

22 ^{bk} The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.

23 ^{bl} This is the Lord's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice and be glad in it.

25 Save now, I beseech thee, O Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

26 ^{bm} Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord: we have blessed you out of the house of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord, which hath shewed us ^{bn} light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

PSALM CXIX.

This psalm containeth sundry prayers, praises, and professions of obedience.

ALEPH.

BLESSED are the ²undefiled in the way, ³who walk in the law of the Lord.

2 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

3 ³They also do not iniquity: they walk in his ways.

4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

5 O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!

6 Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

7 ⁴I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned ³thy righteous judgments.

8 I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

BETH.

9 Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

10 With my whole heart have I ⁵sought thee: O let me not ⁴wander from thy commandments.

11 ⁵Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

12 Blessed art thou, O Lord: ⁶teach me thy statutes.

13 With my lips have I ⁶declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

15 I will ⁷meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

16 I will ⁸delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

GIMEL.

17 ⁷Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word.

18 Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

19 ⁸I am a stranger in the earth: hide not thy commandments from me.

20 ⁹My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.

21 Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do ⁹per from thy commandments.

22 ¹⁰Remove from me reproach and contempt: for I have kept thy testimonies.

23 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did ¹⁰meditate in thy statutes.

24 ¹¹Thy testimonies also are my delight and ¹¹my counsellors.

DALETH.

25 ¹¹My soul cleaveth unto the dust: ¹²quicken thou me according to thy word.

26 I have declared my ways, and thou hast heard me: ¹²teach me thy statutes.

27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so ¹³shall I talk of thy wondrous works.

28 ¹³My soul ¹³smelteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy word.

29 Remove from me the way of lying: and grant me thy law graciously.

30 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me.

31 I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O Lord, put me not to shame.

32 I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt ¹⁴enlarge my heart. HE.

33 ¹⁴Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes: and I shall keep it ¹⁴unto the end.

34 ¹⁵Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

35 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I ¹⁵delight.

36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to ¹⁶forgetfulness.

37 ¹⁶Turn away mine eyes from ¹⁶beholding vanity; and ¹⁷quicken thou me in thy way.

38 ¹⁷Establish thy word unto thy servant, who is ¹⁷devoted to thy fear.

39 Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

40 Behold, I have ¹⁸longed after thy precepts: ¹⁸quicken me in thy righteousness. VAU.

41 ¹⁸Let thy mercies come also unto me, O Lord, ¹⁸even thy salvation, according to thy word.

42 ¹⁹So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.

43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

44 So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever.

45 And I will walk ¹⁹at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.

46 ²⁰I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed.

47 And I will ²⁰delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved.

48 My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will ²¹meditate in thy statutes. ZAIN.

49 Remember the word unto thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to ²¹hope.

50 This is my ²¹comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me.

51 The proud have had me greatly ²²in derision: yet have I not ²²declined from thy law.

52 I remembered thy judgments of old, O Lord: and have comforted myself.

53 ²³Horror hath taken hold upon me because of the wicked that forsake thy law.

54 Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.

55 ²⁴I have remembered thy name, O Lord, in the night, and have kept thy law.

56 This I had, because I kept thy precepts. CHETH.

57 ²⁵Thou art my portion, O Lord: I have said that I would keep thy words.

58 I intreated thy ²⁵favour with my whole heart: be merciful unto me ²⁵according to thy word.

59 I ²⁶thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

60 I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments.

61 The ²⁷bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.

62 ²⁸At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee because of thy righteous judgments.

63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.

64 ²⁹The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: ²⁹teach me thy statutes. TETH.

65 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O Lord, according unto thy word.

66 Teach me good judgment and know-

JOD. 73 o Thy hands have made me and fash- ioned me: p give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments. 74 q They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because r I have hoped in thy word. 75 I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are s right, and t that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me. 76 Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be u for my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant. 77 v Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for w thy law is my delight. 78 Let the proud x be ashamed: y for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will z meditate in thy precepts. 79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy testimonies. 80 Let my heart be sound in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed. CAPII. 81 a My soul fainteth for thy salvation: but b I hope in thy word. 82 c Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, When will thou comfort me? 83 For d I am become like a bottle in the smoke: yet do I not forget thy statutes. 84 e How many are the days of thy serv- ant? f when will thou execute judgment on them that persecute me? 85 g The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law. 86 All thy commandments are h faithful: i they persecute me j wrongfully; help thou me. 87 They had almost consumed me upon earth: but I forsook not thy precepts. 88 k Quicken me after thy lovingkindness; so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth. LAMED. 89 l For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven. 90 Thy faithfulness is m unto all genera- tions: thy word hath established the earth, and it n abideth. 91 They continue this day according to o thine ordinances: for all are thy servants. 92 Unless p thy law had been my de- lights, I should then have perished in mine affliction. 93 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me. 94 q I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts. 95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testi- monies. 96 r I have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad. MEM. 97 O how love I thy law! s It is my me- ditation all the day. 98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me t wiser than mine enemies: for 7 they are ever with me.	99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: u for thy testimonies are my meditation. 100 v I understand more than the an- cients, because I keep thy precepts. 101 I have w refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word. 102 I have not departed from thy judg- ments: for thou hast taught me. 103 x How sweet are thy words unto my y taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth! 104 Through thy precepts I get under- standing: therefore z I hate every false way. NUN. 105 a Thy word is a b lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. 106 c I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments. 107 I am afflicted very much: d quicken me, O Lord, according unto thy word. 108 Accept, I beseech thee, e the freewill offerings of my mouth, O Lord, and f teach me thy judgments. 109 g My soul is continually in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law. 110 h The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I i ferred not from thy precepts. 111 j Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for k they are the re- joicing of my heart. 112 I have inclined mine heart l to per- form thy statutes always, m even unto the end. SAMECH. 113 I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love. 114 n Thou art my hiding place and my shield: o I hope in thy word. 115 p Depart from me, ye evildoers: for I will keep the commandments of my God. 116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not q be ashamed of my hope. 117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually. 118 Thou hast trodden down all them that r err from thy statutes: for their de- ceit is falsehood. 119 Thou s putt'st away all the wicked of the earth: t like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies. 120 u My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments. AIN. 121 I have done judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors. 122 Be v surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me. 123 w Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness. 124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy, and x teach me thy statutes. 125 y I am thy servant; give me under- standing, that I may know thy testimonies. 126 z It is time for thee, Lord, to work: for they have made void thy law. 127 a Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold. 128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I b hate every false way. PE. 129 Thy testimonies are wonderful: there- fore doth my soul keep them. 130 The entrance of thy words giveth light: c it giveth understanding unto the simple. 131 I opened my mouth, and panted: for I d longed for thy commandments.	r 2 Tim. 3. 15. s Job 32. 7, 8, 9. t Prov. 1. 15. u Ps. 19. 10. 133 d Order my steps in thy word: and 'let not any iniquity have dominion over me.
134 f Deliver me from the oppression of man: so will I keep thy precepts.
135 v Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: and teach me thy statutes.
136 i Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law.
TZADDI.
137 k Righteous art thou, O Lord, and upright are thy judgments.
138 l Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful.
139 m My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.
140 n Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.
141 I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts.
142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth.
143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: yet thy commandments are my delights.
144 The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting: give me understanding, and I shall live.

KOPH.

145 I cried with my whole heart: hear me, O Lord: I will keep thy statutes.
146 I cried unto thee; save me, and I shall keep thy testimonies.
147 i I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped in thy word.
148 i Nine eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word.
149 Hear my voice according unto thy lovingkindness: O Lord, quicken me according to thy judgment.
150 They draw nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy law.
151 Thou art near, O Lord; and all thy commandments are truth.
152 Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them for ever.

RESH.

153 o Consider mine affliction, and deliver me: for I do not forget thy law.
154 b Plead my cause, and deliver me: quicken me according to thy word.
155 d Salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not thy statutes.
156 v Great are thy tender mercies, O Lord: quicken me according to thy judgments.
157 Many are my persecutors and mine enemies; yet do I not decline from thy testimonies.
158 I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved: because they kept not thy word.
159 Consider how I love thy precepts: quicken me, O Lord, according to thy lovingkindness.
160 Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

SCHIN.

161 i Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.
162 I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil.
163 I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love.
164 Seven times a day do I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments.
165 Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.

166 i Lord, I have hoped for thy salvation, and done thy commandments.
167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies; and I love them exceedingly.
168 I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies: for all my ways are before thee.
TAU.
169 Let my cry come near before thee, O Lord: give me understanding according to thy word.
170 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.
171 My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes.
172 My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness.
173 Let thine hand help me; for I have chosen thy precepts.
174 i I have longed for thy salvation, O Lord: and thy law is my delight.
175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee: and let thy judgments help me.
176 i I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

PSALM CXX.

1 David prayeth against Balaak, 3 reproach his tongue, 5 complineth of his necessary conversation with the wicked.

A Song of degrees.

IN a my distress I cried unto the Lord, and he heard me.
2 Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.
3 What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?

PSALM CXXI.

The great safety of the soul, who put their trust in God's protection.

A Song of degrees.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
2 My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.
3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.
4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.
5 The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.
6 The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.
7 The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.
8 The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

PSALM CXXIII.

1 The godly profess their confidence in God, 3 and pray to be delivered from contempt.

A Song of degrees.

UNTO thee ^a lift I up mine eyes, O thou ^b that dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM CXXIV.

The church blesseth God for a miraculous deliverance.

A Song of degrees of David.

IF it had not been the Lord who was on our side, ^a now may Israel say;

2 If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us:

3 Then they had ^b swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:

4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:

5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

6 Blessed be the Lord, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul is escaped ^c as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

8 ^d Our help is in the name of the Lord, ^e who made heaven and earth.

PSALM CXXV.

1 The safety of such as trust in God. 4 A prayer for the godly, and against the wicked.

A Song of degrees.

THEY that trust in the Lord shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2 ^a As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.

3 For ^b the rod of ³ the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

4 Do good, O Lord, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

5 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the Lord shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but ^c peace shall be upon Israel.

PSALM CXXVI.

1 The church, celebrating her incredible return out of captivity, ^a prophesieth for, and prophesieth the good success thereof.

A Song of degrees.

WHEN the Lord ^a turned again the captivity of Zion, ^b we were like them that dream.

2 Then ^b was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The Lord hath done great things for them.

3 The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.

4 Turn again our captivity, O Lord, as the streams in the south.

5 ^c They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing ^d precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

PSALM CXXVII.

1 The virtue of God's blessing. 3 Good children are his gift.

A Song of degrees ⁵ for Solomon.

EXCEPT the Lord build the house, they labour in vain ^b that build it: except ^a the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

3 Lo, ^c children are an heritage of the Lord: and ^d the fruit of the womb is his reward.

4 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth.

5 Happy is the man that ^e hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they ⁸ shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

PSALM CXXVIII.

The sundry blessings which follow them that fear God.

A Song of degrees.

BLESSED ^a is every one that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his ways.

2 ^b For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

3 Thy wife shall be ^c as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children ^d like olive plants round about thy table.

4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord.

5 ^e The Lord shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

6 Yea, thou shalt ^f see thy children's children, and ^g peace upon Israel.

PSALM CXXIX.

1 An exhortation to praise God for saving Israel in their great afflictions. 5 The haters of the church are cursed.

A Song of degrees.

MANY ^a a time have they afflicted me from ⁹ a my youth, ^b may Israel now say:

2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.

3 The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows.

4 The Lord is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

5 Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zion.

6 Let them be as ^c the grass upon the house-tops, which withereth afore it groweth up:

7 Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand; nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.

8 Neither do they which go by say, ^d The blessing of the Lord be upon you: we bless you in the name of the Lord.

A Song of degrees.
OUT ^a of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord.
2 Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.
3 ^b If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?
4 But there is ^c forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.
5 ^d I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.
6 ^e My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: 2 I say, more than they that watch for the morning.
7 ^f Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.
8 And ^g he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

PSALM CXXXI.
1 David, professing his humility, 3 exhorteth Israel to hope in God.
A Song of degrees of David.
LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me.
2 Surely I have behaved and quieted myself: as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child.
3 Let Israel hope in the Lord henceforth and for ever.

PSALM CXXXII.
1 David in his prayer commendeth unto God the religious care he had for the ark. 6 His prayer at the removing of the ark, 11 with a repetition of God's promises.

A Song of degrees.
LORD, remember David, and all his afflictions:
2 How he swore unto the Lord, and vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob;
3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;
4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids,
5 Until I find out a place for the Lord, a habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.
6 Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood.
7 We will go into his tabernacles: Ave will worship at his footstool.
8 Arise, O Lord, unto thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.
9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness, and let thy saints shout for joy.
10 For thy servant David's sake turn not away the face of thine anointed.
11 The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it: Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.
12 If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore.
13 For the Lord hath chosen Zion: he hath desired it for his habitation.
14 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell: for I have desired it.
15 I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.
16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.
17 There will I make the horn of David to bud: I have increased a lamp for mine anointed.

18 His enemies will I clothe with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.
PSALM CXXXIII.
The benefit of the communion of saints.
A Song of degrees of David.
BEHOLD, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;
3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.
PSALM CXXXIV.
An exhortation to bless God.
A Song of degrees.
BEHOLD, bless ye the Lord, all ye servants of the Lord, which by night stand in the house of the Lord.
2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the Lord.
3 The Lord that made heaven and earth bless thee out of Zion.
PSALM CXXXV.
1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy, 5 for his power, 8 for his judgments, 15 The vanity of idols. 19 An exhortation to bless God.
PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise ye the name of the Lord; praise him, O ye servants of the Lord.
2 Ye that stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God,
3 Praise the Lord; for the Lord is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.
4 For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.
5 For I know that the Lord is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.
6 whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the sea, and all deep places.
7 He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasures.
8 Who smote the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and beast.
9 He sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.
10 Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings;
11 Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan:
12 And gave their land for an heritage, an heritage unto Israel his people.
13 Thy name, O Lord, endureth for ever: and thy memorial, O Lord, throughout all generations.
14 For the Lord will judge his people, and he will repent himself concerning his servants.
15 The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.
16 They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;
17 They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths.
18 They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them.
19 Bless the Lord, O house of Israel: bless the Lord, O house of Aaron:
20 Bless the Lord, O house of Levi: ye that fear the Lord, bless the Lord.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

14 I will praise thee: for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

24 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM CXL.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from Saul and Doeg. 2 He prayeth against them. 12 He comforteth himself by consolation in God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. DELIVER me, O Lord, from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man;

2 Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for the same.

3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent: adders' poison is under their lips. Selah.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the wicked: preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings.

5 The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set gins for me. Selah.

6 I said unto the Lord, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O Lord.

7 O God the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Grant not, O Lord, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. Selah.

9 As for the head of those that compass me about, blot the mischief of their own lips over them.

10 Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire: into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

11 Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

12 I know that the Lord will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

PSALM CXLI.

1 David prayeth that his suit may be accepted. 3 His conscience sincere, 7 and his life safe from snares.

A Psalm of David.

LORD, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me: give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense: and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

5 Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me: it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

7 Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

8 But mine eyes are unto thee, O God the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute.

9 Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal escape.

PSALM CXLI.

David sheweth that in his trouble all his comfort was in prayer unto God.

67 Maschil of David: A Prayer. 8 When he was in the cave.

I CRIED unto the Lord with my voice; with my voice unto the Lord did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaint before him; I shewed before him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

5 I cried unto thee, O Lord: I said, Thou art my refuge, and my portion in the land of the living.

6 Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

PSALM CXLI.

1 David prayeth for favour in judgment. 3 He comforteth himself by his strength. 5 He denounceth his enemies by meditation, and prayer. 7 He praiseth for grace, 10 for deliverance, 11 for satisfaction, 12 for destruction of his enemies.

A Psalm of David.

HEAR my prayer, O Lord, give ear to my supplications: in the faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be just.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

PSALM CXLIV.

1 David blesseth God for his mercy both to him and to man. 5 He prayeth that God would powerfully deliver him from his enemies. 9 He promiseth to praise God. 11 He prayeth for the happy state of the kingdom.

A Psalm of David.

BLESSED be the Lord my strength,
4 which teacheth my hands to war,
and my fingers to fight:

2 b My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me.

3 c Lord, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!

4 d Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

5 f Bow thy heavens, O Lord, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 h Cast forth lightning, and scatter them:
shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

7 i Send thine hand from above; and rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children:

8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

10 o It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 p Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood:

12 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the simi-litude of a palace:

13 That our garners may be full, affording 2 all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets:

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour;
that there be no breaking in, nor going out;
that there be no complaining in our streets.

15 Happy is that people, that is in such a case: yea, happy is that people, whose God is the Lord,

PSALM CXLV.

1 David praiseth God for his fame, 8 for his goodness, 11 for his kingdom, 14 for his providence, 17 for his saving mercy.

David's Psalm of praise.

I WILL extol thee, my God, O king; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

3 b Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; 2 and his greatness is unsearchable.

4 d One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works.

6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness.

7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 c The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

9 f The Lord is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.

10 g All thy works shall praise thee, O
Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee.

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

13 h Thy kingdom is everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

14 The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

15 i The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

17 The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

18 j The Lord is high unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20 k The Lord preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

PSALM CXLVII.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God for his care of the church, ³ his power, ⁶ and his mercy: ⁷ to praise him for his providence: ¹² to praise him for his blessings upon the kingdom, ¹⁵ for his power over the waters, ¹⁹ and for his ordinances in the church.

PRAISE ye the LORD: for ^a it is good to sing praises unto our God; ^b for it is pleasant; and ^c praise is comely.

2 The LORD doth ^d build up Jerusalem: ^e he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

3 ^f He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their 2 wounds.

4 ^g He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

5 ^h Great is our LORD, and ⁱ great power: ^k his understanding is infinite.

6 ^l The LORD lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God:

8 ^m Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

9 ⁿ He giveth to the beast his food, and ^o to the young ravens which cry.

10 ^p He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

11 The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion.

13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 ^q He maketh peace in thy borders, and ^r filleth thee with the ^s finest of thy wheat.

15 ^t He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

16 ^u He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

18 ^v He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19 ^w He sheweth ^x his word unto Jacob, ^y his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

20 ^z He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLVIII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the celestial, ⁷ the terrestrial, ¹¹ and the rational creatures to praise God.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens: praise him in the heights.

2 ^a Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts.

3 Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.

4 Praise him, ^b ye heavens of heavens, and ^c ye waters that be above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for ^d he commanded, and they were created.

6 ^e He hath also established them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass.

7 Praise the LORD from the earth, ^f ye dragons, and all deeps:

8 Fire, and hail; snow, and vapours; stormy wind ^g fulfilling his word:

9 ^h Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:

10 Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and ⁱ flying fowl:

11 Kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth:

12 Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:

13 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for ^j his name alone is ^k excellent; ^l his glory is above the earth and heaven.

14 ^m He also exalteth the horn of his people, ⁿ the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, ^o a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLIX.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God for his love to the church, ⁵ and for that power which he hath given to the church.

PRAISE ^a ye the LORD. ^b Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

2 Let Israel rejoice in ^c him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their ^d King.

3 ^e Let them praise his name ^f in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

4 For ^g the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: ^h he will beautify the meek with salvation.

5 Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them ⁱ sing aloud upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be ^j in their mouth, and ^k a two-edged sword in their hand;

7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;

8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

9 ^l To execute upon them the judgment written: ^m ⁿ this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CL.

1 An exhortation to praise God, ³ with all kind of instruments.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

2 ^a Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent ^b greatness.

3 Praise him with the sound of the ^c trumpet: ^d praise him with the psaltery and harp.

4 Praise him ^e with the timbrel and ^f dance: praise him with ^g stringed instruments and organs.

5 Praise him upon the loud ^h symbols: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

6 Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.

THE PROVERBS.

CHAPTER I.

1 The use of the proverb. 7 An exhortation to fear God, and believe his word. 10 To avoid the enticings of sinners. 20 Wisdom complaineth of her contempt. 24 She threateneth her contemners.

THE 24 proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

4 To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

7 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Can in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scornors delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

24 Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

27 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the Lord:

30 They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.

31 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

32 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But whose hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

CHAPTER II.

1 Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children, 10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, and find the knowledge of God.

6 For the Lord giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18 For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

CHAPTER III.

1 An exhortation to obedience, 5 to faith, 7 to mortification, 9 to devotion, 11 to patience

13 The happy gain of wisdom. 19 The power, 21 and the benefits of wisdom. 27 An exhortation to charity, 30 peaceableness, 31 and contentedness. 33 The cursed state of the wicked.

2 For the Lord is gracious, and full of compassion, and merciful.

3 He will not despise the humble, neither will he despise the lowly.

4 He will choose the poor, and will despise the rich.

5 He will despise the rich, and will despise the rich.

6 He will despise the rich, and will despise the rich.

7 He will despise the rich, and will despise the rich.

8 He will despise the rich, and will despise the rich.

MY son, forget not my law; ^abut let thine heart keep my commandments: ^bFor length of days, and ^clong life, and ^dpeace, shall they add to thee. ^eLet not mercy and truth forsake thee: ^fbind them about thy neck; ^gwrite them upon the table of thine heart: ^hSo shalt thou find favour and ⁱgood understanding in the sight of God and man. ^jTrust in the Lord with all thine heart; ^kand lean not unto thine own understanding.

^lIn all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall ^mdirect thy paths. ⁿBe not wise in thine own eyes: ^ofear the Lord, and depart from evil. ^pIt shall be ^qhealth to thy navel, and ^rmarrow to thy bones.

^sHonour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: ^tSo shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

^uMy son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction: ^vFor whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; ^weven as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

^xHappy is the man that findeth wisdom, and ^ythe man that getteth understanding. ^zFor the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

^{aa}She is more precious than rubies: and ^{ab}all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

^{ac}Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour. ^{ad}Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

^{ae}She is ^{af}a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.

^{ag}The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he ^{ah}established the heavens.

^{ai}By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and ^{aj}the clouds drop down the dew.

^{ak}My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion: ^{al}So shall they be life unto thy soul, and ^{am}grace to thy neck.

^{an}Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble. ^{ao}When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

^{ap}Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh. ^{aq}For the Lord shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

^{ar}Withhold not good from ^{as}them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it. ^{at}Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.

^{au}Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee. ^{av}Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

^{aw}Envy thou not ^{ax}the oppressor, and choose none of his ways. ^{ay}For the froward is abomination to the Lord: ^{az}but his secret is with the righteous.

^{ba}Hebrew, a man of violence. (Ps. 25. 14.

^{bb}The curse of the Lord is in the house of the wicked: but ^{bc}he bleaseth the habitation of the just.

^{bd}Surely he scorneth the scornors: but he giveth grace unto the lowly. ^{be}The wise shall inherit glory: but shame ^{bf}shall be the promotion of fools.

CHAPTER IV.

^{bg}Solomon, to persuade obedience, 3 sheweth what instruction he had of his parents, 5 to study wisdom, 14 and to shun the path of the wicked. 20 He exhorteth to faith, 23 and sanctification.

HEAR, ^{ah}ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

^{ai}For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law. ^{aj}For I was my father's son, ^{ak}tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

^{al}He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: ^{am}keep my commandments, and live.

^{an}Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

^{ao}Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: ^{ap}love her, and she shall keep thee.

^{aq}Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

^{ar}Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

^{as}She shall give to thine head ^{at}an ornament of grace: ^{au}a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

^{av}Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; ^{aw}and the years of thy life shall be many.

^{ax}I have taught thee in the way of wisdom: I have led thee in right paths.

^{ay}When thou goest, ^{az}thy steps shall not be straitened; ^{ba}and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

^{bb}Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life. ^{bc}Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

^{bd}Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

^{be}For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause ^{bf}some to fall.

^{bg}For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

^{bh}But the path of the just ^{bi}is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

^{bj}The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble. ^{bk}My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.

^{bl}Let them not depart from thine eyes; ^{bm}keep them in the midst of thine heart. ^{bn}For they are life unto those that find them, and ^{bo}health to all their flesh.

^{bp}Keep thy heart ^{bq}with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

^{br}Put away from thee ^{bs}a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

^{bt}Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

^{bu}Ponder the path of thy feet, and ^{bv}let all thy ways be established. ^{bw}Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: ^{bx}remove thy foot from evil.

CHAPTER V.

^{by}Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom, 3 He sheweth the mischief of wickedness and riot, 15 He exhorteth to civility, liberality, and charity. 22 The wicked are overtaken with their own sins.

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:

2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.

3 ¶ For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:

4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.

5 For her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.

6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

10 Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

11 And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

12 And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;

13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

14 I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

15 ¶ Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.

16 Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

17 Let them be only thine own, and not strangers' with thee.

18 Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.

19 ¶ Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and be thou ravished always with her love.

20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

21 ¶ For the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings.

22 ¶ His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

23 ¶ He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Against swiftness, 6 idleness, 12 and mischiefousness. 16 Seven things hateful to God. 20 The blessings of obedience. 25 The mischiefs of whoredom.

MY son, ¶ if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.

4 ¶ Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 ¶ Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

9 ¶ How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 ¶ So shall thy poverty come as a thief, and thy want as an armed man.

12 ¶ A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

13 ¶ He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

14 Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord.

15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken & without remedy.

16 ¶ These six things doth the Lord hate; yea, seven are an abomination unto him:

17 ¶ A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood.

18 ¶ An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, 19 ¶ A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

20 ¶ My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

21 ¶ Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

22 ¶ When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 ¶ For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

24 ¶ To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 ¶ Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman / lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

33 A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 ¶ He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Solomon persuadeth to a sincere and kind familiarity with wisdom. 8 In an example of his own experience, he sheweth 10 the cunning of an whore, 22 and the desperate simplicity of a young wanton. 24 He dehorteth from such wickedness.

MY son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

2 b Keep my commandments, and live;
& my law as the apple of thine eye.
3 d Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.
4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister;
and call understanding thy kinswoman:
5 e That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.
6 f For at the window of my house I looked through my casement, 7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man
f void of understanding,
8 Passing through the street near her corner;
and he went the way to her house.
9 g In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:
10 And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.
11 h She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:
12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.
13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and kissed him, and kissed him, and 14 i I have peace offerings with me; this day have I payed my vows.
15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.
16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.
17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.
19 For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:
20 He hath taken a bag of money, & with him, and will come home at the day appointed.
21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.
22 He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;
23 Till a dart strike through his liver:
as a bird hatched to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.
24 k Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.
25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.
26 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her.
27 l Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The fame, & wisdom of wisdom. 10 The excellency, 12 the nature, 13 the power. 14 the riches, 15 and the eternity of wisdom. 16 Wisdom is desired for the things that it bestows.
D OTH not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?
2 She standeth in the top of high places,
by the way in the places of the paths.
3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.
4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.
5 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.
6 Hear: for I will speak of excellent things: and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth: and wickedness is an abomination to my life.
8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.
9 They are all plain to him that under-standeth, and right to them that find knowledge.
10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.
11 c For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.
12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.
13 d The fear of the Lord is to hate evil:
pride, and arrogance, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.
14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding: I have strength.
15 e By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.
16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.
17 f I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.
18 g Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.
19 h My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.
20 I stand in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:
21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.
22 i The Lord possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.
23 j I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.
24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.
25 k Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:
26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.
27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depths:
28 When he established the clouds above:
when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:
29 l When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth:
30 m Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him:
31 n Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth: and my delights were with the sons of men.
32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways.
33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.
34 o Blessed is the man that heareth me, waiting daily at my gates, hearing at the posts of my doors.
35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the Lord.
36 But he that sinneth against me wroughteth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

5 h Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: k rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

10 m The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 n For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 o If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 p A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat q in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 r Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, 17 s Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that the dead are there: and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAPTER X.

From this chapter to the first and twentieth are sundry observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

THE proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 b Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: c but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 d The Lord will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away e the substance of the wicked.

4 f He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but f the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is g a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but h violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 i The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: k but l a prating fool m shall fall.

9 n He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 o He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: p but a prating fool q shall fall.

11 r The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but s violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up stripes: but t love covereth all sins.

o Ps. 37. 30. ch. 13. 14. & 18. 4. p Ps. 107. 42. ver. 6. q ch. 17. 9. 1 Cor. 13. 4. 1 Pet. 4. 8.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but r a rod is for the back of him that is void of 2 understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but s the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 t The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof s erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and u he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 v In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but w he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want x of wisdom.

22 y The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 z It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 b The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but c the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, d so is the wicked no more: but e the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 f As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

27 g The fear of the Lord h prolongeth days: but i the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the k expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the Lord is strength to the upright: l but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 m The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

31 n The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh o frowardness.

CHAPTER XI.

A FALSE balance is abomination to the Lord: but s a just weight is his delight.

2 t When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.

3 u The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

4 v Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but w righteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but x transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

7 y When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8 z The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

25, 26, 27.eous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.11 ¹ By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.12 He that is ² void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.13 ^m A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.14 ⁿ Where no counsel is, the people fall:
but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.15 ^o He that is surety for a stranger ⁴ shall smart for it: and he that hateth ⁵ surety-ship is sure.16 ^p A gracious woman retaineth honour:
and strong men retain riches.17 ^q The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work:
but ^r to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.19 As righteousness ^s tendeth to life: so he that pursueth evil ^t pursueth it to his own death.20 They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the Lord: but ^u such as are upright in their way are his delight.21 ^v Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but ⁴ the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.22 ^z As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which ⁶ is without discretion.23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked ⁷ is wrath.24 There is that ⁸ scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it ^{tendeth} to poverty.25 ^y The liberal soul shall be made fat:
and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.26 ⁹ He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but ⁶ blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.27 He that diligently seeketh good pro-cureth favour: ⁶ but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.28 ^d He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but ⁶ the righteous shall flourish as a branch.29 He that troubleth his own house ^f shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and ⁷ he that ⁸ winneth souls is wise.31 ^h Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAPTER XII.

WHOSO loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is brutish.2 ^a A good man obtaineth favour of the Lord: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.3 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the ⁶ root of the righteous shall not be moved.4 ^a A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.5 The thoughts of the righteous are right:
but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.6 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: ^f but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.7 ⁹ The wicked are overthrown and arenot: but the house of the righteous shall stand.8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: ^h but he that is ² of a perverse heart shall be despised.9 ⁱ He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.10 ^k A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the ³ tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.11 ^l He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons ⁵ is void of understanding.12 The wicked desireth ⁴ the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.13 ^m The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: ⁶ but the just shall come out of trouble.14 ⁿ A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: ⁷ and the recompense of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.15 ^o The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.16 ^p A fool's wrath is ⁶ presently known:
but a prudent man covereth shame.17 ^q He that speaketh truth shall shew forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.18 ^r There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever: ² but a lying tongue is but for a moment.20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.22 ^y Lying lips are abomination to the Lord: but they that deal truly are his delight.23 ^z A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.24 ^a The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the ⁷ slothful shall be under tribute.25 ^b Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but ⁸ a good word maketh it glad.26 The righteous is more ⁹ excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.28 In the way of righteousness is life: and in the pathway thereof there is no death.

CHAPTER XIII.

A WISE son heareth his father's instruction: ^a but a scorner heareth not rebuke.2 ^b A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.3 ^c He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.4 ^d The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.5 A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.6 ^e Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness over-throweth ⁶ the sinner.

7 f There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

8 The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the 2 lamp of the wicked shall be put out.

10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

11 A Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall increase.

12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoso k despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

15 Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is hard.

16 Every prudent man dealth with knowledge: but a fool layeth open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health.

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.

19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

21 Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repayed.

22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

23 Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgment.

24 He that sparh his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

CHAPTER XIV.

EVERY wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the Lord: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth his own bitterness: and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful: and the end of that mirth is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry dealth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

22 Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

26 In the fear of the Lord is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 The fear of the Lord is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy is the rottenness of the bones.

31 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker: but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.

32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath hope in his death.

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding: but what which is in the midst of fools is made known.

34 Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

35 The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

CHAPTER XV.

A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

3 The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: f but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise dispense knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

10 Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 Hell and destruction are before the Lord: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he be unto the wise.

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil:
but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 Better is little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the sinful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father:
but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it?

24 The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 The Lord will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house: but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The Lord is far from the wicked:
but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof shall retain understanding.

33 The fear of the Lord is the instruction of wisdom: and before honour is humility.

CHAPTER XVI.

THE ²²preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord.

2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the Lord weigheth the spirits.

d 1 Sam. 16. 7.

3 Commit thy works unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established.

4 The Lord hath made all things for himself: yet, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord: though his hand be in all, he shall not be successful.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of the Lord men depart from evil.

7 When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.

9 A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps.

10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

11 A just weight and balance are the Lord's: all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life: and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold: and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whose trusteth in the Lord, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

23 The heart of the wise is toward his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 He that laboureth laboureth for himself; for his mouth shall raveth it of him.

27 An ungodly man diggeth up evil:
and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

28 A froward man soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 A violent man shall entrench his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise fro-ward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass.

31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty: or he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap: but the whole disposing thereof is of the Lord.

CHAPTER XVII.

BETTER is "a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the Lord trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 Whose mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker: and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

6 Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

7 Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do sly lips a prince.

8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

9 He that covereth a transgression seeketh love: but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with.

15 He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the Lord.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it?

17 A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

18 A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 He that hath a froward heart findeth no good; and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

21 He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy.

22 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

24 Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

27 He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

28 Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THROUGH desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddled with all wisdom,

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

8 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.

10 The name of the Lord is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 Before destruction the heart of a man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

13 He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the Lord.

23 The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

CHAPTER XIX.

BETTER is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of a man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the Lord.

4 Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every friend of a friend to him that giveth gifts.

7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth 2 wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding i shall find good.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool: much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 The discretion of a man defretteth his anger: and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

14 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the Lord.

15 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

16 He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul: but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

17 He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

18 Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.

20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.

21 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

22 The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

23 The fear of the Lord teacheth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

24 A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

26 He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

28 An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

29 Judgments are prepared for scorers, and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAPTER XX.

WINE is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

2 The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whose provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul.

3 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of a man is like deep water: but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?

7 The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.

8 A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

10 Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the Lord.

11 Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the Lord hath made even both of them.

13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

14 It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he bemoaneth.

15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

18 Every purpose is established by counsel: and with good advice make war.

19 He that goeth about as a talebearer revealeth secrets: therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.

20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

22 Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the Lord, and he shall save thee.

23 Divers weights are an abomination unto the Lord; and a false balance is not good.

24 Man's goings are of the Lord: how can a man then understand his own way?

25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make enquiry.

26 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.

27 The spirit of man is the candle of the Lord, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

28 Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upheld by mercy.

29 The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the grey head.

30 The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the Lord pondereth the hearts.

3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice.

4 An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plausiveness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.

6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of that seek death.

g 1 John 5. 18.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall destroy him: because they refuse to do judgment. 8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 *It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.*10 *A soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour 5 findeth no favour in his eyes.*11 *When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.*12 *The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but doth overthrow the wicked for their wickedness.*13 *Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.*14 *A gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the beam strong wrath.*15 *It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.*16 *The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.*17 *He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.*18 *The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.*19 *It is better to dwell 7 in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.*20 *There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up.*21 *He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour.*22 *A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.*23 *Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.*24 *Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth 8 in proud wrath.*25 *The desire of the foolish killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.*26 *He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth not.*27 *The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it 9 with a wicked mind?*28 *A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.*29 *A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he 5 directeth his way.*30 *There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord.*31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the Lord.

CHAPTER XXII.

A *GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and 5 loving favour rather than silver and gold.*2 *The rich and poor meet together: 6 the Lord is the maker of them all.*3 *A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.*4 *By humility and the fear of the Lord are riches, and honour, and life.*5 *Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: 7 he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.*6 *Train up a child 8 in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.*7 Or, Catechise. 8 Heb. in his way.7 *The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant 2 to the lender.*8 *He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: 3 and the rod of his anger shall fail.*9 *He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.*10 *Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.*11 *He that loveth pureness of heart, 5 for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.*12 *The eyes of the Lord preserve knowledge, and he overthroweth 6 the words of the transgressor.*13 *The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.*14 *The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: 7 he that is abhorred of the Lord shall fall therein.*15 *Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but 7 the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.*16 *He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.*17 *Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge.*18 *For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them 7 within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.*19 *That thy trust may be in the Lord, I have made known to thee this day, 8 even to thee.*20 *Have not I written to thee 4 excellent things in counsels and knowledge,*21 *That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; 9 that thou mightest answer the words of truth 9 to them that send unto thee?*22 *Rob not the poor, because he is poor: 9 neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:*23 *For the Lord will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.*24 *Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go:*25 *Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.*26 *Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.*27 *If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he 8 take away thy bed from under thee?*28 *Remove not the ancient 2 landmark, which thy fathers have set.*29 Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before 3 mean men.

CHAPTER XXIII.

WHEN thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee:

2 *And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.*3 *Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat.*4 *Labour not to be rich: 6 cease from thine own wisdom.*5 *Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.*6 *Eat thou not the bread of him that hath 4 an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:*7 *For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, 4 with he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.*8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

9 ^f Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.10 ^g Remove not the old landmark: and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:11 ^h For their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

12 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

13 ⁱ Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, seven mine.

16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.

17 ^m Let not thine heart envy sinners: but ⁿ be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.18 ^o For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.

20 ^p Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

22 ^q Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.23 ^r Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.24 ^s The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 ^t For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.28 ^u She also lieth in wait ^v as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.29 ^w Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?30 ^x They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

32 At the last it bitech like a serpent, and stingeth like 7 an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down ^y in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.35 ^z They have stricken me, shall thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not; when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

CHAPTER XXIV.

BE not thou ^a envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.2 ^b For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 ^c A wise man ^d is strong; yea, a man of knowledge ^e increaseth strength.6 ^f For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 ^g Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.8 ^h He that ⁱ deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 ^j If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.11 ^k If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;12 If thou sayest, Behold, we know it not; doth not ^l he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man ^m according to his works?13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet ⁿ to thy taste:14 ^o So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found ^p it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.15 ^q Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:16 ^r For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: ^s but the wicked shall fall into mischief.17 ^t Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:18 Lest the Lord see it, and ^u it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.19 ^v Pret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked:20 ^w For there shall be no reward to the evil man; ^x the candle of the wicked shall be put out.21 My son, ^y fear thou the Lord and the king: and meddle not with ^z them that are given to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly: and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 ^a These things also belong to the wise. ^b It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.24 ^c He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and ^d a good blessing shall come upon them.26 ^e Every man shall kiss his lips ^f that giveth a right answer.27 ^g Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.28 ^h Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.29 ⁱ Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work.30 ^j I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding:31 And, lo, ^k it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.32 ^l Then I saw, and ^m considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.33 ⁿ A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:34 ^o So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as ^p an armed man.

3 A stone is 2 heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before 5 angry?

6 Open rebuke is better than secret love.

7 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are 8 deceitful.

9 The full soul 10 leaveth an enemy yomb; but 11 to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

12 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

13 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend 7 by hearty counsel.

14 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for 15 better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

16 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

17 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

18 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

19 He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

20 A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

21 Whosoever hideth his hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself.

22 Iron sharpeneth iron: so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

23 Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

24 As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

25 Hell and destruction are 8 never full; so 9 the eyes of man are never satisfied.

26 As the tining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold: so is a man to his praise.

27 Though thou shouldst bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

28 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and 9 look well to thy herds.

29 For riches are not for ever: and doth the crown endure 3 to every generation?

30 The hay 3 smareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

31 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.

32 And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the 4 maintenance for thy maids.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

General observations of vanity and religious intervals.

THE wicked less when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but 3 by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain 4 which leaveth no foot.

4 They that forsake the law praise the wicked: 5 but such as keep the law contend with them.

5 Evil men understand not judgment:

but 7 they that seek the Lord understand all things.

6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 A whose keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that 2 is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 He that by usury and 3 unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, 1 even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: 11 but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise 4 in his own conceit: but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is 5 hidden.

13 He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man 1 that feareth always: 2 but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; 3 so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man say him.

18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but 7 he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: 1 but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: 2 but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be 3 innocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good: for 4 for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 He that lieth that hateth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso rebuketh his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression: the same 5 is the companion of 6 a destroyer.

25 He that is of a proud heart shall stir up strife: 1 but he that putteth his trust in the Lord shall be made fat.

26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whose walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 When the wicked rise, 1 men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Observations of public punishment, 15 and of private: 22 of the prince, treasury, counsel, and correction.

29 A, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

3 When the righteous are 4 in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, 5 the people mourn.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but ^bhe that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man ^cthere is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 ^dThe righteous considereth the cause of the poor: ^ebut the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 ^fScornful men ^gbring a city into a snare: but wise men ^hturn away wrath.

9 ⁱIf a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, ^jwhether he rage or laugh, ^kthere is no rest.

10 ^l& The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 ^mA fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and 5 the deceitful man ⁿmeet together: ^othe Lord lighteneth both their eyes.

14 ^pThe king that ^qfaithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 ^rThe rod and reproof give wisdom: but ^sa child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: ^tbut the righteous shall see their fall.

17 ^uCorrect thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 ^vWhere ^wthere is no vision, the people 6 perish: but ^xhe that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man ^ythat is hasty ^zin his words? ^athere is more hope of a fool than of him.

31 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

22 ^bAn angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 ^cA man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: ^dhe heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 ^eThe fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord 8 shall be safe.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Agur's confession of his faith. 7 The two points of his prayer. 10 The meaneest are not to be wronged. 11 Four wicked generations. 15 Four things insatiable. 17 Parents are not to be despised. 18 Four things hard to be known. 21 Four things intolerable. 24 Four things exceeding wise. 28 Four things stately. 32 Wrath is to be prevented.

THE words of Agur the son of Jakeh, ^aeven ^athe prophecy: the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal,

2 ^bSurely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor 2 have the knowledge of the holy.

4 ^cWho hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? ^dwho hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5 ^eEvery word of God is ^fpure: ^ghe is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 ^hAdd thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee; ⁱdeny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; ^jA feed me with food ^kconvenient for me:

9 ^lI lest I be full, and ^mdeny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 ⁿAccuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 ^oThere is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 ^pThere is a generation ^qthat are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

13 ^rThere is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

14 ^sThere is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives: ^tto devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, 8 It is enough:

16 ^uThe grave; and the barren womb: the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.

17 ^vThe eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of ^wthe valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, ^xfour which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 ^yFor a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are ^zexceeding wise:

25 ^aThe ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26 ^bThe conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them ^c4 by bands;

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

30 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

31 ^dA ^e6 greyhound; an he goat also;

2 What, my son? and what, ^bthe son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

3 ^cI gave not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways ^dthat which destroyed kings.

4 ^eIt is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink:

5 ^fLest they drink, and forget the law, and ^gpervert the judgment ^hof any of the afflicted.

6 ⁱGive strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be ^jof heavy hearts.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

13 She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.

15 ^rShe riseth also while it is yet night, and ^sgiveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

16 She considereth a field, and ^tbuyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

18 ^uShe perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.

19 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

20 ^vShe stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with ^wscarlet.

22 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.

23 ^xHer husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.

24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.

25 Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.

26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

27 She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

29 Many daughters ^yhave done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

CHAPTER I.

1 The preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain: 4 because the creatures are restless in their courses. 8 they bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten. 12 and because he hath found it so in the studies of wisdom.

THE words ^aof the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 ^bVanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities: ^call is vanity.

3 ^dWhat profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 ^eOne generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: ^fbut the earth abideth for ever.

5 ^gThe sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and ^hhasteth to his place where he arose.

6 ⁱThe wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north: it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 ^jAll the rivers run into the sea: yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they ^kreturn again.

8 ^lAll things are full of labour: man cannot utter it: ^mthe eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 ⁿ& The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be: and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 ^o¶ I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

dom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAPTER II.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. 13 Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event. 14 The vanity of human labour, in leaving it they know not to whom. 24 *Nothing better than joy in our labour; but that is God's gift.*a I SAID in mine heart. Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and behold, *this also is vanity.*2 I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, *What doeth it?*3 I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven 3 all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house: also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw *that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.*14 The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that *one event happeneth to them all.*15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool so it *happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.*16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 Yea, I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

22 For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereto, more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER III.

1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail. 11 There is an excellency in God's works. 16 But as for man, God shall judge his works there, and here he shall be like a beast.

TO every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that a man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

15 That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.

16 And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, God shall judge

19 ^c For that which befalleth the sons of man befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 ^d *All go unto one place; ^e *all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 ^f Who knoweth the spirit ^g of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

22 ^h *Wherefore ⁱ I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works: for ^j that is his portion: ^k *for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAPTER IV.

1 Vanity is increased unto men by oppression, ⁴ by envy, ⁵ by idleness. Thy covetousness, ⁸ by solitariness, ¹³ by wickedness.

2 ^a *I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun; and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comfort; and on the ^b side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comfort.*

3 ^c Wherefore ^d I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

4 ^e *Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.*

5 ^f Again, ^g I considered all travail, and every right work, that ^h for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

6 ⁱ The fool foldeth his hand together, and catcheth his own flesh.

7 ^j *Better is a handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.*

8 ^k Then ^l I returned, and ^m I saw vanity under the sun.

9 ⁿ *There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his fever satisfied with riches; ^o *neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

10 ^p Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

11 ^q *For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.*

12 ^r Again, if two lie together, then they have heat; but how can one be warm alone?

13 ^s And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

14 ^t Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, ^u who will no more be admonished.

15 ^v *For out of prison he cometh to reign: whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.*

16 ^w I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

17 ^x There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER V.

1 Vanities in divine service, ⁸ in murmuring against oppression, ⁹ and in riches. ¹⁶ Joy in riches is the gift of God.

2 ^a KEEP ^b thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, ^c than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

3 ^d *Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any ^e thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words ^f be few.*

4 ^g For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and ^h a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

5 ⁱ *When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it: for he hath no pleasure in fools: ^j pay that which thou hast vowed.*

6 ^k Letter is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

7 ^l Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; ^m neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

8 ⁿ *For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but ^o fear thou God.*

9 ^p *If thou ^q seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not ^r at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.*

10 ^s *Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.*

11 ^t He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

12 ^u *When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?*

13 ^v The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

14 ^w There is a sore evil which ^x I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

15 ^y *But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.*

16 ^z As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

17 ^a And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and ^b what profit hath he ^c that hath laboured for the wind?

18 ^d *All his days also ^e he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.*

19 ^f *Behold that which ^g I have seen: ^h that is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun ⁱ all the days of his life, which God giveth him: ^j for it is his portion.*

20 ^k Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; ^l this is the gift of God.

21 ^m For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The vanity of riches without use. 3 Of children, 6 and old age without riches. 9 The vanity of sight and wandering desires. 11 The conclusion of vanities.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, ^b so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, ^c yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 [¶] If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that ^a an untimely birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 [¶] Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 ^f All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the ^d appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 [¶] Better is the sight of the eyes 3 than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: 9 neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 [¶] Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, ^a all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as ^a a shadow? for ⁱ who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

CHAPTER VII.

1 Remedies against vanity are, a good name, 2 mortification, 7 patience, 11 wisdom. 23 The difficulty of wisdom.

A GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

2 [¶] It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 [¶] Sorrow is better than laughter: ^b for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 [¶] It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 ^d For as the ^c cracking of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

7 [¶] Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; ^a and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: ^a and ^f the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 [¶] Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire ⁷ wisely concerning this.

11 [¶] Wisdom is ² good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit ^a to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a ³ defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for ⁱ who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

14 [¶] In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath ^a set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: ⁱ there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

16 [¶] Be not righteous over much; [¶] neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest thou ² destroy thyself?

17 Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: [¶] why shouldest thou die ⁶ before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 [¶] Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 [¶] For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also [¶] take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 [¶] All this have I proved by wisdom: [¶] I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

24 [¶] That which is far off, and ^a exceeding deep, who can find it out?

25 [¶] I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 [¶] And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: [¶] whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, saith [¶] the preacher, ² counting one by one, to find out the account:

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: [¶] one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, ^a that God hath made man upright; but ^b they have sought out many inventions.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Kings are greatly to be respected. 6 The divine providence is to be observed. 12 It is better with the golly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity. 16 The work of God is unsearchable.

WHO is as the wise man? [¶] and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? ^a a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and ³ the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, ^a and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 [¶] Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6 ¶ Because for every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 ¶ For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

8 ¶ There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit: neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war: neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 ¶ Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ¶ Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth: that there be just men, unto whom it happenech according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happenech according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

15 ¶ Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Like things happen to good and bad. 4 There is a necessity of death unto men. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 11 God's providence ruleth over all. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 ¶ All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ¶ For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 ¶ Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 ¶ Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 ¶ I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For a man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

14 ¶ There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it;

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city: yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 ¶ Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 ¶ Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one enemy destroyed much good.

CHAPTER X.

1 Observations of wisdom and folly: 16 of riot, 18 slothfulness, 19 and money. 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent.

DEAD flies can cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler:

8 f He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength; but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite without enmity; and a babbler is no better.

12 k The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14 k A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish weareth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 f Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 f By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 f A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry; but money answereth all things.

20 f Curse not the king, nor not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Directions for clarity. 7 Death in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth, are to be thought on.

CAST thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

2 Give a portion d to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

CHAPTER XII.

1 The Creator is to be remembered in due time. 8 The preacher's care to edify. 13 The fear of God is the chief antidote of vanity.

REMEMBER now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened.

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets:

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

8 Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity.

9 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON.

CHAPTER I.

1 The church's love unto Christ. 5 She confesseth her deformity, 7 and prayeth to be directed to his flock. 8 Christ directeth her to the dry herds' tents: 9 said shewing his love to her. 11 giveth her gracious promises. 12 The church and Christ congratulate one another.

THE ⁹ song of songs, which is Solomon's.

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: ⁶ for ² thy love is better than wine.

3 Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.

4 ^c Draw me, d we will run after thee: the king ⁶ hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: ³ the upright love thee.

5 I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

7 Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be ⁴ as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

8 ^f If thou know not, ^f O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

9 I have compared thee, ² O my love, A to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.

10 Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

11 We will make thee borders of gold with studs of silver.

12 ^q While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

13 A bundle of myrrh is my wellbeloved unto me; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of 5 camphire in the vineyards of En-gedi.

15 ^k Behold, thou art fair, ⁶ my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes.

16 Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is green.

17 The beams of our house are cedar, and our 7 rafters of fir.

CHAPTER II.

1 The mutual love of Christ and his church. 8 The hope, 10 and calling of the church. 14 Christ's care of the church. 16 The profession of the church, her faith and hope.

I AM the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys.

2 As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. 6 I sat down under his shadow with great delight, ⁴ and his fruit was sweet to my ⁹ taste.

4 He brought me to the 2 banquetting house, and his banner over me was love.

5 Stay me with flagons, ³ comfort me with apples: for I am sick of love.

6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

7 ⁴ I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roses, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

8 ^f The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

9 ^d My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, ² shewing himself through the lattice.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, ^c Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;

13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. ^f Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 ^q O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, ² let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us ^k the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

16 ^f My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.

17 ^k Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou ¹ like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains ³ of Bethor.

CHAPTER III.

1 The church's fight and victory in temptation. 6 The church glorifieth in Christ.

BY ^a night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 ^b The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 ^k It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 ^c I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roses, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

6 ^f d Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself ⁴ a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown where-

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ loveth the church as his bride. 8 He sheweth his love to her. 10 The church prayeth to be made for his spouse.

BEHOOLD, ^a thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, ^b that appear from mount Gilead.

² Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing: whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

³ Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: ^d thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

⁴ Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, wherein there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

⁵ Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

⁶ Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

⁷ Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

⁸ Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' den, from the mountains of the leopards.

⁹ Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse: thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

¹⁰ How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse; how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

¹² A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

¹³ Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; ^c camphire, with spikenard,

¹⁴ Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense: myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:

¹⁵ A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon.

¹⁶ Awake, O north wind: and come, thou south: blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. ^d Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ loveth the church as his calling. 2 The church loveth the grace of Christ's love is sick of love. 3 A description of Christ's love to her.

I AM come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey: I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

² I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

³ I have put off my coat: how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet: how shall I dandle them?

⁴ My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him.

⁵ I rose up to open to my beloved: and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

⁶ I opened to my beloved: but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: ^e I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

⁷ The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me: the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

⁸ I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, ^f that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

⁹ What is thy beloved more than another beloved, ^g O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

¹⁰ My beloved is white and ruddy, ^h the chiefest among ten thousand.

¹¹ His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.

¹² His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and ⁱ fitly set.

¹³ His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

¹⁴ His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

¹⁵ His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

¹⁶ His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The church professeth her faith in Christ. 4 Christ sheweth the graces of the church, 10 and his love towards her.

WHITHER is thy beloved gone, ^a O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.

² My beloved is come down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

³ I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

⁴ Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, ^b terrible as an army with banners.

⁵ Turn away thine eyes from me, for ^c they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

⁶ Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

⁷ As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

⁸ There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

⁹ My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the chosen one of her that bore her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her: yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

¹⁰ Who is she that looketh forth as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

¹¹ I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and ^d to see

CHAPTER VII.

1 A further description of the church's graces. 10 The church professeth her faith and desire.

HOW beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

2 Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.

3 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

4 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory: thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus.

5 Thine head upon thee is like Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple; the king is 7 held in the galleries.

6 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples:

9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak.

10 I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape 2 appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.

13 The 2 mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates 3 are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The love of the church to Christ. 6 The value, money of love. 8 The solemnity of the duties. 11 The church professeth for Christ's sake.

THAT thou wert as my brother, that suckest the breasts of my mother: when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, 2 I should not be despised.

3 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of 4 spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

5 His left hand should he under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

6 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

7 Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

8 Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is 4 cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

9 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

10 We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

11 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.

12 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found 3 favour.

13 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon: 4 he let out the vineyard unto keepers: every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

14 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

15 Then that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it.

16 Make haste, my beloved, and like thou like to a roe, or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jewish complaints of Judah for her rebellions. 5 He commends her judgments. 10 He reproverth their waste service. 16 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings. 21 Commendeth their weakness, as demonstrating their judgments. 26 He promisseth peace, 28 and 30 the destruction to the wicked.

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahar, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the Lord hath spoken. I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel hath not known, my people hath not considered.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, 2 a seed of evil doers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are 7 gone away backward.

5 Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will 1 revolt more and more: the whole land is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it: nor wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as evergreen with thorns.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, 2 as a besieged city.

10 "Hear the word of the Lord, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the Lord: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of 2 he goats.

12 When ye come ³ to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more ^avain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me: the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; ^bit is ^ciniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your ^dnew moons and your ^eappointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; ^fI am weary to bear them.

15 And ^gwhen ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: ^hyea, when ye ⁱmake many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of ^jblood.

16 ^kWash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; ^ldecease to do evil;

17 Learn to do well; ^mseek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and ⁿlet us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, ^othey shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: ^pfor the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

21 ^qHow is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

22 ^rThy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

23 ^sThy princes are rebellions, and ^tcompanions of thieves: ^uevery one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they ^vjudge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, A, ^wI will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

25 ^xAnd I will turn my hand upon thee, and ^ypurely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

26 And I will restore thy judges ^zas at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward ^athou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and ^bher converts with righteousness.

28 ^cAnd the ^ddestruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the Lord shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of ^ethe oaks which ye have desired, ^fand ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf faileth, and as a garden that hath no water.

31 ^gAnd the strong shall be ^has tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

CHAPTER II.

1 Isaiah prophesieth the coming of Christ's kingdom. 6 Wickedness is the cause of God's forsaking. 10 He exhorteth to fear, because of the powerful effects of God's majesty.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.
2 And ^ait shall come to pass ^bin the last days, ^cthat the mountain of the Lord's house shall be ^destablished in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; ^eand all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, ^fCome ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: ^gfor out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and ^hthey shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into ⁱpruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, ^jneither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord.

6 ^kTherefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished ^lfrom the east, and ^mare soothsayers like the Philistines, ⁿand they ^oseparate themselves in the children of strangers.

7 ^pTheir land also is full of silver and gold, neither is ^qthere any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is ^rthere any end of their chariots:

8 ^sTheir land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

10 ^tEnter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The ^ulofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted ^vin that day.

12 For the day of the Lord of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:

13 And upon all ^wthe cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, 14 And ^xupon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up.

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall, 16 ^yAnd upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all ^zpleasant pictures.

17 ^aAnd the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the Lord alone shall be exalted ^bin that day.

18 And 7 the idols he shall utterly abolish.

19 And they shall go into the ^choles of the rocks, and into the caves of ^dthe earth, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth ^eto shake terribly the earth.

20 ^fIn that day a man shall cast ^ghis idols of silver, and his idols of gold, ^hwhich they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats;

CHAPTER III.

1 The great confusion which cometh by sin. 9 The impudency of the people. 12 The oppression and covetousness of the rulers. 16 The judgments which shall be for the pride of the women.

FOR, behold, the Lord, the Lord of hosts, ^a doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah ^b the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water.

² c ^e The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient.

³ The captain of fifty, and ² the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the ³ eloquent orator.

⁴ And I will give ^d children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

⁵ And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

⁶ When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand:

⁷ In that day shall he ⁴ swear, saying, I will not be an ⁵ healer: for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

⁸ For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the Lord, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

⁹ ^f The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as ^f Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

¹⁰ Say ye to the righteous, ⁹ that it shall be well with him: ⁴ for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

¹¹ Woe unto the wicked! ⁱ it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be ⁶ given him.

¹³ The Lord standeth up ^m to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

¹⁴ The Lord will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have ⁿ eaten up ⁿ the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

¹⁵ What mean ye that ye ^o beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord God of hosts.

¹⁶ ^p Moreover the Lord saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks, and wanton eyes, walking and ³ mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

¹⁷ Therefore the Lord will smite with ^p a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the Lord will ^q discover their secret parts.

¹⁸ In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their ^s cauls, and their ^r round tires like the moon,

¹⁹ The ^t chains, and the bracelets, and the ⁷ mufflers,

²⁰ The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the ² tablets, and the earrings,

²¹ The rings, and nose jewels,

²² The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping pins, ²³ The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails.

²⁴ And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair ^u baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

²⁵ Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy ^v mighty in the war.

²⁶ ^w And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being ^{4, 5} desolate ^w shall sit upon the ground.

CHAPTER IV.

In the extremity of evil, Christ's kingdom shall be a sanctuary.

AND ^a in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will ^b eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only ⁶ let us be called by thy name, ⁷ to take away ^c our reproach.

² In that day shall ^d the branch of the Lord be ⁸ beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely ⁹ for them that are escaped of Israel.

⁶ And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and ^k for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

CHAPTER V.

1 Under the parable of a vineyard God executeth his severe judgment. 8 His judgments upon covetousness, 11 upon lasciviousness, 13 upon impiety, 21 and upon injustices. 26 The execrations of God's judgments.

NOW will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching ^a his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in ⁵ a very fruitful hill:

² And he fenced it, and gathered ^b out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also ⁷ made a vinepress therein: ^h and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

³ And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, ⁱ judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

⁴ What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

⁵ And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: ^d I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be ⁸ trodden down:

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ahaz, being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing it, hath for a sign, Christ promised. 17 His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of ^a Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria ² is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the Lord unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, ^b and ³ Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the ^c conduit of the upper pool in the ^d highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, ⁵ neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and ⁶ vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord God, ^d It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 ^e For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, ^f that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son.

^f 8 If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ^g ^e Moreover the Lord spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 ^h Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God; ² ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; ⁱ is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; ^j Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear ^k a son, and ³ shall call his name ^l Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

16 ^m For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of ⁿ both her kings.

17 ^o ^q The Lord shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that thou canst not come from the day that ^r Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord ^p shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in ⁷ the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all ⁴ bushes.

20 In the same day shall the Lord shave with a ^r razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep;

22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left ² in the land.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, ^q it shall even be for briers and thorns.

24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 In Maher-shalal-hash-baz, he prophesieth that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria.

5 Judah likewise for their iniquity. 9 God's judgments shall be irresistible. 11 Comfort shall be to them that fear God. 19 Great afflictions to idolaters.

MOREOVER the Lord said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and ^a write in it with a man's pen concerning ³ Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, ^b Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberchiah.

3 And I ^c went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the Lord to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

4 ^d For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, ⁵ the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 ^e ^f The Lord spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of ^g Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice ^h in Rezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even ⁷ the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, ^h he shall reach even to the neck, and ⁱ the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 ^j ^k Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 ^l Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, ^m and it shall not stand: ⁿ for God is with us.

11 ^o ^p For the Lord spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom ^q this people shall say, A confederacy; ^r neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 ^s Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself; and ^t let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

21 And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and ^ayearn their king and their God, and look upward.

22 And ^athey shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, ^adimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

CHAPTER IX.

1 What joy shall be in the midst of afflictions, by the kingdom and birth of Christ. 8 The judgments upon Israel for their pride, 13 for their hypocrisy, 18 and for their impenitency.

NEVERTHELESS ^athe dimness shall not be such as ^awas in her vexation, when at the ^bfirst he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and ^aafterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee ^cof the nations.

2 ^aThe people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and ^anot increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice ^awhen they divide the spoil.

4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and ^athe staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of ^aMidian.

5 ^aFor every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; ^abut this shall be with burning and ^afuel of fire.

6 ^aFor unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called ^aWonderful, Counsellor, ^aThe mighty God, The everlasting Father, ^aThe Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace ^athere shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The ^azeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

8 ^aThe Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycomores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the Lord shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and ^ajoin his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind: and they shall devour Israel ^awith open mouth. ^aFor all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 ^aFor ^athe people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the Lord of hosts.

14 Therefore the Lord will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, ^ain one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16 For ^athe leaders of this people cause them to err; and ^athey that are led of them are ^adeceived.

17 Therefore the Lord ^ashall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: ^afor every one is an hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaketh ^afolly. ^aFor all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 ^aFor wickedness ^aburneth as the fire: it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up ^alike the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the Lord of hosts is ^athe land darkened, and the people shall be as ^athe fuel of the fire: ^ano man shall spare his brother.

20 And he shall ^asmatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, ^aand they shall not be satisfied: ^athey shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. ^aFor all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

CHAPTER X.

1 The use of tyrants. 5 Assyria, the rod of hypocrites, for his pride shall be broken. 20 A remnant of Israel shall be saved. 24 Israel is comforted with promise of deliverance from Assyria.

WOE unto them that ^adecree unrighteous decrees, and ^athat write grievousness which they have prescribed:

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

3 And ^awhat will ye do in ^athe day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. ^aFor all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

5 ^a30 ^aAssyrian, ^athe rod of mine anger, ^aand the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

6 I will send him against ^aan hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I ^agive him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and ^ato tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 ^aHowbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

9 Is not Calno ^{as} Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria ^{as} Damascus?

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work ^{upon} upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will ^{punish} the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high locks.

13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants ^{like a valiant man}.

14 And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall ^{the} ax boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his ^{fat} ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of ^{his} his fruitful field, both soul and body: and because his glory shall be as when a standardbearer faintheeth.

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

23 For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt.

25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction.

26 And the Lord of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up against the manner of Egypt.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that this burden ^{shall} shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages:

29 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Sais is fled.

30 Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto Laish, for poor Anathoth.

31 Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.

32 As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Behold, the Lord, the Lord of hosts, shall lay the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The peaceable kingdom of the Branch out of the root of Jesse. 10 The victorious restoration of Israel, and location of the Gentiles.

AND there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

2 And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord;

3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and ^{reprove} with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fattening together; and a little child shall lead them.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed: their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice's den.

9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people: to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Patros, and from Cush, and from Hamath, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

CHAPTER XII.

A joyful thanksgiving of the faithful for the mercies of God.

AND in that day thou shalt say, O Lord, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.

2 Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

4 And in that day shall ye say, "Praise the Lord, O all upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.

5 Asing unto the Lord; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.

6 Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 God mustereth the armies of his wrath. 6 He threateneth to destroy Babylon by the Medes. 10 The desolation of Babylon.

THE burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.

2 I lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the Lord of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the Lord, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 Howl ye; for the day of the Lord is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt; I

8 And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

9 Behold! the day of the Lord cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity: and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the Lord of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

21 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.

22 And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 God's merciful restoration of Israel. 4 Their triumphant insultation over Babylon. 24 God's purpose against Assyria. 25 Palestine is threatened.

FOR the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and he will get choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the Lord for servants and handmaids; and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were: and they shall rule over their oppressors.

3 And it shall come to pass in the day that the Lord shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve.

4 That thou shalt take up this 2 proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!

5 The Lord hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

8 Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

9 Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth: it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

12 How art thou fallen from heaven, Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds: I will be like the most High.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof: that opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house.

19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcass trodden under foot.

20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of exiles shall never be renewed.

21 Prepare slaughter for thy children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the Lord of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the Lord.

23 I will also make it a possession for the bitter, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of hosts.

24 The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:

25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the land that is stretched out upon all the nations.

27 For the Lord of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his land is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

28 In the year that king Ahas died was this burden.

29 Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken; for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a 2cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

30 And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou, whole Palestina, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and none shall be alone in his appointed times.

32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That the Lord hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

CHAPTER XV.

The lamentable state of Moab.

THE burden of Moab. Because in the night the Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence: because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence:

2 He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Meleba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall cird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 My heart shall cry out for Moab: his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an 4boiler of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the lay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Bethaim, and the howling thereof unto Beerchim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring 4more upon Moab, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Moab is exhorted to avoid confidence to Christ's kingdom. 2 Moab is threatened for 4 pride. 3 The prophet bewaileth her. 12 The judgment of Moab.

SEND ye the lamb to the ruler of the land: 4Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, that as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fairs of Aram.

3 Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday: hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab: be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the oppressor is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth, in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

6 ¶ We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: ⁷ but his lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

9 ¶ Therefore will I bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field: and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses: I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-hareseth.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word that the Lord hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the Lord hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be condemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Syria and Israel are threatened. 6 A remnant shall forsake idolatry. 3 The rest shall be preserved for their impiety. 12 The use of Israel's enemies.

THE burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

3 The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the Lord of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wane.

5 ¶ And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reareth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

6 ¶ Yet cleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the Lord God of Israel.

7 At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves, or the images.

9 ¶ In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange ships:

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 ¶ Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and I shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

14 And behold at evening tide trouble: and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 God in care of his people will destroy the Ethiopians. 7 An access thereby shall grow unto the church.

WOE to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

2 That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled!

3 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

4 For so the Lord said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

5 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripeneth in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

6 They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

7 ¶ In that time shall the present be brought unto the Lord of hosts of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the Lord of hosts, the mount Zion.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 The confusion of Egypt. 11 The foolishness of their princes. 18 The falling of Egypt to the church. 23 The covenant of Egypt, Assyria, and Israel.

THE burden of Egypt. Behold, the Lord cometh idly upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt; and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will smite the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Egyptians will give over / into the hand of a cruel lord: and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts.

5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away: and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.

8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave networks, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish.

11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the Lord of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived: they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The Lord hath misused a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the Lord of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the Lord of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the Lord of hosts: one shall be called, The city of destruction.

19 In that day shall there be an altar to the Lord in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the Lord.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the Lord of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the Lord because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the Lord shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the Lord in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation: yea, they shall vow a vow unto the Lord, and perform it.

22 And the Lord shall smite Egypt: he shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the Lord, and he shall be intreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land:

25 Whom the Lord of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

CHAPTER XX.

A type prefiguring the shameful captivity of Egypt and her ruin.

IN the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him), and fought against Ashdod, and took it;

2 At the same time spake the Lord by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off thy reins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

3 And the Lord said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years, for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia:

4 So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

5 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6 And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

CHAPTER XXI.

2 A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up to Elam: besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

3 Therefore dare my limbs filled with pain: pang have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

5 Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth.

7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels: and he hearkened diligently with much heed.

8 And he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward - while nights:

9 And behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen: and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken upon the ground.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they fled ³⁴ from the sword, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.16 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a year, ³⁵ according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of ³⁶ Kedar shall fall:

17 And the residue of the number of 5 archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the Lord God of Israel hath spoken it.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The prophet lamenteth the invasion of Jeury by the Persians. 8 He reproveheth their human wisdom and worldly joy. 15 He prophesieth Sidera's deprivation. 20 and Eliakim, prefiguring the kingdom of Christ, his substitution.

THE burden of the valley of vision. What alleth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the house-tops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, ³ a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound ⁶ by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.4 Therefore said I, Look away from me: ⁷ I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.5 ¶ For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity ^d by the Lord God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.6 ¶ And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and ^f Kir ³ uncovered the shield.7 And it shall come to pass, that ⁹ thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array ² at the gate.8 ¶ And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour ⁹ of the house of the forest.

9 ¶ Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 ¶ Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto ^k the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts ^l call to weeping, and to mourning, and ^m to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:13 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: ⁿ let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die.

14 ¶ And it was revealed in mine ears by the Lord of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord God of hosts.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto ⁹ Shebna, ⁷ which is over the house, and say,16 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, ² as he ² that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock?17 Behold, ³ the Lord will carry thee away with ⁴ a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee.18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a ⁵ large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.

19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down.

20 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant ⁶ Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:

21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall ⁷ open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.23 And I will fasten him as ⁸ a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house.24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the ⁶ vessels of flagns.

25 In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the Lord hath spoken it.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre. 17 Their unhappy return.

THE ^a burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: ^b from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.2 Be ^c still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, ^d is her revenue; and ^e she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 ¶ As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your ^g joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days: her own feet shall carry her ^h afar off to sojourn.8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, ⁱ for the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?9 The Lord of hosts hath purposed it, ^j to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more ^k strength.

¹²shall be holiness to the Lord: it shall not be treasured nor laid up: for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the Lord, to eat sufficiently, and for ¹³durable clothing.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 The delightful judgments of God upon the land. 12
A remnant shall be left, as in the 15. God in his judgments hath increased his kingdom.

BEHOLD, the Lord maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and ²turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

3 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the ³priest: as with the servant, so with his master: as with the maid, so with her mistress: as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower: as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

4 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the Lord hath spoken this word.

5 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, ⁶the haughty people of the earth do languish.

7 The earth also is desolate under the inhabitants thereof: because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

8 Therefore hath ⁷the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are dis-olate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

9 The new wine mourneth, the vine lan-guisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh.

10 The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice ceaseth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

11 They shall not drink wine with a song:
strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

12 The city of confusion is broken down:
every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

13 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

14 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

15 ¹⁴When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, ¹⁵there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleanings grapes when the vintage is done.

16 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the Lord, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

17 Wherefore glorify ye the Lord in the 2nd firm, even ¹⁶the name of the Lord God of Israel in the isles of the sea.

18 ¹⁸From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, ¹⁹My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

19 ¹⁹Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

20 And it shall come to pass that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for ²⁰the windows from on high are open, and ²¹the foundations of the earth do shake.

21 ²¹The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

22 ²²The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall ²³punish the boast of the high ones that are on high, ²⁴and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

24 And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.

25 Then the ²⁵moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the Lord of hosts shall ²⁶reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and ²⁷before his ancients gloriously.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The prophet prophesied, for his judgments, 6 for his saving benefits, 9 and for his victorious salvation.

O LORD, thou art my God: ¹I will exalt thee. I will praise thy name:
for thou hast done wonderful things:
²thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

3 For thou hast made ³of a city an heap:
of a defence city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

4 Therefore shall the strong people ⁴glori-fy thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

5 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, ⁵a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

6 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud:
the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

7 ⁷And in this mountain shall ⁸the
Lord of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well renned.

8 And he will ⁸destroy in this mountain the face of the covering ⁹cast over all people, and ¹⁰the veil that is spread over all nations.

9 He will ⁹swallow up death in victory:

9 ¶ And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; ¶ we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the Lord: we have waited for him, ¶ we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the Lord rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim; and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their bands.

12 And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 A song inciting to confidence in God, 5 for his judgments, 12 and for his favour to his people. 20 An exhortation to wait on God.

IN that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; ¶ salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

2 ¶ Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the Lord for ever: 4 for in the Lord JEHOVAH is everlasting strength:

5 ¶ For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; ¶ the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is uprightness: f then, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, ¶ in the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 ¶ With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 ¶ Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the Lord.

11 Lord, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 ¶ Lord, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us.

13 O Lord our God, ¶ other lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live: they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O Lord, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hast removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 Lord ¶ in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a 2 prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as ¶ a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O Lord.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth: neither have we the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 ¶ Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. ¶ Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 ¶ Come, my people, ¶ enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were ¶ for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For, behold, the Lord ¶ cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 The care of God over his vineyard. 7 His chastenments differ from judgments. 12 The church of Jews and Gentiles.

IN that day the Lord with his sore and ¶ great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the ¶ piercing serpent; ¶ even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day ¶ sing ye unto her, a vineyard of red wine.

3 ¶ I the Lord do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: who would set f the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together.

5 Or let him take hold ¶ of my strength, that he may ¶ make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob ¶ to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 ¶ Hath he smitten him, ¶ as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

8 ¶ In measure, 7 when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: 8 ¶ he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin: when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and ¶ images shall not stand up.

10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: ¶ there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for ¶ it is a people of no understanding: therefore be that made them will not have mercy on them, and ¶ he that formed them will slay them no favour.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

13 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, ¶ that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 The prophet threateth Ephraim for their pride and drunkenness. 5 The vineyard shall be adorned in the kingdom of Christ. 7 He rebuketh their error. 9 Their sinners continue to learn, 11 and their security. 16 Christ the overfountain is promised. 18 Their security shall be tried. 23 They are invited to the consideration of God's diverse providence.

WOE to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, ^{which} as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden ³ under feet;

4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he catcheth it up.

5 In that day shall the Lord of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people.

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little.

11 For with ⁷ stammering lips and another tongue ⁸ will he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest ^{wherein} ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing; yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the Lord was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 Wherefore hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only ³ to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the Lord shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wrath as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts ² a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

23 Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

24 Both the plowman plow all day to sow; doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the 5 rie in their 6 place?

26 For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the Lord of hosts, ⁷ which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 God's heavy judgment upon Jerusalem. 7 The unbelief of the Jews. 9 The security of the Jews. 13 A promise of safety to the Jews.

WOE to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt: add ye year to year; let them 2 kill sacrifices.

2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel.

3 And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, ⁶ out of the ground, and thy speech shall ⁵ whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover the multitude of thy detractors shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be ⁷ as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be ⁸ as an instant suddenly.

6 Thou shalt be visited of the Lord of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her mountain, and that distress her, shall be ⁹ as a dream of a night vision.

9 ¶ Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, ^m but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

10 For ^a the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath ^b closed your eyes: the prophets and your ^c rulers, ^d the seers hath he covered.

11 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a ^e book: ^f that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: ^g and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed:

12 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

13 ¶ Wherefore the Lord said, ^h Forsomuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by ⁱ the precept of men:

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, ^j I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: ^k for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

15 ¶ Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, and their works are in the dark, and ^l they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the ^m work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

17 Is it not yet a very little while, and ⁿ Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?

18 ¶ And ^o in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

19 ¶ The meek also shall increase their joy in the Lord, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and ^p the scorner is consumed, and all that ^q watch for iniquity are cut off:

21 That make a man an offender for a word, and ^r lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just ^s for a thing of nought.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord, ^t who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.

23 But when he seeth his children, ^u the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.

24 They also ^v that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 The prophet threateth the people for their confidence in Egypt, & of contempt of God's word: 18 God's mercies towards his church. 25 God's wrath, and the people's joy, in the destruction of Assyria.

WOE to the rebellious children, saith the Lord. ^a that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, ^b that they may add sin to sin:

2 ¶ That walk to go down into Egypt, and ^c have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

3 ¶ Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt ^d your confusion.

4 For his princes were at ^e Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

5 ¶ They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

6 ¶ The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence ^f come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery lying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

7 ¶ For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried 2 concerning this, ^g Their strength is to sit still.

8 ¶ Now go, ^h write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for ⁱ the time to come for ever and ever:

9 That ^j this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the Lord:

10 ¶ Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, ^k speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits:

11 Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in ^l oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you ^m as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking ⁿ cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And ^o he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water ^p without out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel; ^q In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: ^r and ye would not:

16 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee; and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 ¶ One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as ^s a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill.

18 ¶ And therefore will the Lord wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the Lord is a God of judgment: ^t blessed are all they that wait for him.

19 For the people ^u shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

20 And though the Lord give you ^v the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not ^w thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

22 Ye shall desire also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

23 / Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal: and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.

24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the Lord bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 Behold, the name of the Lord cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the Lord, to the city of his people.

30 And the Lord shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

31 For through the voice of the Lord shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

32 And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the Lord shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it.

33 For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood: the breath of the Lord, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The prophet sheweth the covered folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God. 6 He sheweth to conversion. He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

W ORE to them that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the Lord:

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit.

When the Lord shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is helped shall fall down; and they all shall fail together.

4 For thus hath the Lord spoken unto me, / Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the Lord of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 As birds flying, so will the Lord of hosts defend Jerusalem: defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it.

6 Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin.

8 Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited.

9 And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the Lord, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XXXII

1 The blessing of Christ's kingdom. 2 Desolation is for them. 16 Restoration is promised to such.

BEHOLD, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

2 And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

3 And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be beautiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the Lord, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.

9 Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall be none.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the reeds, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briars: ye, upon all the houses of joy in the joyful city.

14 Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left: the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks:

15 Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a 24 And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 The judgments wherewith God strengthen his church. 11 The desolation of her enemies. 16 The certainty of the promise.

COME near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it.

2 For the indignation of the Lord is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter.

3 Their slain also shall be cast out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcasses, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood.

4 And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree.

5 For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.

6 The word of the Lord is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the Lord hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

7 And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

8 For it is the day of the Lord's vengeance, and the year of recompences for the controversy of Zion.

9 And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch.

10 It shall not be quenched night nor day: the smoke thereof shall go up for ever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste: none shall pass through it for ever and ever.

14 2 The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with 5 the wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the screech owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest.

15 There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow: there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate.

16 2 Seek ye out of the book of the Lord, and read: no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his spirit it hath gathered them.

17 And he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it unto them by line: they shall possess it for ever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 The joyful flourishing of Christ's kingdom. 3 The weak are encouraged by the virtues and privileges of the gospel.

THE wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

2 It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God.

3 2 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

4 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense: he will come and save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

6 Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall 4 waters break out, and streams in the desert.

7 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be 2 vigas with reeds and rushes.

8 And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness: the unclean shall not pass over it: but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

9 No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there:

10 And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall cease away.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Sennacherib invades Judah. 4 Rabshakeh, sent by Sennacherib, to blaspheme, persuades Micahiah the people to revolt. 22 His words are told to Hezekiah.

NOW it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defended cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 2 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) 4 I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; wherein if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the Lord our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give 5 pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the Lord against this land to destroy it: the Lord said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 2 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 2 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the Lord, saying, The Lord will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, 2 Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern:

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Because he hath despised me, saying, The Lord will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath, and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 ¶ Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 Hezekiah mourning sendeth to Isaiah to pray for them. 6 Isaiah comforteth them. 8 Sennacherib, going to encounter Tirhakah, sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah. 14 Hezekiah's prayer. 21 Isaiah's prophecy of the pride and destruction of Sennacherib, and the good of Zion. 36 in answer slayeth the Assyrians. 37 Sennacherib is slain at Nineveh by his own sons.

AND ^a it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the Lord.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of ^b blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the Lord thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the Lord thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the Lord, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will ^c send a blast upon him, and he shall bear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Lichah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Zepher, and the children of Eden which were in Telsassar?

13 Where is the king of ^d Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Irbah?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the Lord, and spread it before the Lord.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the Lord, saying,

16 O Lord of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 ¶ Incline thine ear, O Lord, and hear; open thine eyes, O Lord, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, Lord, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the ^e nations, and their countries, 19 And have ^f cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O Lord our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the Lord, even thou only.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the Lord hath spoken concerning him: The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 ¶ By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down ^g the tall cedars thereof; and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and ^h the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the ⁱ besieged places.

26 ¶ Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have formed it; now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldst be to lay waste defenceless cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were ^j of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy ^k abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore ^l will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as growth of itself: and the second year such as springeth of the same: and in the third year saw ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And ^m the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and ⁿ they that escape out of mount Zion: the ^o zeal of the Lord of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with ^p shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the Lord.

35 For I will ^q defend this city to save it

35 Then the ^gangel of the Lord went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37 ¶ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped unto the land of Armenia: and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 Hezekiah, having received a message of death, by messenger hath his life lengthened. 8 The sun went ten degrees backward, for a sign of that promise. 9 His song of thanksgiving.

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amos came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, ^bSet thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the Lord,

3 And said, Remember now, O Lord, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.

4 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

7 And this shall be ^aa sign unto thee from the Lord, that the Lord will do this thing that he hath spoken:

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

9 ¶ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

10 I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

11 I said, I shall not see the Lord, even the Lord, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 ¶ Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off ^bwith pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O Lord, I am oppressed; undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years ^cin the bitterness of my soul.

16 O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, ^dfor peace I had great bitterness: but ^ethou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

18 For ^fthe grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: (the father to the children shall make known thy truth).

20 The Lord was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the Lord.

21 For ^gIsaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 ¶ Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the Lord?

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 Merodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah because of the wonder, hath received his answer. 2 Isaiah, understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

AT that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his ²precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his ³armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the Lord of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, ^athat all that is in thine house, and ^bthat which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the Lord.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away: and ^cthey shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, ^dGood is the word of the Lord which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

CHAPTER XL.

1 The promulgation of the gospel. 3 The preaching of John Baptist. 9 The preaching of the apostles. 12 The prophet by the universality of God, 18 and his incomparableness, do comfort the people.

COMFORT ye, comfort ye my ^apeople, saith your God.

2 Speak ye ^bcomfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her ^cwarfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: ^dfor she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

3 ¶ The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, ^ePrepare ye the way of the Lord, ^fmake straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: ^gand the crooked shall be made ^hstraight, and the rough places ⁱplain:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 ¶ O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid: say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!

10 Behold, the Lord God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: he shall feed his flock in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

12 ¶ Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 ¶ Who hath directed the Spirit of the Lord, or being his counsellor hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing: and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

18 ¶ To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 ¶ The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot: he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 ¶ Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 ¶ It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers: that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

23 That bringeth the princes to nothing: he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown: yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 ¶ To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the Lord, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28 ¶ Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

31 But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

CHAPTER XLI.

1 God exhorteth with his people, about his mercies to the church, 10 about his promises, 21 and about the vanity of idols.

¶ KEEP silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed safely: even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 ¶ Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the Lord, the first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 ¶ They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

7 ¶ So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smoothen with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the soldering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant: I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing: and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

16 Thou shalt ⁷fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the Lord, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the Lord will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree: I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together:

20 That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the Lord hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 Produce your cause, saith the Lord; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

22 Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23 Show the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, ²⁴do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

24 Behold, ye are not nothing, and your work ²⁵of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun ²⁶he shall call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 The first I shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem that bringeth good tidings.

28 For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 The office of Christ, named with weakness and temptation: 5 God's promise unto him. 10 An invitation to praise God for his gospel. 17 He reproves the people of unbelief.

BEHOLD ¹my servant, whom I appoint: mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth: ²I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 Thus saith God the Lord, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out: he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it: he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:

6 And the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles:

7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house.

8 I am the Lord: that is my name; and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 Praise unto the Lord a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and ye that are therein: the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that dwell doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the Lord, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The Lord shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace: I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travelling woman; I will destroy and devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the Lord's servant?

20 Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The Lord is well pleased for his righteousness' sake: he will magnify the law, and make ²²it honourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled: they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for ye spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the Lord, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 The Lord comforteth the church with his promises. 8 He appealeth to the people for witness of his omnipotence. 14 He foretelleth them the destruction of Babylon, 15 and his wonderful deliverance of his people. 22 He reproveth the people as inaccessible.

BUT now thus saith the Lord ^a that created thee, O Jacob, ^b and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: ^c for I have redeemed thee, ^d I have called thee by thy name: thou art mine.

2 ^e When thou passest through the waters, ^f I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou ^g walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: ^h I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy 2 life.

5 ⁱ Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 ^j Even every one that is ^k called by my name: for ^l I have created him for my glory, ^m I have formed him: yea, I have made him.

8 ⁿ Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: ^o who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, ^p It is truth.

10 ^q Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, ^r and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: ^s before me there was ^t no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, ^u am the Lord; and beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no ^v strange god among you: ^w therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, that I am God.

13 ^x Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall ^y let it?

14 ^z Thus saith the Lord, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their ^a nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the Lord, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the Lord, which ^b maketh a way in the sea, and a ^c path in the mighty waters:

17 Which ^d bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power: they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 ^e Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a ^f new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? ^g I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the ^h owls: because ⁱ I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 ^j This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise.

22 ^k But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou ^l hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 ^m Thou hast not brought me the ⁿ small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou ^o filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast ^p wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that ^q blottest out thy transgressions ^r for mine own sake, ^s and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy ^t teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore ^u I have profaned the ^v princes of the sanctuary, ^w and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 God comforteth the church with his promises. 7 The vanity of idols, 9 and folly of idol makers. 21 He exhorteth to praise God for his redemption and omnipotence.

YET now hear, ^a O Jacob my servant; and Israel whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the Lord that made thee, ^b and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee: Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, ^c Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will ^d pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses.

5 One shall say, I am the Lord's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob: and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the Lord, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the Lord the King of Israel, ^e and his redeemer the Lord of hosts: ^f I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

7 And ^g who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: ^h I have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ⁱ ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, ^j there is no ^k God; I know not any.

9 ^l They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their ^m delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses: ⁿ they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image ^o that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ^p ashamed; and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; ^q yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule;
he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

14 He beareth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he ³ strengtheneth for himself among the trees rain doth nourish it.

15 Then saith it he for a man to burn:
for he will take thereof, and warm him-yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it;

he maketh it a graven image, and falleth

CHAPTER XLV.

1 God calleth Cyrus for his church's sake. 5 By his omnipotency he challengeth disobedience. 20 He con-vinceth the idols of vanity by his saving power.

THUS saith the Lord to his anointed,
To Cyrus, whose ² right hand I ² have

I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut:

² I will go before thee, ⁴ and make the

the bars of iron:

³ And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the Lord, which ⁵ call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

⁴ For ⁶ Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though

⁶ That they may know from the rising none beside me. I am the Lord, and there is none else.

⁷ I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and ⁸ create evil: I the Lord do all these things.

⁸ Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness:
let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the Lord have created it.

⁹ Woe unto him that striveth with ¹⁰ His Maker! Let the poulder strive with the powders of the earth. ¹¹ Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work. He hath no hands?

¹⁰ Woe unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

¹¹ Thus saith the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, and His Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning ¹² my sons, and concerning the work of my hands, command ye me.

¹² I have made the earth, and ¹³ created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and ¹⁴ all their host have I commanded.

¹³ I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will ¹⁵ direct all his ways: he shall ¹⁶ build my city, and he shall let go my captives, ¹⁷ not for price nor reward, saith the Lord of hosts.

¹⁴ Thus saith the Lord, ¹⁵ The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia, and of the Sabaeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine:
they shall come after thee: ¹⁶ in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee;
and ¹⁷ there is none else, there is no God.

¹⁵ Verily thou art a God ¹⁸ that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour.

¹⁶ They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are ¹⁹ makers of idols.

¹⁷ And Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

¹⁸ For thus saith the Lord ¹⁹ that created the heavens, God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else.

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said unto the seed of Jacob. Seek ye me in vain: I the Lord speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

20 Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

21 Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the Lord? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour: there is none beside me.

22 Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

23 I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

24 Surely, shall one say, in the Lord have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

25 In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 The idols of Babylon could not save themselves. 3 God saveth his people to the end. 5 Idols are not comparable to God for power, 12 or present salvation.

BEL boweth down, Nebo stoopeth, their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy loaden; they are a burden to the weary beast.

2 They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

3 Hearken unto me, O house of Israel, all the remnant of the house of Jacob, which are borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb:

4 And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs I will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

5 To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

6 They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship.

7 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

8 Remember this, and shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me.

10 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, I myself shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11 Calling a ravenous bird of the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

12 Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from righteousness:

13 I bring near my righteousness: it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 God's judgment upon Babylon and Chaldeans, for their unmercifulness, pride, and overboldness, 11 shall be unrevivable.

COME down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for thy redeemer, the Lord of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

6 I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand; thou didst shew them no mercy: upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me: I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee, thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth: if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble: the fire shall burn them: they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter: none shall save thee.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1 God, to convince the people of their foreknowledge, revealed his prophecies. 12 He sheweth them for his own sake. 12 He sheweth them for his own sake. 12 He sheweth them for his own sake.

16 He lamenteth their backwardness. 20 He powerfully delivereth his out of Babylon.

HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which swear by the name of the Lord, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel: The Lord of hosts is his name.

3 I have declared the former things from the beginning: and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them: I did them suddenly: and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee: before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this: and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning: even before the day when thou heardest them not: lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb.

9 ¶ For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver: I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another.

12 ¶ Harken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called: I am he; I am the first, I also am the last.

13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together.

14 ¶ All ye assemble yourselves, and hear: which among them hath declared these things? The Lord hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken: yea, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 ¶ Come ye near unto me, hear ye this: I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there I am: and now the Lord God, and his Spirit, hath sent me.

17 Thus saith the Lord, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the Lord thy God, which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 ¶ O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 ¶ Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof: his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 ¶ Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The Lord hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 ¶ There is no peace, saith the Lord, unto the wicked.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 Christ, being sent to the Jews, complaineth of them. 5 He is sent to the Gentiles with special promises. 13 God's love is perpetual to his church. 18 The ample restoration of the church. 23 The powerful deliverance out of captivity.

LISTEN, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far: The Lord hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me:

3 And said unto me, ¶ Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified.

4 ¶ Then I said, I have laboured in vain. I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the Lord, and my work with my God.

5 ¶ And now, saith the Lord, that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, ¶ Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the Lord, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And he said, ¶ It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, ¶ to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, ¶ Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the Lord that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the Lord, ¶ In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;

9 That thou mayest say ¶ to the prisoners, Go forth: to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 ¶ They shall not hunger nor thirst: neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 ¶ And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, ¶ these shall come from far: and lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

13 ¶ Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing. O mountains: for the Lord hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 ¶ But Zion said, The Lord hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

15 ¶ Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

16 Behold, ¶ I have graven thee upon the pains of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

17 Thy children shall make haste; d thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

18 e f Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the Lord, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, f as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth.

19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, g shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

20 h i The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 k l Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 m And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their q queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and n lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord: for n they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

24 o p Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or s the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the Lord, Even the q captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will p feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh: and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh q shall know that I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

CHAPTER L.

1 Christ sheweth that the denigration of the Jews is not to be imputed to him, by his ability to save, by his obedience in that work, and by his confidence in that assistance. 10 In exhortation to trust in God, and not in our loves.

THUS saith the Lord, Where is a the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my b creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities c have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? d when I called, was there none to answer? e is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, f at my rebuke I d dry up the sea, I make the h rivers a wilderness: i their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 m The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 n The Lord God hath opened mine ear, and I was not p rebellious, neither turned away back.

6 q I gave my back to the smiters, and r my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 s For the Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 t u He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is v mine adversary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? u lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; v the moth shall eat them up.

10 w x Who is among you that feareth the Lord, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that y walketh in darkness, and hath no light? z let him trust in the name of the Lord, and stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. a This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down b in sorrow.

CHAPTER LI.

1 An exhortation, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ. 3 by reason of his comfortable promises, 4 of his righteous salvation, 7 and man's mortality. 9 Christ by his crucified arm defendeth his from the fear of man. 17 He bewaileth the afflictions of Jerusalem, 21 and promitteth deliverance.

a HEarken to me, b ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the Lord: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 c Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: d for I called him alone, and e blessed him, and increased him.

3 f For the Lord g shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places: and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert h like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 i j Hearken unto me, my people: and give ear unto me, O my nation: k for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest l for a light of the people.

5 m My righteousness is near: my salvation is gone forth, l and mine arms shall judge the people: n the isles shall wait upon me, and o on mine arm shall they trust.

6 p q Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for r the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, s and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 t u Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people v in whose heart is my law: w fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 x y For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 z a Awake, awake, b put on strength, O arm of the Lord; awake, c as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. d Art thou not it that hath cut e Rabah, and wounded the f dragon?

n Ps. 59. 33, 34.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 Life was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall thy righteous servant justify many; he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

13 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to faith, 8 and to repentance. 8 The happy success of them that believe.

14 Therefore do ye 2 spend money for that which is not bread: and your labour for that which satisfieth not: hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel: for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 So shall my word be that giveth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee.

11 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee.

15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER LV.

1 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to faith, 8 and to repentance. 8 The happy success of them that believe.

2 Therefore do ye 2 spend money for that which is not bread: and your labour for that which satisfieth not: hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel: for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 So shall my word be that giveth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and *all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 * Instead of * the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the Lord * for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

CHAPTER LVI.

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification. 3 He promitteth it shall be general without respect of persons. 5 He inviteth against their watchmen.

THIS saith the Lord, Keep ye 2 judgment, and do justice: * for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it: * that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 * Neither let * the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the Lord, speak, saying, The Lord hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the Lord unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in * mine house and within my walls a place * and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the Lord, to serve him, and to love the name of the Lord, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I /bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: * their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for * mine house shall be called an house of prayer * for all people.

8 The Lord God * which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, * Yet will I gather others to him, * beside those that are gathered unto him.

9 * All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are * blind: they are all ignorant, * they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; * sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are * greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink: * and to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

CHAPTER LVII.

1 The blessed death of the righteous. 3 God reproves the Jews for their wicked idolatry. 13 He gives a vision of his glorious presence.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and * merciful men are taken away, * none considering that the righteous is taken away * from the evil to come.

2 He shall * enter into peace: they shall rest in * their beds, each one walking * in his uprightness.

3 * But draw near hither, * ye sons of the sorcerers, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves?

against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue: * are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood,

5 Inflaming yourselves * with coals * and under every green tree, * slaying the children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 * I put a lofty and high mountain hast thou set * thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to * another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and * made thee a covenant with them: thou lovedst their bed * where thou sawest it.

9 And * thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers for oil, and didst deluge thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; * yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the * fire of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And * of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart: * have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me now?

12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

13 * When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain:

14 And shall say, * Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling block out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, * whose name is Holy; * I dwell in the high and holy place, * with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, * to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 * For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wrath: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls * which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of * his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: * I hid me, and was wroth, * and he went on * forwardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, and * will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to * his mourners.

19 I create * the fruit of the tree; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the Lord; and I will heal him.

20 * When the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 * I have seen no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

CHAPTER LVIII.

1 The prophet, having first to reprove hypocrisy, 3 expresses the secret heart and a true * heart, and what promises are due unto godliness, 15 and to the keeping of the sabbath.

CRY aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and foresook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 ¶ ^a Wherefore have we fasted, ^{say they}, and thou seest not? ^{wherefore} have we ^b afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your ² labours.

4 ¶ Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ⁴ ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it ^d such a fast that I have chosen? ⁵ Is a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the Lord?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, ⁹ to undo the heavy burdens, and ^h to let the ⁷ oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not ⁱ to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? ^k when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from ^l thine own flesh?

8 ¶ ^m Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; ⁿ the glory of the Lord shall be thy reward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and ^o speaking vanity;

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day;

11 And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters shall not.

12 And they that shall be of thee ^p shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 ¶ ^q If ^r thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking ^s thine own words:

14 ¶ Then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ^t ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: ^u for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

CHAPTER LIX.

1 The damnable nature of sin. 3 The sins of the Jews. 9 Consistency is for sin. 16 Salvation is only of God. 20 The covenant of the Redeemer.

BEHOLD, the Lord's hand is not ^a shortened, that it cannot save; neither is his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins ^b have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For ^c your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; ^e they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch ² cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that catcheth of their eggs dieth, and ³ that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 ^d Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 ^e Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and ^f destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no ^g judgment in their goings: ⁷ they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 ¶ Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: ² we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 ^h We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and ⁱ mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

13 In transgressing and lying against the Lord, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering ^k from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil ⁶ maketh himself a prey; and the Lord saw it, and ⁷ it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 ¶ ^l And he saw that there was no man, and ^m wondered that there was no intercessor: ⁿ therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 ^o For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke.

18 ^p According to their ⁸ deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

19 ^q So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in ^r like a flood, the spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him.

20 ¶ ^s And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the Lord.

21 ^t As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever.

ARISE, ^a 2 shine; for thy light is come, and ^b the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the ^c Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 ^d Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, ^e they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because ^f the ^g abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the ^h forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

12 ^y For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 ^z The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make ^a the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall ^b bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet, and they shall call thee, The city of the Lord, ^c The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, ^d and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that ^e I the Lord am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteous.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call ^f thy walls Salvation, and thy gates ^g Peace.

19 The ^h sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and ⁱ thy God thy glory.

20 ^j Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 ^k Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, ^l the branch of my planting, ^m the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 ⁿ A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the Lord will hasten it in his time.

CHAPTER LXI.

1 The office of Christ. 4 The forwardness, 7 and blessings of the faithful.

THE ^a Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord ^b hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me ^c to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim ^d liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 ^e To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and ^f the day of vengeance of our God; ^g to comfort all that mourn;

3 ^h To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, ⁱ to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, ^j that he might be glorified.

4 ^k And they shall ^l build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And ^m strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

6 ⁿ But ye shall be named the Priests of the Lord: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ^o ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

7 ^p For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For ^q I the Lord love judgment, ^r I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, ^s and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, ^t that they are the seed which the Lord hath blessed.

10 ^u I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God: for ^v he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, ^w as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause ^x righteousness and ^y praise to spring forth before all the nations.

CHAPTER LXII.

1 The fervent desire of the prophet to confirm the church in God's promises. 5 The office of the ministers (unto which they are called) in procuring the gospel, 10 and preparing the people thereto.

FOR Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 ^a And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: ^b and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 ^c Thou shalt also be ^d a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 ^d Thou shalt no more be termed ^e Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed ^f Desolate: but thou shalt be called ^g 2 Ephzai-bah, and thy land ^h 3 Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 ⁱ For as a young man marryeth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and ^j as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so ^k shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 ^l I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ^m 5 ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence,

7 And give him no ⁿ rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem ^o a praise in the earth.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, ^p Surely I will no more ^q give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it ^r in the courts of my holiness.

10 ^s Go through, go through the gates; ^t prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones: ^u lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, ^v Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his ^w reward is with him, and his ^x work before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city ^y not forsaken.

CHAPTER LXIII.

1 Christ's strength who he is, 2 what his victory over his enemies, 3 and what his mercy toward his church 10 In his just wrath he remembereth his free mercy. 15 The church in their prayer, 17 and complaint, profess their faith.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? ^z that is ^a 9 glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore ^b art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

3 I have ^c trodden the winepress alone; and of the people ^d there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the ^e day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 ^f And I looked, and ^g there was none to help; and I wondered that ^h there was none to uphold: therefore mine own ⁱ arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and ^j make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 ^k I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they ^l are my people, children ^m that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 ⁿ In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: ^o in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and ^p the bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 ^q But they ^r rebelled, and ^s vexed his holy Spirit: ^t therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, ^u saying, Where is he that ^v brought them up out of the sea with the ^w 2 shepherd of his flock? ^x where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses ^y with his glorious arm, ^z dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 ^a That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, ^b that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, ^c to make thyself a glorious name.

15 ^d Look down from heaven, and behold ^e from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where ^f is thy zeal and thy strength, ^g the sounding ^h of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 ⁱ Doubtless thou ^j art our father, though Abraham ^k be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, ^l our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

17 ^m O LORD, why hast thou ⁿ made us to err from thy ways, and ^o hardened our heart from thy fear? ^p Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 ^q The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: ^r our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are ^s thine: thou never barest rule over them; ^t they were not called by thy name.

CHAPTER LXIV.

1 The church prayeth for the illustration of God's power. 5 Celebrating God's mercy, it maketh confession of their natural corruptions. 9 It complaineth of their affliction.

OH that thou wouldest ^a rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that ^b the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when ^c the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, ^d that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When ^e thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world ^f men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye ^g seen, O God, beside thee, ^h what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth ⁱ and worketh righteousness, ^j those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: ^k in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

7 And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, ³ because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O Lord, thou art our father; we are the clay, ⁴ and thou our potter; and we all are ⁵ the work of thy hand.

9 ⁶ Be not ⁷ wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, P we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, ⁸ Jerusalem a desolation.

11 ⁹ Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all ¹⁰ our pleasant things are laid waste.

12 ¹¹ Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O Lord? ¹² wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

CHAPTER LXV.

1 The calling of the Gentiles. 2 The Jews, for their incredulity, idolatry, and hypocrisy, are rejected. 3 A remnant shall be saved. 11 Judgments on the wicked, and blessings on the godly. 17 The blessed state of the new Jerusalem.

I AM sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that b was not called by my name.

2 ¹ I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

3 A people ² that provoketh me to anger continually to my face: ³ that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense ⁴ upon altars of brick;

4 ⁵ Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, ⁶ which eat swine's flesh, and ⁷ broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

5 ⁸ Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my ⁹ nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before me: ¹⁰ I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom.

7 Your iniquities, and ¹¹ the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the Lord, ¹² which have burned incense upon the mountains, ¹³ and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 ¹⁴ Thus saith the Lord, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not: for *P*a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine ¹⁵ elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

10 And ¹⁶ Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and ¹⁷ the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

11 ¹⁸ But ye are they that forsake the Lord, that forget ¹⁹ my holy mountain, that prepare ²⁰ a table for that ²¹ troop, and that furnish the drink offering unto that ²² number.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: ²³ because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and ²⁴ shall howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name ²⁵ for a curse unto ²⁶ my chosen: for the Lord God shall slay thee, and ²⁷ call his servants by another name:

16 ²⁸ That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and ²⁹ he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth: because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 ³⁰ For, behold, I create ³¹ new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor ³² come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And ³³ I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the ³⁴ voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; ³⁵ but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And ³⁶ they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit: they shall not plant, and another eat: for ³⁷ as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and ³⁸ mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, ³⁹ nor bring forth for trouble: for ⁴⁰ they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that ⁴¹ before they call, I will answer: and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The ⁴² wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: ⁴³ and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER LXVI.

1 The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity. 5 He will smite the humble with the marvellous judgement, whereas with the glorious beauty of the church. 15 God will reward judgments against the wicked. 18 The Gentiles shall have on holy church, 24 and see the damnation of the wicked.

THUS saith the Lord, ¹ The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the Lord: ² but to this man will I look, ³ even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and ⁴ trembleth at my word.

3 ⁵ He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man: he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he flout off a dog's neck: he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood: he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their ⁶ delusions, and will bring their fears upon them: ⁷ because when I called, none did answer: when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the Lord, ye that tremble at his word: Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the Lord be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the Lord that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth: before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the Lord: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the Lord shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the Lord plead with all flesh: and the slain of the Lord shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the Lord.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Put, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the Lord out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the Lord, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the Lord.

21 And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the Lord.

22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the Lord, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the Lord.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 The time, 3 and the calling of Jeremiah. 11 His prophetic vision of an almond rod, and a seething pot. 15 His heavy message against Judah. 17 God encourageth him with his promise of assistance.

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin:

2 To whom the word of the Lord came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.

7 ¶ But the Lord said unto me, Say not,

I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 I Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the Lord.

9 Then the Lord put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

10 ¶ See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

12 Then said the Lord unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the Lord came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot, and the face thereof is toward the north.

14 Then the Lord said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the Lord; and they shall come, and they shall "set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, "who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 ¶ Thou therefore ¶ gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: "be not dismayed at their faces, lest I 2 confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a defended city, and an iron pillar, and brassen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; ¶ b for I am with thee, saith the Lord, to deliver thee.

CHAPTER II.

1 God, having showed his former kindness, expostulateth with the Jews their causes revolt, 3 bound any example. 14 They are the causes of their own calamities. 20 The sins of Judah 31 Her confidence is rejected.

MOREOVER the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord; I remember "thee, the kindness of thy " youth, the love of thine espousals, b when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 ¶ Israel was holiness unto the Lord, and d the firstfruits of his increase: "all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the Lord.

4 Hear ye the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 ¶ Thus saith the Lord, f What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the Lord that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through "the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through 3 land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into 4 a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye f defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the Lord? and they that handle the "law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, "and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that "do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore ¶ I will yet plead with you, saith the Lord, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass ye over the isles of Chittim, and see: and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 ¶ Hath a nation changed their gods, which are "yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for "that which doth not profit.

12 ¶ Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the Lord.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the "fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 ¶ Is Israel "a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he 2 spoiled?

15 ¶ The young lions roared upon him, and 3 yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and b Tahapanes 4 have broken the crown of thy head.

17 ¶ Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, when 4 he led thee by the way?

18 And now what hast thou to do ¶ in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of § Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own ¶ wickedness shall correct thee, and thy back-bittings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

20 ¶ For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and b thou saidst, I will not 2 transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, c playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had ¶ planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into "the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou "wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet ¶ thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 ¶ How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim: see thy way ¶ in the valley, know what thou hast done: ¶ thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 ¶ 7 A wild ass 8 used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at 9 her pleasure; in her occasion who can ¶ turn her away: all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but ¶ thou saidst, § there is no hope: no; for I have loved "strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, 27 saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned 3 thine back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of thy "trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But ¶ where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy ¶ trouble: for "according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 ¶ Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the Lord.

30 In vain have I b smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath ¶ devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 ¶ O generation, see ye the word of the Lord. d Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, 7 ¶ We are lords; f we will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people ¶ have forgotten me days without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found ^a the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by ^b secret search, but upon all these.

35 ^c Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me. Behold, ^d I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 ^e Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? ^f thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, ^g as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and ^h thine hands upon thine head: for the Lord hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

CHAPTER III.

1 ⁱ God's great mercy in Judah's vile whoredom. 8 Judah is worse than Israel. 12 The promises of the gospel to the penitent. 20 Israel reprov'd, and called by God, maketh a solemn confession of their sins.

THEY say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, ^j shall he return unto her again? shall not that ^k land be greatly polluted? but thou hast ^l played the harlot with many lovers; ^m yet return again to me, saith the Lord.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto ⁿ the high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with. ^o In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; ^p and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the ^q showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hast a ^r whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art ^s the guide of my youth?

5 ^t Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest.

6 ^u The Lord said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which ^v backsliding Israel hath done? she is ^w gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 ^x And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous ^y sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when ^z for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had ^a put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; ^b yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the ^c lightness of her whoredom, that she ^d defiled the land, and committed adultery with ^e stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me ^f with her whole heart, but ^g feignedly, saith the Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto me, ^h The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 ⁱ Go and proclaim these words toward ^j the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the Lord; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am ^k merciful, saith the Lord, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13 ^l Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the Lord thy God, and hast ^m scattered thy ways to the 'strangers / under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the Lord.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the Lord; ⁿ for I am married unto you: and I will take you ^o one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you ^p pastors according to mine heart, which shall ^q feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the Lord, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the Lord: (neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall ^r that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the Lord; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, ^s to the name of the Lord, to Jerusalem: neither shall they ^t walk any more after the ^u imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days ^v the house of Judah shall walk ^w with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of ^x the north to ^y the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee ^z a pleasant land, ^a a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, ^b My father; and shalt not turn away ^c from me.

20 ^d Surely as a wife treacherously departed from her ^e husband, so ^f have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the Lord.

21 A voice was heard upon ^g the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the Lord their God.

22 ^h Return, ye backsliding children, and ⁱ I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the Lord our God.

23 ^j Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: ^k truly in the Lord our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 ^l Be ye ashamed hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth: their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: ^m for we have sinned against the Lord our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and ⁿ have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God.

CHAPTER IV.

1 ⁱ God telleth Israel by his promise. 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgments. 19 A grievous lamentation for the misery of Judah.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the Lord, ^j return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 ^k And thou shalt swear, The Lord liveth, ^l in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they ^m glory.

3 ⁿ For thus saith the Lord to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, ^o Break up your fallow ground, and ^p sow not among thorns.

4 ^q Circumcise yourselves to the Lord, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land : cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defended cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion : 2 re-fire, stay not : for I will bring evil from the 4 north, and a great 3 destruction.

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way ; he is gone forth from his place " to make thy land desolate ; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

8 For this ° gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl : for the fierce anger of the Lord is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the Lord, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes ; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God ! Surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace ;
whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, " A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse,

12 Even 4 a full wind from those places shall come unto me : now also ° will I 5 give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind :
his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us ! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, wash shine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved.
How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee ?

15 For a voice declareth y from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye mention to the nations ; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come z from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 " As keepers of a field, are they against her round about ; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the Lord.

18 b Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee ; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 c My bowels, my bowels ! I am pained at 6 my very heart ; my heart maketh a noise in me ; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 d Destruction upon destruction is cried ; for the whole land is spoiled : suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet ?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me ; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding : y they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 z I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void ; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 i I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the Lord, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the Lord said, The whole land shall be desolate ; y yet will I not make a full end.

28 For this " shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black : because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and ° will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen ; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks : every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do ? Though thou clovest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, p though thou rentest thy 2 face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair ; y thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that ° spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now ! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

CHAPTER V.

1 The judgments of God upon the Jews, for their perverseness, 7 for their audacity, 10 for their impiety, 19 for their contempt of God, 25 and for their great corruption in the civil state, 30 and ecclesiastical.

R UN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, ° if ye can find a man, b if there be any that execute judgment, that seeketh the truth ;
c and I will pardon it.

2 And d though they say, " The Lord liveth :
surely they f swear falsely.

3 O Lord, are not 2 thine eyes upon the truth : thou hast 4 stricken them, but they have not grieved : thou hast consumed them, but i they have refused to receive correction :
they have made their faces harder than a rock ; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor ; they are foolish : for k they know not the way of the Lord, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them ; for l they have known the way of the Lord, and the judgment of their God : but these have altogether
m broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore ° a lion out of the forest shall slay them, ° and a wolf of the 5 evenings shall spoil them, p a leopard shall watch over their cities : every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces : because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings 4 are increased.

7 q How shall I pardon thee for this ? thy children have forsaken me, and 9 sworn by them " that are no gods : ° when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 They were as fed horses in the morning : every one ° neighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 s Shall I not visit for these things ?
saith the Lord : y and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this ?

10 t Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy : ° but make not a full end : take away her battlements ; for they are not the Lord's.

11 For b the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the Lord.

12 c They have belied the Lord, and said, d It is not he ; neither shall evil come upon us ; ° neither shall we see sword nor famine :

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them : thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, f behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a g nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the Lord : it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine h harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat : they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds : they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees : they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the Lord, I k will not make a full end with you.

19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore doeth the Lord our God all these things unto us ? then shalt thou answer them. Like as ye have m forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so n shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not your's.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this. O o foolish people, and without 2 understanding : which have eyes, and see not : which have ears, and hear not : 22 P Fear ye not me : saith the Lord : will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the 3 bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it : and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they there not prevail ; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it :

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart ; they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the Lord our God, 7 that giveth rain, both the 4 former and the latter, in his season : the 8 reservoir unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 6 Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men : 7 they 2 say a trait, as he that setteth snares ; they 2 lay a trap, they catch men.

27 As a 4 cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit : therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen 9 fat, they shine : yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked : they judge not 2 the cause, the cause of the fatherless, 8 yet they prosper ; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 B Shall I not visit for these things ? saith the Lord : shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this ?

30 6 A wonderful and 8 horrible thing is committed in the land ;

31 The prophets prophesy 4 falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means ; and my people 4 love to have it so : and what will ye do in the end thereof ?

CHAPTER VI.

1 The enemies sent against Judah, & encourage themselves. 6 God setteth them on work because of their sins. 9 The people lamented the judgments of God, because of their sins. 15 He proclaimeth God's wrath. 20 He calleth the people to mourn for the judgment on their sins.

O YE children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in a Beth-haccerem : b for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a 2 comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her : c they shall pitch their tents against her round about ; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 d Prepare ye war against her, arise, and let us go 4 at noon. Woe unto us ! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 f For thus hath the Lord of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and 3 cast a mount against Jerusalem : this is the city to be visited : she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 f As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness : 3 violence and spoil is heard in her ; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest h my soul 4 depart from thee ; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 g Thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall thoroughly clean the remnant of Israel as a vine : turn back thine hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear ? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken : behold, 4 the word of the Lord is unto them a reproach ; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the Lord : 1 I am weary with holding in : I will pour it out 10 upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together : for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And 2 their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together : for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the Lord.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to 2 covetousness : and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have 1 healed also the 2 hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, 3 saying, Peace, peace : when there is no peace.

15 Were they 7 ashamed when they had committed abomination ? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush : therefore they shall fall among them that fall : at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the Lord.

16 Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the 2 old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set 4 watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 6 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 7 Hear, O earth : behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even 2 the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 2 To what purpose cometh there to me incense a from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country ? 2 your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 O daughter of my people, I gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: I make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire: the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the Lord hath rejected them.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance, to prevent the Jews' captivity. 8 He rejects their vain confidence, 12 by the example of Shiloh. 17 He threatens them for their idolatry. 21 He reproves the priests of the sanctuary. 29 He exhorteth to mourn for their abominations in Tophet, 32 and the judgments for the same.

THE word that came to Jeremiah the son of the Lord, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the Lord's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the Lord, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the Lord.

3 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the Lord.

12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the Lord, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore say not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee.

17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the Lord: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: I put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but I walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them:

26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the Lord their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places: for the Lord hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the Lord: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the ²high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to ³burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; ⁴which I commanded them not, neither ²came it into my heart.

32 ¶ Therefore, behold, ³the days come, saith the Lord, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter: ⁴for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the ³carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will I cause to ³cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for ⁴the land shall be desolate.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The calamity of the Jews, both dead and alive. 4 He reprovideth their foolish and shameless impenitency. 13 He sheweth their grievous judgment, 15 and bewailth their desperate estate.

AT that time, saith the Lord, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and ³whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, ⁴nor be buried; they shall be for ⁵dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And ⁴death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the Lord of hosts.

4 ¶ Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem ⁶slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? ⁷they hold fast deceit, ⁸they refuse to return.

6 ¶ I have hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

7 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and ⁸the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but ⁹my people know not the judgment of the Lord.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, ⁹and the law of the Lord is with us? Lo, certainly ¹⁰in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain.

9 ¶ The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and trust: lo, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and ¹¹what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore ¹²will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to ¹³covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one doeth falsely.

11 For they have ¹⁴healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

12 Were they ¹⁵ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush:

therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the Lord.

13 ¶ I will surely consume them, saith the Lord: there shall be no grapes ¹⁶on the vine, nor figs on the ¹⁷fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? ¹⁸assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defended cities, and let us be silent there: for the Lord our God hath put us to silence, and given us ¹⁹water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the Lord.

15 We ²⁰looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from ²¹Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his ²²strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and ²³all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be ²⁴charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the Lord.

18 ¶ If then I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint ²⁵in me.

19 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people ²⁶because of them that dwell in a far country: Is not the Lord in Zion? is not her king in her? Why have they ²⁷provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

21 ¶ For the hurt of the daughter of my people Am I hurt; I am ²⁸black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people ²⁹recovered?

CHAPTER IX.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the Jews for their manifold sins, 9 and for their judgment. 12 Dishevelled is the cause of their bitter calamity. 17 He exhorteth to mourn for their destruction, 23 and to trust not in themselves, but in God. 25 He threatneth both Jews and Gentiles.

OH ²that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men: that I might leave my people, and go from them: for ³they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And ⁴they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they ⁵know not me, saith the Lord.

4 ¶ Take ye heed every one of his ⁶neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will ⁷walk with slanders.

5 And they will ⁸deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit: through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the Lord.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, ⁹I will melt them, and try them; ¹⁰for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh ¹¹deceit: one speaketh ¹²peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but 9 ¶ Shall I not visit them for these things?

saith the Lord: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and 11 for the 4 habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are 5 burned up, so that none can pass through them: neither can any hear the voice of the cattle: 6 12 both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem 7 heaps, and 12 a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah 7 desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 ¶ Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the Lord hath spoken; that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the Lord saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have 15 walked after the 16 imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, 17 which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, 18 with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: 19 and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 ¶ Thus saith the Lord of hosts, consider ye, and call for 20 the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that 21 our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because 22 our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the Lord, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off 23 the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, thus saith the Lord, Even the carelessness of men shall fall 24 as dung upon the open field, and as the husband after the harvest, and none shall gather them.

23 ¶ Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But let him that is 25 rich glory in this,
that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: 26 for in these things I delight, saith the Lord.

25 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will 27 punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are 28 in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness; for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAPTER X.

1 The unequal comparison of God and idols. 17
The prophet rebuketh for 5 men the vanity to come. 18 He lamenteth the spoil of the tabernacle by Jewish pastors. 23 He maketh an humble application.

HEAR ye the word which the Lord
speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

2 Thus saith the Lord, ¶ Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain:
for 4 he cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the ax.

4 They deck it with silver and with gold;
they 5 fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm tree, 6 but speak not: they must needs be 7 barren, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them: for 8 they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

6 Forasmuch as 9 there is none 5 like unto thee, O Lord; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

7 ¶ Who would not fear thee, O King of nations: for 10 to thee doth is appertain:
forasmuch as 11 among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

8 But they are 12 altogether 4 brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and 13 gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing:
they are all 14 the work of cunning men.

10 But the Lord is the 15 true God, he is 16 the living God, and an 17 everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 ¶ Thus shall ye say unto them, ¶ The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even 18 they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

12 He 19 hath made the earth by his power, he hath 20 established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

13 ¶ When he uttereth his voice, there is 21 a multitude of waters in the heavens, and 22 he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings 23 with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

14 ¶ Every man is 24 brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the given image; for his molten image is foolish, and there is no breath in them.

15 They are vanity, and the work of error: in the time of their visitation 25 they shall perish.

16 ¶ The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the father of all things; and 26 Israel is the root of his inheritance: 27 The Lord of hosts is his name.

17 ¶ Gather up thy wares out of the land, O 28 inhabitant of the fortress.

18 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, 29 that they may find no rest.

19 ¶ ¶ Was is not for my hurt? my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and 30 I must bear it.

20 ¶ My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the Lord: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

24 O Lord, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

25 Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Jeremiah proclaimeth God's covenant, 8 rebuketh the Jews' disobeying thereof, 11 prophesieth evils to come upon them, 15 and upon the men of Anathoth, for conspiring to kill Jeremiah.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel: Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, by the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God:

5 That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O Lord.

6 Then the Lord said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the Lord said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble.

15 P^a What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou dost evil, then thou rejoicest.

16 The Lord call thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the Lord of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 And the Lord hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewest me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O Lord of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the Lord of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophesy not in the name of the Lord, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even at the year of their visitation.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jeremiah complaining of the wicked's prosperity, by faith with their ruin, 5 God rebuketh him of his brethren's treachery against him, 7 and admonisheth his heritage, 14 He promisieth to the penitent return from captivity.

RIGHTEOUS art thou, O Lord, when I plead with thee: yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: 2 Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

3 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O Lord, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, We shall not see our last end.

5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustest, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?

6 For even ^{thy} brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, ² they have called a multitude after thee: ³ believe them not, though they speak ⁴ fair words unto thee.

7 ¹ I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given ² the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it ³ bereith out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a ⁴ speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, ⁵ and come to devour.

10 Many ⁶ pastors have destroyed ⁷ my vineyard, they have ⁸ trodden my portion under foot, they have made my ⁹ pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate ¹⁰ it mourneth unto me; and the whole land is made desolate, because ¹¹ no man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the Lord shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 ¹ They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and ² they shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the Lord.

14 ¹ Thus saith the Lord against all mine evil neighbours, that ² touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will ³ pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 ⁴ And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, ⁵ to swear by my name. The Lord liveth: as they taught my people to swear by Baal: then shall they be ⁶ built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not ⁷ obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 In the type of a linen girdle, hidden at Euphrates, God prefigureth the destruction of his people. 12 Under the symbol of the bottle filled with wine he prefigureth their drunkenness in misery. 15 He exhorteth to prevent their future judgments. 22 He sheweth their abominations are the cause thereof.

THUS saith the Lord unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the Lord, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the Lord came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the Lord commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the Lord said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the Lord, After this manner ¹ will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which ² walk in the ³ imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the Lord: that ⁴ they might be unto me for a people, and ⁵ for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¹ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ² with drunkenness.

14 And ³ I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the Lord: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, ⁴ but destroy them.

15 ¹ Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the Lord hath spoken.

16 ² Give glory to the Lord your God, before he cause ³ a darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye ⁴ look for light, he turn it into ⁵ the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride: and ⁶ thine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the Lord's flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto ⁷ the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your ⁸ principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be winily carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them ¹ that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall ² punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: shall not ³ sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?

22 ⁴ And if thou say in thine heart, ⁵ Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are ⁶ thy skirts discovered, and thy heels ⁷ made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I scatter them ¹ as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 ² This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the Lord: because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore ³ will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy

CHAPTER XIV.

1 The grievous famine 7 caused Jeremiah to pray.
10 The Lord will not be intreated for the people.
13 Lying prophets are no excuse for them. 17
Jeremiah is moved to complain for them.

THE word of the Lord that came to Jeremiah concerning 3 the dearth.

2 Judah mourneth, and a the gates thereof languish; they are b black unto the ground;
and c the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water: they returned with their vessels empty; they were d dashed and confounded, f and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also cald in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And 7 the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 8 O Lord, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou 9 for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

8 h O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldst thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a way-faring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldst thou be as a man astonied, as a mighty man i that cannot save?
yet thou, O Lord, k art in the midst of us, and 4 we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 l Thus saith the Lord unto this people, 11 Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the Lord doth not accept them: m he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the Lord unto me, n "Pray not for this people for their good.

12 o When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and p when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them:
but q I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 r Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, the prophets say unto thee, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you s assured peace in this place.

14 Then the Lord said unto me, t "The prophets prophesy lies in my name: u I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, v yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land:
By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword;
w and they shall have none to bury them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17 x Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; y Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease:

z for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into a the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest z go about into a land that they know not.

19 b Hast thou utterly rejected Judah?
hath thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and c there is no healing for us? d we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

20 We acknowledge, O Lord, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for e we have sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: f remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 g Are there any among h the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? i art not thou he, O Lord our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The utter rejection and manifold judgments of the Jews. 10 Jeremiah, complaining of their spite, receiveth a promise for himself, 12 and a threatening for them. 15 He prayeth, 19 and receiveth a gracious promise.

THEN said the Lord unto me, a Though b Moses and c Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the Lord:
d Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword: and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will e appoint over them four kinds, saith the Lord: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and f the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 And 4 I will cause them to be g removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of h Manasseh the son of Hozekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For i who shall have pity upon thee,
O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee, or who shall go aside 5 to ask how thou doest?

6 k Thou hast forsaken me, saith the Lord, thou art l gone backward; therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and deof contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.

11 The Lord said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to treat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel?

13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the "spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

14 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies "into a land which thou knowest not: for a "fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

15 ¶ O Lord, "thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and "revenge me on my persecutors: take me not away in thy long-suffering: know that "for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did "eat them; and b thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for "I am called by thy name, O Lord God of hosts.

17 "I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my d pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me "as a liar, and f as waters that "fail?

19 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord, ¶ If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt "stand before me: and if thou "take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brazen "wall: and they shall fight against thee, but (they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the Lord.

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The prophet, under the types of abstaining from mourning, from buying of mourning, and from weeping, foretelleth the utter ruin of the Jews, so because they were worse than their fathers. 14 Their return from captivity shall be stronger than their deliverance out of Egypt. 19 God will doubly recompense their iniquity.

cir. 601.

THE word of the Lord came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the Lord concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begot them in this land:

4 They shall die of " grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried: but they shall be "as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine: and their "carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the Lord, "Enter not into the house of "mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the Lord, even lovingkindness and "mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor gout themselves, nor "make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men "bear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your ears, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, "Wherefore hath the Lord pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the Lord our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, "Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the Lord, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

12 And ye have done "worse than your fathers; for, behold, "ye walk every one after the "imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:

13 ¶ Therefore will I cast you out of this land "into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, the "days come, saith the Lord, that it shall no more be said, The Lord liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, The Lord liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and "I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

16 ¶ Behold, I will send for many "fishers, saith the Lord, and they shall fish them: and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

17 For mine "eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin "double; because "they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things.

19 O Lord, "my strength, and my fortress, and "my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things b wherein there is no profit.

20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and "they are no gods?

21 Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that "my name is "The Lord.

THE sin of Judah is written with a ^a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is ^b graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars; ^c Whilst their children remember their altars and their graves by the green trees upon the high hills.

3 O my mountain in the field, ^d I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

4 And thou, even ^e thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in ^f the land which thou knowest not: for I have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

5 ^g Thus saith the Lord; ^h Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh ⁱ flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord.

6 For he shall be ^j like the heath in the desert, and ^k shall not see when good cometh: but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, ^l in a salt land and not inhabited.

7 ^m Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is.

8 For he shall be ⁿ as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of ^o drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 ^p The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

10 I the Lord ^q search the heart, I try the reins, ^r even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 ^s As the partridge ^t sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, ^u shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be ^v a fool.

12 ^w A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O Lord, ^x the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be ^y written in the earth, because they have forsaken the Lord, the ^z fountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for ^a thou art my praise.

15 ^b Behold, they say unto me, ^c Where is the word of the Lord? let it come now.

16 As for me, ^d I have not hastened from being a pastor ^e to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

17 Be not a terror unto me: ^f thou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 ^g Let them be confounded that persecute me, but ^h let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and ⁱ destroy them with double destruction.

19 ^j Thus said the Lord unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And say unto them, ^k Hear ye the word of the Lord, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the Lord; ^l Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring ^m in by the gates of Jerusalem;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I ⁿ commanded your fathers.

23 ^o But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the Lord, bringing in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein;

25 ^p Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from ^q the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from ^r the plain, and from the mountains, and from ^s the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing ^t sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the Lord.

27 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then ^u will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Under the type of a potter is showed God's absolute power in disposing of nations. 11 Judgments threatened to Judah for her sinners. 15 Jeremiah preaches against his consociates.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel ^a that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he ^b made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, ^c cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the Lord. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 ^d At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it:

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, ^e I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 ^f Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: ^g return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, ^h There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord; ⁱ A Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be drunken?

15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up:

16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual ^{of} hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

17 I will scatter them ^{as} with an east wind before the enemy: I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah: for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O Lord, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall still be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore I deliver up their children to the famine, and I pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death: let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, Lord, thou knowest all their counsel against me: to slay me: I forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy book: but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

CHAPTER XIX.

Under the type of breaking a potter's vessel is shown the desolation of the Jews for their sins.

THUS saith the Lord, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests;

2 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee.

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the Lord, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.

4 Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents;

5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind:

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place: and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carcasses will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city a desolation, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and hiss because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitsness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

10 Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee.

11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts: Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the Lord, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled: Yes the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the Lord had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the Lord's house; and said to all the people.

15 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Pashur, making Jeremiah's mouth a new name, and a fearful doom. 2 Jeremiah's complaint of contempt, 10 of treachery, 14 and of his death.

NOW Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the Lord, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks, that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the Lord.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The Lord hath called thy name Pashur, but I will call thee Nethaniah.

4 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thou shalt be slain, and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and Samaiah shall come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, then, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies.

7 O Lord, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived: d thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: e I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, f I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the Lord was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

10 g For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. h All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

11 But i the Lord is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed: for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

12 But, O Lord of hosts, that o triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, p let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I opened my cause.

13 Sing unto the Lord, praise ye the Lord: for q he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

14 r Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which the Lord s overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide;

17 t Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

18 u Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to enquire the event of Nebuchadrezzar's war. 3 Jeremiah foretelleth a hard siege and miserable captivity. 8 He counselleth the people to fall to the Chaldeans, 11 and upbraideth the king's house.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the Lord, when king Zedekiah sent unto him a Pashur the son of Melchiah, and b Zephaniah the son of Maseiah the priest, saying,

2 c Enquire, I pray thee, of the Lord for us: for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the Lord will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

3 d Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the Lord God of Israel: Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and e I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight against you with an f outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the Lord, f I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; g he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8 h And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the Lord: Behold, i I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

9 He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and j his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For I have k set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the Lord: l m it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall n burn it with fire.

11 o And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the Lord;

12 O house of David, thus saith the Lord: p Execute judgment q in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, r I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the Lord: which say, s Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

14 But I will t punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the Lord: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and u it shall devour all things round about it.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threats. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and of Coniah.

THUS saith the Lord: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, a Hear the word of the Lord, O king of Judah, that sitest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the Lord: b Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and c do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, d then shall there enter in by the gates e of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, f I swear by myself, saith the Lord, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the Lord unto the king's house of Judah: Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down f thy choice cedars, g and cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, ^aWherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, ^bBecause they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 ^cWeep ye not for ^dthe dead, neither bemoan him: ^ebut weep sore for him ^fthat goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the Lord touching ^gShallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, ^hwhich went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ⁱWoe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong: ^jthat useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house and ^klarge chambers, and cutteth him out ^l3 windows; and it is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.

15 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest thyself in cedar? ^mDid not thy father eat and drink, and ⁿdo judgment and justice, and then ^oit was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the Lord.

17 ^pBut thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for ^qviolence, to do it.

18 Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah: ^rThey shall not lament for him, saying, ^sAh my brother! or, ^tAh sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

19 ^uHe shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 ^vGo up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy ^wprosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. ^xThis hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice.

22 The wind shall eat up all ^ythy pastors, and ^zthy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, ^athe pain as of a woman in travail!

24 ^bAs I live, saith the Lord, ^cthough Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah ^dwere the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

25 ^eAnd I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ^fAnd I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they ^gdesire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 ^hIs this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he ⁱa vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 ^jO earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the Lord.

30 Thus saith the Lord, Write ye this man ^kchildless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, ^lsitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 ^aHe prophesieth a restoration of the scattered flock, 5 ^bChrist shall rule and save them. 9 ^cAgainst false prophets, 33 and mockers of the true prophets.

WOE ^abe unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lord.

2 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: ^bbehold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the Lord.

3 And ^cI will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up ^dshepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord.

5 ^eBehold, ^fthe days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, ^gand shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 ^hIn his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel ⁱshall dwell safely: and ^jthis is his name whereby he shall be called, 2 THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, ^kthe days come, saith the Lord, that they shall no more say, The Lord liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The Lord liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, ^land from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 ^mMine heart within me is broken because of the prophets: ⁿall my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the Lord, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For ^othe land is full of adulterers: for ^pbecause of ^qswearing the land mourneth: ^rthe pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their ^scourse is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For ^tboth prophet and priest are profane; yea, ^uin my house have I found their wickedness, saith the Lord.

12 ^vWherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I ^wwill bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.

13 And I have seen ^xfoolry in the prophets of Samaria; ^ythey prophesied in Baal, and ^zcaused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem ^aan horrible thing: ^bthey commit adultery, and ^cwalk in lies: they ^dstrengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as ^eSodom, and the inhabitants thereof as ^fGomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them with ^gwormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ² profaneness gone forth into all the land.

7 Heb. will upon.

16 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: ^d they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The Lord hath said, ^e Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the ^f imagination of his own heart, ^f No evil shall come upon you.

18 For ^g who hath stood in the ^g counsel of the Lord, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a ^h whirlwind of the Lord is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The ⁱ anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: ⁱ in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had ^m stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have ⁿ turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the Lord, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any ^o hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the Lord. ^p Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the Lord.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall ^q this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, ^q they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, ^r as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet ^s that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the Lord.

29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the Lord; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, ^t I am against the prophets, saith the Lord, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the Lord, ^u that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the Lord, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by ^v their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the Lord.

33 ^w And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is ^w the burden of the Lord? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? ^w I will even forsake you, saith the Lord.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the Lord, I will even ^x punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother,

What hath the Lord answered? and, What hath the Lord spoken?

36 And the burden of the Lord shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the Lord of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the Lord answered thee? and, What hath the Lord spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the Lord; therefore thus saith the Lord: Because ye say this word, The burden of the Lord, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the Lord;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, ^x will utterly forget you, and ^y I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

40 And I will bring ^z an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Under the type of good and bad figs, 4 he foretells the restoration of them that were in captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the rest.

THE Lord shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the Lord, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive ^a Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, ^b 2 they were so bad.

3 Then said the Lord unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs: the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 ^c Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge ^d them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and ^e I will bring them again to this land: and ^e I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them ^f an heart to know me, that I am the Lord: and they shall be ^f my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return unto me ^f with their whole heart.

8 ^g And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the Lord, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and ^g them that dwell in the land of Egypt:

9 And I will deliver them ^h to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, ^h to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt ^h and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah ^a in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 ^b From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the Lord hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; ^c but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the Lord hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, ^d rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, ^e Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the Lord hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the Lord; that ye might ^f provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 ^g Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words,

9 Behold, I will send and take ^h all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ⁱ my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and ^j make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover I will take from them the ^k voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, (the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 ^l And it shall come to pass, ^m when 3 seventy years are accomplished, that I will ⁿ 4 punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the Lord, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, ^o and will make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 ^p For many nations ^q and great kings shall ^r 5 serve themselves of them also: ^s and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 ^t For thus saith the Lord God of Israel unto me; Take the ^u wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And ^v they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the Lord's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the Lord had sent me:

18 ^w To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them ^x a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and ^y a curse; as it is this day;

19 ^z Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people; ^{aa} 20 And all ^{ab} the mingled people, and all the kings of ^{ac} the land of Uz, ^{ad} and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azrah, and Ekron, and ^{ae} the remnant of Ashdod,

21 ^{af} Edom, and ^{ag} Moab, and the children of ^{ah} Ammon,

22 And all the kings of ^{ai} Tyrrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the ^{aj} isles which are beyond the ^{ak} sea, 23 ^{al} Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all ^{am} that are in the utmost corners.

24 And ^{an} all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the ^{ao} mingled people that dwell in the desert,

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of ^{ap} Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, 26 ^{aq} And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: ^{ar} and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; ^{as} Drink ye, and ^{at} be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For, lo, ^{au} I begin to bring evil on the city ^{av} which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for ^{aw} I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the Lord of hosts.

30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The Lord shall ^{ax} roar from on high, and utter his voice from ^{ay} his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon ^{az} his habitation; he shall give ^{ba} a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; ^{bb} for the Lord hath ^{bc} a controversy with the nations, ^{bd} he will plead with all flesh; he will give them ^{be} that are wicked to the sword, saith the Lord.

32 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and ^{bf} a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

33 ^{bg} And the slain of the Lord shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be ^{bh} lamented, ^{bi} neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

34 ^{bj} Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wail yourselves in the ^{bk} ashes, ye principal of the flock: for ^{bl} the days of your slaughter and of your dispositions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like ^{bm} a pleasant vessel.

35 And ^{bn} the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.

36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the Lord hath spoiled their pasture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down because of the fierce anger of the Lord.

38 He hath forsaken ^{bo} his covert, as the lion: for their land is ^{bp} desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Jeremiah by promises and threatenings exhorteth to repentance. 8 He is therefore apprehended, 19 and arraigned. 12 His apology. 16 He is quit in judgment, by the example of Micah, 20 and of Urijah, 24 and by the care of Ahikam.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiaikim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the Lord, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord; Stand in the court of the Lord's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the Lord's house, ³ all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; ⁴ diminish not a word:

3 ^d If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may ^e repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord; ^f If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, ^g whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like a Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the Lord.

8 ^h Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the Lord had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the Lord, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the Lord.

10 ⁱ When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the Lord, and sat down ^j in the entry of the new gate of the Lord's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, ^k This man is worthy to die; ^l for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 ^m Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The Lord sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now ⁿ amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the Lord your God; and the Lord will ^o repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, ^p I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the Lord hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 ^q When said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the Lord our God.

17 ^r Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 ^s P Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; ^t Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? ^u did he not fear the Lord, and besought ^v the Lord, and the Lord ^w repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? ^x Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the Lord, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiaikim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiaikim the king sent men into Egypt, ^y namely, Elfnath the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt.

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiaikim the king; and slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the ^z common people.

24 Nevertheless ^a the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesieth the subduing of the neighbour kings unto Nebuchadnezzar. 8 He exhorteth them to yield, and not to believe the false prophets. 12 The like he doeth to Zedekiah. 19 He foretelleth, the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon, and there continue until the day of visitation.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiaikim the son of Josiah ^b king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Thus ^c saith the Lord to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, ^d and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them ^e to say unto their masters, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 ^f I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and ^g have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 ^h And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and ⁱ the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 ^j And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, ^k until the very time of his land come: ^l and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels, and of Jeconiah. 5 Jeremiah, warning it to be true, sheweth that the most will declare who are true prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah deliver of an iron yoke, 15 and foretelleth Hananiah's death.

AND ^a it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the Lord, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 ¶ Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the Lord's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the Lord: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the Lord,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the Lord do so: the Lord perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the Lord's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 ¶ The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the Lord hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the Lord; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the Lord came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the Lord; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; A I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The Lord hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the Lord.

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon, to be sent there, 8 and not to believe the dreams of their prophets, 10 and that they shall return with grace after seventy years. 15 He foretelleth the destruction of the rest for their disobedience. 20 He sheweth the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah, two lying prophets. 24 Jeremiah writeth a letter against Jeremiah. 30 Jeremiah readeth his doom.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

2 (After that ^a Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the ^b eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;)

3 By the hand of Elashah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiyah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying,

4 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 ^b Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, ^c and pray unto the Lord for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 ^c For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, ^d deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 ^e For they prophesy ^f falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the Lord.

10 ^f For thus saith the Lord, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an ^g expected end.

12 Then shall ye ^h call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

13 And ⁱ ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me ^j with all your heart.

14 And ^k I will be found of you, saith the Lord: and I will turn away your captivity, and ^l I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the Lord: and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 ^m Because ye have said, The Lord hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 ⁿ Know that thus saith the Lord of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwell in this city: and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity:

17 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will send upon them the ^o sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like ^p vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and ^q will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, ^r to be ^s a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the Lord, which ^t I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the Lord.

20 ^u Hear ye therefore the word of the Lord, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Koldiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes:

22 ^v And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The Lord make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, ^w whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire:

23 Because ^x they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them: even I know, and am a witness, saith the Lord.

24 ^y For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, ^z and to Zephaniah the son of Maseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

25 The Lord hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be ^a officers in the house of the Lord, for every man that is ^b mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldst ^c put him in prison, and in the stocks.

26 Now therefore why hast thou not reprieved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you?

27 For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: ^d a build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

28 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

29 ^e Then came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah, saying,

30 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the Lord concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, ^f and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie:

31 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people: neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the Lord: ^g because he hath taught ^h rebellion against the Lord.

32 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people: neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the Lord: ⁱ because he hath taught ^j rebellion against the Lord.

that ^a I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the Lord: ^b and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

^c ¶ And these are the words that the Lord spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

^d For thus saith the Lord; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and of not of peace.

^e Ask ye now, and see whether ^f a man doth travel with child? ^g wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

^h ¶ Alas! for that day is great, ⁱ so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

^j For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

^k But they shall serve the Lord their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

^l ¶ Therefore ^m a fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the Lord; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

ⁿ ¶ For I am with thee, saith the Lord, to save thee: ^o though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee ^p in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

^q ¶ For thus saith the Lord, ^r Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

^s ¶ There is none to plead thy cause, ^t that thou mayest be bound up: ^u thou hast no healing medicines.

^v ¶ All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound ^w of an enemy, with the chastisement ^x of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; ^y because thy sins were increased.

^z ¶ Why ^a criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

^b ¶ Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

^c ¶ For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

^d ¶ Thus saith the Lord; Behold, ^e I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and I have mercy on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon her own ^f heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

^g ¶ And ^h out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: ⁱ and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

^j ¶ Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

^k ¶ And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will ^l cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the Lord.

^m ¶ And ye shall be ⁿ my people, and I will be your God.

^o ¶ Behold, ^p the whirlwind of the Lord goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall smite with pain upon the head of the wicked.

^q ¶ The fierce anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: ^r in the latter days ye shall consider it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The restoration of Israel. 19 The publication thereof. 15 Lament mourning is comforted. 18 Ephraim repenting is brought home again. 22 Christ is promised. 21 His care over the church. 31 His new command. 35 The stability, 38 and amplitude of the church.

^a ¶ At the same time, saith the Lord, ^b I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

^c ¶ Thus saith the Lord, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when ^d I went to cause him to rest.

^e ¶ The Lord hath appeared ^f of old unto me, saying, Yea, ^g I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore ^h with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

ⁱ ¶ Again ^j I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy ^k tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

^l ¶ Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall ^m eat them as common things.

ⁿ ¶ For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, ^o Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the Lord our God.

^p ¶ For thus saith the Lord; I sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O Lord, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

^q ¶ Behold, I will bring them ^r from the north country, and ^s gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

^t ¶ They shall come with weeping, and with ^u supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk ^v by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

^w ¶ Hear the word of the Lord, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel ^x will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

^y ¶ For the Lord hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him ^z from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

^a ¶ Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the Lord, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a ^b watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

^c ¶ Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, 14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the Lord.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord; ^a A voice was heard in ^b Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; ^c Ramah weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because ^d they were not.

16 Thus saith the Lord: Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the Lord; and ^d they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the Lord, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: ^a turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God.

19 Surely ^a after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: ^a therefore my bowels ^a are troubled for him; ^b I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: ^a set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¶ How long wilt thou ^a go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the Lord hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; ^a The Lord bless thee, O habitation of justice, and ^b mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and ^c in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul. 26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that ^a I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have ^a watched over them, ^a to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, ^a to build, and to plant, saith the Lord.

29 ^a In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 ^a But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ Behold, the ^a days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, 2 although I was an husband unto them, saith the Lord:

33 ^a But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, ^a I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; ^b and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for ^c they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for ^d I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the Lord, ^a which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth ^a the sea when the waves thereof roar; ^a The Lord of hosts is his name:

36 ^a If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the Lord, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the Lord; ^a If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the Lord.

38 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the city shall be built to the Lord ^a from the tower of Hanneel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And ^a the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Gath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, ^a unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, ^a shall be holy unto the Lord; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Jeremiah, being imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, 6 brought Hanneel ^a his wife, 13 Branch ^a maid preserve the evidences, ^a tokens of the people's return. 16 Jeremiah in his prayer complaineth to God, 26 God confirmeth the captivity for their sins, 36 and promitteth a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord ^a in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up ^a in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord, ^a Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah ^a shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be ^a until I visit him, saith the Lord: ^a though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanneel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth:

for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the Lord, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the Lord.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and I weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the Lord, saying,

17 Ah Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee:

18 Thou shevest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the Lord of hosts, is his name.

19 ¶ Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee a name, as at this day;

21 And hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them:

24 Behold the mountains, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; 2 for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the Lord.

31 For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger, and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face.

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning this city, wherof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely:

38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God:

39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them:

40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the Lord: Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And ^afields shall be bought in this land, ^fwhereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in ^gthe land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for ^hI will cause their captivity to return, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 God promiseth to the captivity a gracious return, 9 a joyful state, 12 a settled government, 15 Christ the Branch of righteousness, 17 a continuance of kingdom and priesthood, 20 and a stability of a blessed seed.

MOREOVER the word of the Lord came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet ^ashut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord the ^bmaker thereof, the Lord that formed it, to establish it; ^cthe Lord is his name;

3 ^dCall unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and ^emighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by ^fthe mounts, and by the sword;

5 ^gThey come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, ^hI will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And ⁱI will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, ^jas at the first.

8 And I will ^kcleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will ^lpardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ^mAnd it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall ⁿfear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the Lord; Again there shall be heard in this place, ^owhich ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast, 11 ^pThe voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, ^qPraise the Lord of hosts: for the Lord is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring ^rthe sacrifice of praise into the house of the Lord. For ^sI will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the Lord.

12 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; ^tAgain in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 ^uIn the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks ^vpass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the Lord.

14 ^wBehold, the days come, saith the Lord, that ^xI will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 ^yIn those days, and at that time, will I cause the ^zBranch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 ^aIn those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, ^bThe Lord our righteousness.

17 ^cFor thus saith the Lord; ^dDavid shall never ^ewant a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to ^foffer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 ^gAnd the word of the Lord came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the Lord; ^hIf ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 ⁱThen may also ^jmy covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 ^kAs ^lthe host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

23 Moreover the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, ^mThe two families which the Lord hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the Lord; If ⁿmy covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not ^oappointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 ^pThen will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for ^qI will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the captivity of Zedekiah and the city. 8 The princes and the people having despised their bondswomen, contrary to the covenant of God, ravish them, 12 Jeremiah for their disobedience, giveth them and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the Lord, ^awhen Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and ^ball the kingdoms of the earth ^cof his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, ^dI will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and ^ehe shall burn it with fire:

behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and ²he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the Lord, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the Lord of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword;

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with ^fthe burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, ^gso shall they burn odours for thee: and ^hthey will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the Lord.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, 7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for ⁱthese defended cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 ¶ This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the Lord, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim ^kliberty unto them;

9 ^lThat every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free: ^mthat none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But ⁿafterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

13 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 At the end of ^oseven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew. which ^p5 hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were ^qnow turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had ^rmade a covenant before me ⁹in the house ⁵which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned and ^spolluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had ^tset at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: ^u'behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the Lord, ^v'to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you ^w'to be ^u'removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when ^xthey cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of bodies that seek their life: and their ^ydead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, ^zwhich are gone up from you.

22 ^aBehold, I will command, saith the Lord, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, ^band take it, and burn it with fire: and ^cI will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 By the confidence of the Rechabites, 12 Jeremiah rebuketh the disobedience of the Jews. 18 God blameth the Rechabites for their defiance.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the Lord in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the ^aRechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the Lord, into one of ^bthe chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the Lord, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdahiah, a man of God, which ^cwas by the chamber of the princes, which ^dwas above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, ^ethe keeper of the 2 door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for ^fJonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; ^gthat ye may live many days in the land where ye ^hbe strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. Will ye not ⁱreceive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the Lord.

¹⁵ I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ¹⁶ Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

¹⁶ Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

¹⁷ Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

¹⁸ ¶ And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

¹⁹ Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; ²⁰ Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to ²¹ stand before me for ever.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

¹ Jeremiah counselleth Baruch to write his prophecy, and publicly to read it. ¹¹ The princes, having intelligence thereof by Michaiah, send Jehudi to fetch the roll, and read it. ¹⁴ They will Baruch to hide himself and Jeremiah. ²⁰ The king Jehoiakim, being certified thereof, heareth part of it, and burneth the roll. ²⁷ Jeremiah denounceth his judgment. ³² Baruch writeth a new copy.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

² Take thee ^a a roll of a book, and ^b write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against ^c all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of ^d Josiah, even unto this day.

³ ^e It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may ^f return every man from his evil way: that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

⁴ Then Jeremiah ^g called Baruch the son of Neriah; and ^h Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the Lord, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

⁵ And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the Lord:

⁶ Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the Lord in the ears of the people in the Lord's house upon ⁱ the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

⁸ And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the Lord in the Lord's house.

⁹ And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the Lord to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

¹¹ ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the Lord.

¹² Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zezekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

¹³ Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

¹⁴ Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

¹⁵ And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

¹⁶ Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

¹⁷ And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

¹⁸ Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

¹⁹ Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

²⁰ ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

²² Now the king sat in ^a the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

²³ And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

²⁴ Yet they were not afraid, nor ^b rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

²⁵ Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

²⁶ But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of

But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. 15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, ⁴ and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison. 16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into ¹ the dungeon, and into the ⁶ cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; 17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the Lord? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. 18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison? 19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? 20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: ⁷ let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. 21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah ⁸ into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, ⁹ until all the bread in the city were spent. 	1 The Egyptians having raised the siege of the Chaldeans, king Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to pray for the people. 6 Jeremiah prophesieth the Chaldeans' certain return and victory. 11 He is taken for a fugitive, beaten, and put in prison. 14 Jeremiah is delivered of the captivity. 15 Interceding for his liberty, he obtaineth some favour. AND king ² Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. 2 ⁶ But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the Lord, which he spake ⁴ by the prophet Jeremiah. 3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and ⁶ Zephaniah the son of Maseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the Lord our God for us. 4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison. 5 Then ⁴ Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: ⁶ and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem. 6 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 7 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel; Thou shalt say to the king of Judah, ⁷ that sent you unto me to enquire of me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. 8 ⁸ And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire. 9 Thus saith the Lord; Deceive not ⁵ yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart. 10 ⁴ For though ye had smitten the whole	1 Jeremiah, by a false suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Miziacah. ⁶ Jeremiah, by exit, obtains him some enlargement. 14 Upon secret conference he counselled the king by sending to save his life. 24 By the king's instructions he conceiveth the conference from the princes. THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and ⁶ Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and ⁶ Pashur the son of Malkiah, ⁶ heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying, 2 Thus saith the Lord, ⁸ He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live. 3 Thus saith the Lord, ⁶ This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it. 4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, ⁷ let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city,	7 Heb. let my supplication fall. 8 ch. 32. 2. 9 ch. 13. 23. 10 ch. 39. 9. 11 ch. 52. 6.

and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the 2 welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 ¶ Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and 4 he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men 5 with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained k in the court of the prison.

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the 6 third entry that is in the house of the Lord: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the Lord liveth, 7 that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly 8 go forth 9 unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to this king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and 10 thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they 11 mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the Lord, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the Lord hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, 2 Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and 4 thy children to the Chaldeans: and 7 thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and 5 thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, 6 I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return 4 to Jonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So 4 they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So 4 Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 Jerusalem is taken. 3 Zedekiah is made blind, and sent to Babylon. 8 The city ravaged, 9 the people captivated. 11 Nebuchadrezzar's charge for the good usage of Jeremiah. 15 God's promise to Ebed-melech.

IN the 41 year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nobo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rabmag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and dovertook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon to 6 Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he 5 gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover 7 he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him 6 with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

9 And Nebuzar-adan the 23 captain of the guard carried away captive unto Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying, 12 Take him, and 6 look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

14 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

15 ¶ Now the word of the Lord came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the Lord: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER XL.

1 Jeremiah, being set free by Nebuzar-adan, north to Gedaliah. 7 The dispersed Jews repair unto him. 13 Johanan revealing Ishmael's conspiracy to Gedaliah.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains of all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The Lord thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now the Lord hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the Lord, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now while he was not yet come back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, of whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 ¶ Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ¶ Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, sower ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 ¶ Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah.

14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah at Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAPTER XLI.

1 Ishmael, treacherously killing Gedaliah and others, purgeth away the residue to the river the Ammonites. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives, and maketh them to go into Egypt.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah: and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, ^c having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the Lord.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them. ² Weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain ⁵ because of Gedaliah, was it ^h which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, ⁷ even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, ⁹ whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to ^k the Ammonites.

11 ^l But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all ⁱ the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by ^k the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah east about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon:

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of ⁱ Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt.

18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, ^m whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 ^{Johanan desireth Jeremiah to enquire of God, promising obedience to his will. 7 Jeremiah answereth him of safety in Judah. 13 and destruction in Egypt. 19 He repoveth their hope, in requiring of the Lord that which they meant not.}

THEN all the captains of the forces, ^a and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, ² Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and ^b pray for us unto the Lord thy God, ^c even for all this remnant: (for we are left but ^c a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:)

3 That the Lord thy God may shew us ^d the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the Lord your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that ^e whatsoever thing the Lord shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will / keep nothing back from you.

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, ⁹ The Lord be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the Lord thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the Lord our God, to whom we send thee; ^k that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the Lord our God.

7 ^l And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the Lord came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then ⁱ will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I ^k repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid: be not afraid of him, saith the Lord: ^l for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And ^m I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

13 ⁿ But if ⁿ ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the Lord your God,

14 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

15 And now therefore hear the word of the Lord, ye remnant of Judah: Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: If ye ^o wholly set ^p your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 Johanan, decedating Jeremiah's prophecy, carried Jeremiah and others into Egypt. 3 Jeremiah prophesied by a type the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the Lord their God, for which the Lord their God had sent him to them, ¹ even all these words,

2 ² Then spake Azariah the son of Hosiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the Lord our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the Lord, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took ³ all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 ⁴ Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, ⁵ and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the Lord: thus came they ⁶ even to Tahpanhes.

8 ⁷ Then came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ⁸ my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 ⁹ And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver ⁹ such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the 2 images of 3 Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall be burn with fire.

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 Jeremiah expresses the desolation of Judah for their idolatry. 11 He prophesies their destruction, who commit idolatry in Egypt. 15 The obstinacy of the Jews. 20 Jeremiah threatens them for the same, 24 and for a sign prophesies the destruction of Egypt.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are ¹ a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went ² to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit ³ I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, (Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore ⁴ my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the Lord, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Wherefore commit ye ⁵ this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, ⁶ out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye ⁷ provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be ⁸ a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the 5 wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furnish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the Lord.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape: they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word that the Lord spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes; say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee: for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the Lord did drive them.

16 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, whose name is the Lord of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like y fattened bullocks: for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent: for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forests, saith the Lord, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded: she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saith; Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him:

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the Lord.

27 But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

28 Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the Lord: for I am with thee: for I will make a full end of all the nations which I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure: yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

CHAPTER XLVII.

The destruction of the Philistines.

THE word of the Lord that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

2 Thus saith the Lord; Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein: the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, and at the rumbling of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands:

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the Lord will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of a Captor.

5 Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut them?

6 O thou sword of the Lord, how long wilt it be ere thou be quiet? 3 put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7 How can it be quiet, seeing the Lord hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore? there hath he appointed it.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1 The judgment of Moab, 7 for their pride, 11 for their security, 14 for their carnal confidence, 28 and for their contempt of God and his people, 47 The restoration of Moab.

AGAINST Moab thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Woe unto Nebo! for it is spoiled: Kirjathaim is confounded and taken: 2 Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

3 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 ⁹ For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.6 ¹ A Flee, save your lives, and be like ³ the health in the wilderness.7 ¹ For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken; and ² Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together.8 ² And ³ the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the Lord hath spoken.9 ¹ Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away; for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.10 ¹ Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord ² deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.11 ¹ Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he ² hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste ³ remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of ² Chemosh, as the house of Israel ³ was ashamed of ⁴ Beth-el their confidence.14 ¹ How say ye, ² We are mighty and strong men for the war?15 ¹ Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and ² his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith ³ the King, whose name is the Lord of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him: and all ye that know his name, say, ² How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!18 ¹ Thou daughter that dost inhabit ² Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst: for ³ the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.19 ¹ O ² inhabitant of ³ Aroer, stand by the way, and cry; ask him that fteeth, and her that ecapeth, and say, What is done?20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: ² howl and cry; tell ye it in ³ Arnon, that Moab is spoiled.21 And judgment is come upon ² the plain country: upon Holon, and upon Jahaz, and upon Mephath,

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim, 23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon.

24 And upon ² Keriath, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.25 ¹ The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the Lord.26 ¹ Make ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the Lord: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.27 For ² was not Israel a derision unto thee? ³ was he found among thieves? for since thou spakst of him, thou ⁴ skippedst for joy.28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like ² the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.29 We have heard the ² pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogance, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.30 I know his wrath, saith the Lord; but it shall not be so; ² his lies shall not so effect it.31 Therefore ² will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.32 ¹ O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.33 And ² joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.34 ¹ From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elzeleh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, ² from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be ³ desolate.35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the Lord, ² him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.36 Therefore ² mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because ³ the riches that he hath gotten are perished.37 For ² every head shall be bald, and every beard ³ clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and ⁴ upon the loins sackcloth.38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like ² a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the Lord.39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the ² back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.40 For thus saith the Lord: Behold, ² he shall fly as an eagle, and shall ³ spread his wings over Moab.41 ¹ Keriath is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and ² the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.42 And Moab shall be destroyed ² from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the Lord.43 ¹ Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the Lord.44 He that fteeth from the fear shall fall into the pit: and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for ² I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but ² a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the ³ tumultuous ones.46 ¹ Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 The judgment of the Ammonites. 6 Their restoration. 7 The judgment of Edom, 23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam. 38 The restoration of Elam.

CONCERNING 3^a the Ammonites, thus saith the Lord; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth 4^a their king inherit 6^a Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in 7^a Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the Lord.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, 4^a gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for 5^a their king shall go into captivity, and his 6^a priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, 6^a thy flowing valley, O 7^a backsliding daughter: that trusted in her treasures, 8^a saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And 7^a afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the Lord.

7 ¶ Concerning Edom, thus saith the Lord of hosts; 8^a Is wisdom no more in Teman? 9^a Is counsel perished from the prudent? 10^a is their wisdom vanished?

8 ¶ Flee ye, 7^a turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of 9^a Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If 10^a grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleanings grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy 8^a till they have enough.

10 ¶ But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and 9^a he is not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the Lord; Behold, 13^a they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and 14^a art thou he that shalt altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For 14^a I have sworn by myself, saith the Lord, that 15^a Hazrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a 15^a rumour from the Lord, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terriblest hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: 17^a though thou shouldst make thy 18^a nest as high as the eagle, 19^a I will bring thee down from thence, saith the Lord.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: 20^a every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 21^a As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the Lord, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 22^a Behold, he shall come up like a lion from 23^a the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong; but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for 24^a who is like me? and who will 25^a appoint me the time? and 26^a who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 27^a Therefore hear the counsel of the Lord, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 28^a The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the 29^a Red sea.

22 Behold, 30^a he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bosrah; and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 ¶ Concerning Damascus, Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are 31^a fainthearted; 32^a there is sorrow 33^a on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: 34^a anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is 35^a the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 36^a Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the Lord of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a 37^a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 ¶ Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the Lord; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil 38^a the men of the east.

29 Their 39^a tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, 40^a Fear is on every side.

30 ¶ Flee, 41^a get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the Lord; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto 42^a the 7^a wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the Lord, which have neither gates nor bars, which 43^a dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will 44^a scatter into all winds 45^a them that are 46^a in the utmost corners: and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the Lord.

33 And Hazor 47^a shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: 48^a there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 35 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Behold, I will break ^a the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

36 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and I will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come.

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the Lord; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

38 And I will ^b set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the Lord.39 But it shall come to pass ^c in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER L.

1, 2, 35 The judgment of Babylon. 4, 17, 33 The redemption of Israel.

THE word that the Lord spake ^a against 1. Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans ^b by Jeremiah the prophet.2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and ^c set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, ^d Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; ^e her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.3 ^f For out of the north there cometh up ^g a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.4 ^h In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, the children of Israel shall come, ⁱ they and the children of Judah together, ^j going and weeping: they shall go, ^k and seek the Lord their God.5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the Lord in ^l a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.6 My people hath been ^m lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away ⁿ on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their ^o resting-place.7 All that found them have ^p devoured them: and ^q their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the Lord, ^r the habitation of justice, even the Lord, ^s the hope of their fathers.

8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

9 ^t For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall ^u set themselves in array against her: from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty ^v expert man; ^w none shall return in vain.10 And Chaldaea shall be a spoil: ^x all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the Lord.11 ^y Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown ^z fat ^a as the heifer at grass, and ^b y below as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bore you shall be ashamed:

behold, the hindmost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the Lord it shall not be inhabited, ^c but it shall be wholly desolate: ^d every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.14 ^e Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye ^f that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the Lord.15 Shout against her round about: she hath ^g given her hand: her foundations are fallen, ^h her walls are thrown down: for ⁱ it is the vengeance of the Lord: take vengeance upon her; ^j as she hath done, do unto her.16 Cut off the sewer from Babylon, and him that handleth the ^k sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword ^l they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.17 ^m Israel is ⁿ as scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first ^o the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this ^p Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 ^q And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.20 ^r In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, ^s the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and ^t there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them ^u whom I reserve.21 ^v Go up against the land ^w of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of ^x Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the Lord, and do ^y according to all that I have commanded thee.22 ^z A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.23 How is ^a the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, ^b and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the Lord.25 The Lord hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth ^c the weapons of his indignation: for this ^d is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.26 Come against her ^e from the utmost border, open her storehouses: ^f cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.27 Slay all her ^g bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of ^h their visitation.28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, ⁱ to declare in Zion the vengeance of the Lord our God, the vengeance of his temple.29 Call together the archers against Babylon: ^j all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: ^k recompense her according to her work: according to all that she hath done, do unto her: ^l for she hath been proud against the Lord, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the Lord.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And 3 the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 Thus saith the Lord of hosts: The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took their captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 Their Redeemer is strong: the Lord of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the Lord, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon every wise man.

36 A sword is upon the 45 liars; and they shall die: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be disarmed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever: neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the Lord: so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, and will not show mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: his strength took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and where a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 Therefore hear ye the counsel of the Lord, that he hath taken against Babylon, and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

CHAPTER LI.

1 The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel. 2 Jeremiah denounceth the book of this prophecy to Sennacherib, king of Assyria, in token of the perpetual sinking of his son.

THUS saith the Lord: Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them, that rise up against me, a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon 6 fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth his bow the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his bragging: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the Lord of hosts: though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 Fly out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the Lord's vengeance; she will render unto her a recompence.

7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the Lord's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The Lord hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the Lord our God.

11 Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: make the Lord hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the Lord, the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the Lord hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

14 The Lord of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with cattails: and they shall lift up a shout against thee.

15 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge: every founder is confirmed by the graven images: for his molten image is falsework, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the work of errors:

o Isai. 10. 5, 15. eh. 50. 23. 2 Or, in thee, or, by thee.	20 ¹ Thou art my battle ax and weapons of war: for ² with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; 21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider; 22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces ³ old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid; 23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.	38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall ² yeell as lions' whelps. 39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and ⁴ I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the Lord 40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats. 41 How is ⁵ Pshesbach taken! and how is ⁶ the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations! 42 ⁷ The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof. 43 ⁸ Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby. 44 ⁹ And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, ¹⁰ the wall of Babylon shall fall. 45 ¹¹ My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the Lord. 46 And ¹² bleat your heart faint, and ye fear ¹³ for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.	2 Or, shake them selves. o ver. 57.
p So 2 Chron. 36. 17.	24 ¹ And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the Lord. 25 Behold, I am against thee, ² O destroying mountain, saith the Lord, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, ³ and will make thee a burnt mountain. 26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; ⁴ but thou shalt be ⁵ desolate for ever, saith the Lord. 27 ⁶ Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, ⁷ prepare the nations against her, call together against her ⁸ the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Aschenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars. 28 Prepare against her the nations with ⁹ the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion. 29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the Lord shall be performed against Babylon, ¹⁰ to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant. 30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holds: they might hath failed; ¹¹ they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; ¹² her bars are broken. 31 ¹³ One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end , 32 And that ¹⁴ the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted. 33 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, ¹⁵ it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, ¹⁶ and the time of her harvest shall come. 34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath ¹⁷ devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out. 35 ¹⁸ The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the ¹⁹ inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.	41 How is ⁵ Pshesbach taken! and how is ⁶ the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations! 42 ⁷ The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof. 43 ⁸ Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby. 44 ⁹ And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, ¹⁰ the wall of Babylon shall fall. 45 ¹¹ My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the Lord. 46 And ¹² bleat your heart faint, and ye fear ¹³ for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. 47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that ¹⁴ I will ¹⁵ do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. 48 Then ¹⁶ the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: ¹⁷ for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the Lord. 49 ¹⁸ As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all ¹⁹ the earth. 50 ²⁰ Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the Lord afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. 51 ²¹ We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house. 52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, ²² that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan. 53 ²³ Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the Lord. 54 ²⁴ A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans: 55 Because the Lord hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered: 56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: ²⁵ for the Lord God of recompences shall surely requite.	p ch. 25. 26. q Isai. 13. 19. ch. 49. 25. 59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went 4 with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a 5 quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

62 Then shalt thou say, O Lord, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be 6 desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, 7 that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: 8 and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAPTER LII.

1 Zedekiah rebelled. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, and his own eyes put out. 12 Nebuzar-adan burneth and spoileth the city. 24 He carrieth away the captives. 31 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin.

ZEDEKIAH was 1 one and twenty years old when he 7 began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the Lord it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass in the 8 ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he 2 put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in 3 chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in 4 prison till the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, 7 which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, 9 came Nebuzar-adan, 5 6 captain of the guard, which 7 served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

13 And burned the house of the Lord, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 And Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen.

17 Also the 4 pillars of brass that were in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the Lord, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 The caldrons also, and the 8 shovels, and the snuffers, and the 9 bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basins, and the 2 firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the Lord: 25 the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the 2 pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a 4 fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and 6 all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.

24 And 7 the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, 9 and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the 5 door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that 6 were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the 7 principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land;

THE LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin. 12 She complaineth of her grief, 13 and confesseth God's judgment to be righteous.

HOW doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! ²How is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, ³and ⁴princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She ¹weepeth sore in the ²night, and her tears are on her cheeks: ³among all her lovers ⁴she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 ¹Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and ²because of great servitude: ³she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries ¹are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the Lord hath afflicted her ²for the multitude of her transgressions: her ³children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her ¹pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 ¹Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because ²they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she ¹remembereth not her last end: therefore she came down wonderfully: ²she had no comforter. O Lord, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon ¹all her ²pleasant things: for she hath seen that ³the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that ⁴they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, ²they seek bread;

they have given their pleasant things for meat ⁴to relieve the soul: see, O Lord, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 ¹Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see ²if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the Lord hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath ¹spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 ¹The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: ²the Lord hath trodden ³the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.

16 For these things I weep: ²mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because ³the comforter that should ⁴relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 ¹Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and ²there is none to comfort her: the Lord hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 ¹The Lord is ²righteous: for I have rebelled against his ³commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but ²they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, ³while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O Lord; for I am in distress: my ¹bowels are troubled: mine heart is turned within me: for I have grievously rebelled: ²abound the sword bereaveth, at home ³there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh: ²I there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring ³the day that thou hast ⁴called, and they shall be like unto me.

CHAPTER II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem.
20 He complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, ^a and cast down from heaven unto the earth ^b the beauty of Israel, and remembered not ^c his footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, ^d and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath ^e brought them down to the ground: ^f he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: ^g he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, ^h and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 ⁱ He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew ^j all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 ^k The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently ^m taken away his ⁿ tabernacle, ^o as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: ^p the Lord hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath ^q given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces: ^r they have made a noise in the house of the Lord, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The Lord hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: ^s he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from ^t destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and ^u broken her bars: ^v her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: ^w the law is no more; her ^x prophets also find no vision from the Lord.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion ^y sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have ^z cast up dust upon their heads: they have ^a girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 ^b Mine eyes do fail with tears, ^c my bowels are troubled, ^d my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because ^e the children and the sucklings ^f swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mother's bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? ^g what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy ^h prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not ⁱ discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 ^j All that pass ^k thy way clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call ^l The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 ^m All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, ⁿ We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, ^o we have seen it.

17 The Lord hath done that which he had ^p devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: ^q he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused ^r these things to be joyful over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, ^s cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches ^t pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, ^u that faint for hunger ^v in the top of every street.

20 ^w Behold, O Lord, and consider to whom thou hast done this. ^x Shall the women eat their fruit, and children ^y of a span long? ^z shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 ^a The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; ^b thou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day ^c my terrors round about, so that in the day of the Lord's anger none escaped nor remained: ^d those that I have swallowed and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

CHAPTER III.

1 The faithfulness and piety of the Jews. 22 For the memory of their sins, which they hope. 27 They acknowledge their sin. 30 They pray for deliverance. 34 and vengeance in their enemies.

I AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned: he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 ^a My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath ^b broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with sack and gravel.

6 ^c He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 ^d He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also ^e when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

10 ^f He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and ^g pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and ^h set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a ¹ derision to all my people; and their song all the day.15 ² He hath filled me with ² bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.16 He hath also broken my teeth ³ with gravel stones, he hath ³ covered me with ashes.17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot ⁴ prosperity.18 ⁵ And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the Lord:19 ⁶ Remembering mine affliction and my misery, ⁶ the wormwood and the gall.20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is ⁶ humbled in me.21 This I ⁷ recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.22 ⁸ ⁸ It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.23 They are new ⁹ every morning: great is thy faithfulness.24 The Lord ¹⁰ is my ¹⁰ portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.25 The Lord is good unto them that ¹¹ wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.26 It is good that a man should both hope ¹² and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.27 ¹³ It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.28 ¹⁴ He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.29 ¹⁵ He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope.30 ¹⁶ He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.31 ¹⁷ For the Lord will not cast off for ever:32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.33 For ¹⁸ he doth not afflict ¹⁸ willingly nor grieve the children of men.34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of ¹⁹ the most High,36 To subvert a man in his cause, ²⁰ the Lord ²⁰ approveth not.37 ²¹ Who is he ²¹ that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not ²² evil and good?39 ²³ Wherefore doth a living man ²³ complain, ²³ a man for the punishment of his sins?40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord.41 ²⁴ Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.42 ²⁵ We have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: ²⁶ thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, ²⁷ that our prayer should not pass through.45 Thou hast made us as the ²⁸ "offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.46 ²⁹ All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.47 ³⁰ Fear and a snare is come upon us, ³⁰ desolation and destruction.48 ³¹ Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.49 ³² Mine eye tricketh down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission,50 Till the Lord ³³ look down, and behold from heaven.51 Mine eye affecteth ³⁴ 2 mine heart ³⁴ 3 because of all the daughters of my city.52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, ³⁵ without cause.53 They have cut off my life ³⁶ in the dungeon, and ³⁶ cast a stone upon me.54 ³⁷ Waters flowed over mine head; then ³⁷ I said, I am cut off.55 ³⁸ ³⁸ I called upon thy name, O Lord, out of the low dungeon.56 ³⁹ Thou hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.57 Thou ⁴⁰ drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not.58 O Lord, thou hast ⁴¹ pleaded the causes of my soul; ⁴¹ thou hast redeemed my life.59 O Lord, thou hast seen my wrong:
⁴² judge thou my cause.60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their ⁴³ imaginations against me.61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O Lord, and all their imaginations against me;62 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.63 Behold their ⁴⁴ sitting down, and their rising up; ⁴⁴ I am their music.64 ⁴⁵ ⁴⁵ Render unto them a recompence, O Lord, according to the work of their hands.65 Give them ⁴⁶ sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.66 Persecute and destroy them in anger ⁴⁷ from under the ⁴⁷ heavens of the Lord.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Zion bewaileth her ⁴⁸ pitiful estate. 1 She com-pareth her sins. 2 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out ⁴⁹ in the top of every street.2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed ⁵⁰ as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!3 Even the 5 sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones:
the daughter of my people is become cruel, ⁵¹ like the ostriches in the wilderness.4 ⁵² The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet ⁵³ embrace dunghills.6 For the ⁵⁴ punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was ⁵⁵ overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:8 Their visage is ⁵⁶ blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger:
for these ⁵⁷ pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.10 ⁵⁸ The hands of the ⁵⁸ pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their ⁵⁹ meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 ¶ For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; for is 'unclean; depart, depart, touch not:
when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The anger of the Lord hath divided them: he will no more regard them: "they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.
18 ¶ They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are "swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, "was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 ¶ Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz;
"the cup also shall pass through unto thee:
thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 ¶ The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

CHAPTER V.

A pitiful complaint of Zion in prayer unto God.
"REMEMBER, O Lord, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach.

2 "Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money;
our wood is sold unto us.

5 Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and have no rest.

6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 Our fathers have sinned, and have not; and we have borne their iniquities.

8 "Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

9 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our skin was black like an oven because of the terrible famine.

11 They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

12 Princes are hanged up by their hand:
"the faces of elders were not honoured.

13 They took the young men "to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate,
the young men from their music.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

16 The crown is fallen from our head:
wee unto us, that we have sinned!

17 For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim.

18 Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

19 Thou, O Lord, "remainest for ever;
thy throne from generation to generation.

20 "Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us so long time?

we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

CHAPTER I.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chebar. 4 His vision of four cherubims, 15 of the four wheels,
& of the glory of God.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the 7 captives by the river of Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of "king Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 The word of the Lord came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi.
In the land of the Chaldeans by the river (Chebar; and "the hand of the Lord was there upon him.

4 ¶ And I looked, and behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire "enfolded itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 ¶ Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.

8 ¶ And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 ¶ Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went;
they went every one straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, "and the face of a lion, on the right side: "and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and ^v two covered their bodies.

12 And ^z they went every one straight forward: ^y whether the spirit was to go, they went; and ^z they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, ^a and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ^b ran and returned: ^c as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ^d Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold ^d one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 ^e The appearance of the wheels and their work was ^f like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: ^g and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their ^h rings were ^h full of eyes round about them four.

19 And ⁱ when the living creatures went, the wheels went ⁱ by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 ^k Whichever the spirit was to go, they went, thither ^k was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: ^l for the spirit ^l of the living creature was in the wheels.

21 ^m When those went, those went; and when those stood, they stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit ⁿ of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 ^o And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 ^p And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings. ^p Like the noise of great waters, as ^q the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that ^r was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ^s And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, ^s as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 ^t And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 ^u As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. ^v This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, ^w I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

CHAPTER II.

1 Ezekiel's commission. 6 His instruction. 8 The roll of his heavy prophecy.

AND he said unto me, Son of man, ^a stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And ^b the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: ^c they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 ^d For they are ^d impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 ^e And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet ^e shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ^f And thou, son of man, ^f be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though ^g rebriers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: ^h be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, ^h though they be a rebellious house.

7 ⁱ And thou shalt speak my words unto them, ⁱ whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are ^j most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee: Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and ^k eat that I give thee.

9 ^l And when I looked, behold, ^l an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, ^l a roll of a book was therein:

10 And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAPTER III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 3 God encourage him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God sheweth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest: ^a eat that roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it: and it was in my mouth ^b as honey for sweetness.

4 ^c And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people ^d of a strange speech, and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel:

6 Not to many people ^e of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand, ^f surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have bearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee: ^g for they will not hearken unto me: ^g for all the house of Israel are ^h impudent and hardhearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 ⁱ As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: ⁱ a fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them: Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then ^a the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit: but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

15 ^b Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life: the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 And the hand of the Lord was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of the Lord stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face.

24 Then ^c the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Under the type of a sign, I showed the time from the defilement of Jerusalem to the captivity. 2 By the provision of the siege is shown the hardness of the famine.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it: set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. ^a This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, behold, I will lay hands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and chiches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the Lord said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces: neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

CHAPTER V.

1 Under the type of hair, 5 is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem for their rebellion, 12 by famine, sword, and dispersion.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts.

4 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire: for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 Thus saith the Lord God; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee that which I will not have done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury, and in furious rebukes. I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread:

17 So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the Lord have spoken it.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The judgment of Israel for their idolatry. 8 A remnant shall be blessed. 11 The faithful are exhorted to lament their calamities.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

8 Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the Lord, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 Thus saith the Lord God; Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the Lord, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, upon all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

14 So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The final desolation of Israel. 16 The mournful repentance of them that escape. 20 The enemies depile the sanctuary because of the Israelites' abominations. 23 Under the type of a chain is shewed their miserable captivity.

MOREOVER the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of Israel; ^a And end, the end is come upon thee the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and ^b will judge thee according to thy ways, and will ^c recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And ^d mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity; but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: ^e and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God; An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it ^f watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: ^g the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the ^h sounding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly ⁱ pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: ^j and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And ^k mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; I will recompense ^l thee according to thy ways and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; ^m and ye shall know that I am the Lord that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come: ⁿ the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded.

11 ^o Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their ^p multitude, nor of any of 7 their's: ^q neither shall there be wailing for them.

12 ^r The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, ^s although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, ^t which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself ^u in 2 the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 ^v The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

16 ^w But ^x they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 All ^y hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall ^z be weak as water.

18 They shall also ^{aa} gird themselves with sackcloth, and ^{ab} horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be ^{ac} removed: their ^{ad} silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the Lord: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: ^{ae} because it is ^{af} the stumblingblock of their iniquity.

20 ^{ag} As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: ^{ah} but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I ^{ai} set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the ^{aj} robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 ^{ak} Make a chain: for ^{al} the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and ^{am} their holy places shall be defiled.

25 ^{an} Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 ^{ao} Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; ^{ap} then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and ^{aq} according to their deserts will I judge them; ^{ar} and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Ezekiel, in a vision of God at Jerusalem, ^{as} is shewed the image of jealousy. 7 the chambers of imagery, 13 the monuments for Tammuz, 15 the worshippers towards the sun. 18 God's wrath for their idolatry.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, ^{at} as I sat in mine house, and ^{au} the elders of Judah sat before me, that ^{av} the hand of the Lord God fell there upon me.

2 ^{aw} Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, ^{ax} as the colour of amber.

3 And he ^{ay} put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and ^{az} the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and ^{ba} brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; ^{bb} where ^{bc} was the seat of the image of jealousy, which ^{bd} provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I ^{be} saw in the plain.

5 ^{bf} Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? ^{bg} even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary: but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ^{bh} And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

B. C. 594.

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censor in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The Lord seeth us not; the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the Lord's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the Lord's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the Lord, ^m between the porch and the altar, ⁿ were about five and twenty men, ^o with their backs toward the temple of the Lord, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped ^p the sun toward the east.

17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have ^q filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine ^r eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they ^s cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

CHAPTER IX.

1 A vision, whereby ^t I showed the preservation of some, and the destruction of the rest. ^u God cannot be intrusted for them.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, ³ which lieth toward the north, and every man ⁴ a slaughter weapon in his hand; ⁵ and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn ⁶ by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar.

3 And ⁷ the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;

4 And the Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and ⁸ set ^a mark upon the foreheads of the men ⁹ that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 And to the others he said in ⁷ mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: ^b let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 Slay ^c utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women:

but ^d come not near any man upon whom ^e is the mark; and ^f begin at my sanctuary.

Then they began at the ancient men which ^g were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I ^k fell upon my face, and cried, and said, (Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?)

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and ^m the land is ⁿ full of blood, and the city full of ^o perverseness: for they say, ^p The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and ^q the Lord seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine ^r eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but ^s I will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which ^t had the inkhorn by his side, ^u reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

CHAPTER X.

1 The vision of the coals of fire, to be scattered over the city. ² The vision of the cherubims.

THEN I looked, and, behold, in the ^a firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 ^b And he spake unto the man clothed with wheels, even under the cherub, and fill ^c thine hand with ^d coals of fire from between the cherubims, and ^e scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 Then the glory of the Lord ^f went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and ^g the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the Lord's glory.

5 And the ^h sound of the cherubims' wings was heard ⁱ even to the outer court, as ^j the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub ^k stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

8 And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a ^l beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole ^m body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and ^hthe wheels, ^hwere full of eyes round about, ^heven the wheels that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, ^hit was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

14 ^o And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is ^pthe living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 ^q And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 ^r When they stood, ^rthese stood; and when they were lifted up, ^rthese lifted up themselves also: for the spirit ^sof the living creature was in them.

18 Then ^tthe glory of the Lord ^tdeparted from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.

19 And ^uthe cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the Lord's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

20 ^z This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel ^zby the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 ^y Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; ^yand the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And ^athe likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: ^athey went every one straight forward.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The presumption of the princes. 4 Their sin and judgment. 13 Ezekiel complaining, God sheweth him his purpose in saving a remnant, 21 and punishing the wicked. 22 The glory of God loveth the city. 24 Ezekiel is returned to the captivity.

MOREOVER the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto ^bthe east gate of the Lord's house, which looketh eastward; and behold ^cat the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city:

3 Which say, ^dIt is not ^dnear; let us build houses: ^dthis city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 ^e Therefore prophecy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 And ^fthe Spirit of the Lord fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the Lord; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, ^fevery one of them.

6 ^g Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; A Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and ^hI will execute judgments among you.

10 ⁱ Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in ⁱthe border of Israel; ⁱand ye shall know that I am the Lord.

11 ^j This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

12 And ^kye shall know that I am the Lord: ^kFor ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but ^khave done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ^l And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that ^lPelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then ^lI fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, ^meven thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the Lord: unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, ⁿyet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^oI will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and ^pthey shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 And ^qI will give them one heart, and I will put ^qa new spirit within you; and I will take ^qthe stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh:

20 ^r That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: ^rand they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But ^sas for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, ^sI will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God.

22 ^t Then did the cherubims ^tlift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And ^uthe glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city, and stood ^uupon the mountain ^uwhich is on the east side of the city.

24 ^v Afterwards ^vthe spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the Lord had shewed me.

THE word of the Lord also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of ^aa rebellious house, which ^ahave eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: ^cfor they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare these ²stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing; and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, ⁵as they that go forth into captivity.

5 ⁴Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: ^dfor I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I ⁵dugged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 ^eAnd in the morning came the word of the Lord unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, ^ethe rebellious house, said unto thee, ^fWhat dost thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; This ^gburden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, ^hI am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: ⁶if they shall remove and go into captivity.

12 And ^kthe prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and ^mI will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans: yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And ⁿ"I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands: and ^o"I will draw out the sword after them.

15 ^pAnd they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 ^qBut I will leave ^ra few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

17 ^rMoreover the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^reat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may ^sbe desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

21 ^tAnd the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, "The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?"

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel: but say unto them, ^uThe days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 ^uFor ^vthere shall be no more any ^vvain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 ^vFor I am the Lord: I will speak, and ^athe word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.

26 ^w¶ Again the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

27 ^bSon of man, behold, ^{they}of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is ^cfor many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 ^dTherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The reproof of lying prophets, 10 and their unpent-up winter. 17 Of prophesies and their pillows.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophecy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto ^athem that prophesy out of their own ^bhearts, Hear ye the word of the Lord:

3 Thus saith the Lord God: Woe unto the foolish prophets, that ⁵follow their own spirit, ⁴and have seen nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are ^clike the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye ^dhave not gone up into the ⁵gaps, neither ⁶made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord.

6 ^eThey have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith: and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made ^fothers to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the ⁷assembly of my people, ^fneither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, ^gneither shall they enter into the land of Israel; ^hand ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 ⁱBecause, even because they have seduced my people, saying, ⁱPeace; and there was no peace; and one built up ⁸a wall, and, lo, others ^kdaubed it with untempered mortar:

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: ^lthere shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be laid unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury: and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

17 Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against your pillows, where-with ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and by promising him life:

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 God answereth idolaters according to their own hearts. 8 They are exhorted to repent, for fear of judgments, by means of reduced prophets.

12 God's irrevocable sentence of justice. 15 of his own beasts, 17 of the sword, 19 and of pestilence. 22 A remnant shall be reserved for example of others.

THEN came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the Lord will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols;

5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Repent, and turn yourself from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the Lord will answer him by myself:

8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the Lord have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

12 The word of the Lord came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it:

14 I thought these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it; they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God.

15 If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

16 I thought these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it:

18 I thought these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and I pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

20 I thought Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

21 For thus saith the Lord God; How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

22 Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done without

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Under the similitude of a wretched infant is showed the natural state of Jerusalem. 8 God's extraordinary love towards her. 15 Her outrageous whoredom. 35 Her grievous judgment. 44 Her sin, matching her mother, and exceeding her sisters, Sodom and Samaria, collect for judgments. 60 Mercy is promised her in the end.

594.

AGAIN the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem: Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water, cut to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the lusting of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love: and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water: yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver: and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; and thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

15 But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them.

18 And tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord God.)

24 That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh: and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 But thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unstable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord

Gon, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 In that ² thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire:

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all whores: but ³ thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and ³ hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

35 ¶ Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the Lord:

36 Thus saith the Lord Gon: Because thy filthiness was poured out, thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by ⁷ the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

37 Behold, therefore ⁷ I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, ⁴ as ⁴ women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down ⁴ thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take ⁵ thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 ⁶ They shall also bring up a company against thee, ⁶ and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall ⁶ burn thine houses with fire, and ⁶ execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to ⁹ cease from playing the harlot, and thou shalt also cease to give hire any more.

42 So ⁷ will I make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because ⁷ thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore ⁷ I also will recompense thy way upon ⁷ thine head, saith the Lord Gon: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 ¶ Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that lotheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which lotheth their husbands and their children: ⁹ Your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and ² thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations:

but, ² as if that were a very little thing, ² thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord Gon, ² Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, ² fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were haughty, and ⁶ committed abomination before me: therefore ⁶ I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and ⁴ hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 ¶ When I shall bring again their captivity, ⁷ the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them:

54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art ² a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not ³ mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy ⁴ pride, 57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy ⁴ reproach of the daughters of ⁵ Syria, and all that are round about her, ⁶ the daughters of the Philistines, which ⁶ despise thee round about.

58 ⁴ And thou hast ⁷ borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the Lord.

59 For thus saith the Lord Gon: I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast ⁷ despised ⁷ the oath in breaking the covenant.

60 ¶ Nevertheless I will ⁷ remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee ⁹ an everlasting covenant.

61 Then ⁷ thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for ⁹ daughters, ⁷ but not by thy covenant.

62 ⁴ And I will establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt ⁷ know that I am the Lord.

63 That thou mayest ⁷ remember, and be confounded, ⁷ and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord Gon.

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^a A great eagle with great wings, longwinded, full of feathers, which had - divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and ^b took the highest branch of the cedar:

⁴ He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

⁵ He took also of the seed of the land, and ⁶ planted it in ^c a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it ^d as a willow tree.

⁶ And it grew, and became a spreading vine ^e of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

¹⁰ Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? ^h shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it: it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

¹¹ ⁱ Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

¹² Say now to ^j the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? ^k tell them, Behold, ^l the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

¹³ And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, ^m and hath ⁿ taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

¹⁴ That the king might be ^o base, that it might not lift itself up, ^p but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

¹⁶ ^t As I live, saith the Lord God, surely ^u in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, ^v even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

¹⁷ Neither shall Pharaoh with ^w his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

¹⁹ Therefore thus saith the Lord God: ^y As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

²⁰ And I will ^z spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and ^a I will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me.

²¹ And ^b all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward all winds: and ye shall know that I the Lord have spoken it.

²² ^c Thus saith the Lord God; I will also take of the highest ^d branch of the high cedar, and will set it; ^e I will crop off from the top of his young twigs ^f a tender one, and will ^g plant it upon an high mountain and eminent:

²⁴ And all the trees of the field shall know that I the Lord ^j have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: ^k I the Lord have spoken and have done it.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 God reproveth the sin, and parable of sour grapes.
5 He sheweth how he dealt with a just father:
10 with a wicked son of a just father: 14 with a just son of a wicked father: 18 with a wicked man reprobate: 24 with a just man reprobate.
25 He denieth his justice, 31 and exhorteth to repentance.

THE word of the Lord came unto me again, saying,

² What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

³ As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

⁴ Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: ⁵ the soul that sinneth, it shall die.

⁶ But if a man be just, and do ⁶ that which is lawful and right,

⁷ And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to a menstruous woman,

⁸ And hath not ⁸ oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his ⁹ pledge, given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

⁹ He that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, ¹⁰ hath executed true judgment between man and man.

¹¹ Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely ¹¹ live, saith the Lord God.

¹² If he beget a son that is a scolder, ¹³ a shedder of blood, and ¹⁴ that doeth like unto ¹⁵ any one of these things,

¹⁶ And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

¹⁷ Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath ¹⁸ committed abomination.

¹⁹ Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; ²⁰ his blood shall be upon him.

²¹ Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

²² That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, 2 hath not withhelden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes: he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. (The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: "the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 ¶ Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 ¶ But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? ¶ All his righteousnesses that he hath done shall not be mentioned; in his trespass that he hath transgressed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 ¶ When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them: for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness, that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 ¶ Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 ¶ Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God, allegant, and turn you yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ Turn away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed: and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn you yourselves, and live ye.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 A lamentation for the princes of Israel, under the similitude of lions which taken in a pit, being for Jerusalem, under the similitude of a wooded vine.

MORFOVER take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,

2 And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey: he devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.

7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities: and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

10 ¶ Thy mother is like a vine in the blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.

11 And she had strong rods for the scepters of them that bore rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered: the fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

14 And fire is come out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a scepter to rule. ¶ This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

CHAPTER XX.

1 God refused to be consulted by the elders of Israel. ¶ He showed the story of their wanderings in Egypt, from the beginning to the end of the land. ¶ He promised to gather them to the land. ¶ He showed the names of the princes of the tribes, and the destruction of Jerusalem.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the first month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the Lord, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the Lord unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Are ye come to enquire of me? ¶ As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be enquired of by you.

4 With them shall I judge them, say of men, with them judge them: ¶ I will cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:

B. C. 593.	5 ¶ And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when I chose Israel, and I lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the Lord your God;	upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.	B. C. 593.
Ex. 6. 7.	6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands:	22 Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.	Ps. 78. 38.
Deut. 7. 6.	7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.	23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;	ver. 17.
2 Or. swore : and so ver. 6. &c. Ex. 6. 8.	8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.	24 Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.	ver. 9, 14.
f Ex. 3. 8.	9 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.	25 Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live;	Lev. 26. 33.
& 4. 31.	10 ¶ Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.	26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the Lord.	Deut. 28. 64.
Deut. 4. 34.	11 ¶ And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them.	27 ¶ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.	Ps. 103. 27.
g Ex. 20. 2.	12 Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them.	28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings.	Jer. 15. 4.
Ex. 3. 8, 7, 8.	13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.	29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place wherunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day.	o ver. 13, 16.
9 Jer. 32. 22.	14 ¶ But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.	30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?	p See ch. 6. 9.
Ps. 48. 2.	15 Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;	31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be enquired of by you.	q See Ps. 81.
Ps. 48. 2.	16 ¶ Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.	32 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.	12. ver. 39.
Ps. 48. 2.	17 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.	33 ¶ As I live, saith the Lord God, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you:	Rom. 1. 24.
Ps. 48. 2.	18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols:	34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out.	2 Thess. 2. 11.
Ps. 48. 2.	19 I am the Lord your God; I walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;	35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.	r 2 Kin. 17. 17.
Ps. 48. 2.	20 And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the Lord your God.	36 ¶ Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.	21. 6.
Ps. 48. 2.	21 Notwithstanding the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury	37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:	2 Chr. 28. 3.
Ps. 48. 2.		38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.	Jer. 32. 35.

the Lord God; ¹Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: ²but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

³For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there ⁴will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the ⁵first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

⁶I will accept you with your ⁷sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered: and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

⁸And ye shall know that I am the Lord, ⁹when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

¹⁰And ¹¹there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ¹²ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.

¹³And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have wrought with you ¹⁴for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

¹⁵Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

¹⁶Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

¹⁷And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the Lord; Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ¹⁸I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour ¹⁹every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces ²⁰from the south to the north shall be burned therein.

²¹And all flesh shall see that I the Lord have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

²²Then said I, Ah Lord God! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

CHAPTER XXI.

¹Ezekiel prophesied against Jerusalem with a sign of dying. ²The sharp and bright sword, ³is against Jerusalem, ⁴is against the kingdom, ⁵is against the church, ⁶is against the Antichrist.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

²Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and ³drop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel.

⁴And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee ⁵the righteous and the wicked.

⁶Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh ⁷from the south to the north:

⁸That all flesh may know that I the Lord have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it ⁹shall not return any more.

¹⁰Right therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

¹¹And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh:

and every heart shall melt, and ²all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees ³shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God.

⁴Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

⁵Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and is furnished:

⁶It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furnished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? ⁷It condemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

⁸And he hath given it to be furnished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furnished, to give it into the hand of ⁹the slayer.

¹⁰Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: ¹¹terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: ¹²smite therefore upon thy thigh.

¹³Because it is ¹⁴a trial, and what if the sword condemn even the rod: ¹⁵it shall be no more, saith the Lord God.

¹⁶Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and ¹⁷smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their ¹⁸privy chambers.

¹⁹I have set the ²⁰point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! ²¹it is made bright, it is ²²wrapped up for the slaughter.

²³Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, ²⁴or on the left, whither-soever thy face is set.

²⁵I will also ²⁶smite mine hands together, and ²⁷I will cause my fury to rest: ²⁸I the Lord have said it.

²⁹The word of the Lord came unto me again, saying,

³⁰Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

³¹Appoint a way, that the sword may come to ³²Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defended.

³³For the king of Babylon stood at the ³⁴parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his ³⁵arrows bright, he consulted with ³⁶images, he looked in the liver.

³⁷At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint ³⁸5 captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to ³⁹lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint ⁴⁰cattering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

⁴¹And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, ⁴²to them that ⁴³have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

⁴⁴Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear: because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

⁴⁵And thou, ⁴⁶profane wicked prince of Israel, a worse day is come, when iniquity shall have an end.

⁴⁷Thus saith the Lord God; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this

CHAPTER XXII.

1 A catalogue of sins in Jerusalem. 13 God will burn them as dross in his furnace. 23 The general corruption of prophets, priests, princes, and people.

MOREOVER the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, ^a wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge ^b the bloody city? yea, thou shalt ^c shew her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast ^d shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: ^e therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed.

6 Behold, ^f the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their ^g power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they ^h set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they ⁱ dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast ^k despised mine holy things, and hast ^l profaned my sabbaths.

9 In thee are ^m 34 men that carry tales to shed blood: ⁿ and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.

10 In thee have they ^o discovered their fathers' nakedness; in thee have they humbled her that was ^p set apart for pollution.

11 And ^q one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and ^r another ^s hath lawfully defiled his daughter in law: and another in thee hath humbled his ^t sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee ^u have they taken gifts to shed blood: ^v thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and ^w hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

13 ¶ Behold, therefore I have ^x smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 ^y Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? ^z I the Lord have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And ^a I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and ^b will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou ^c shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and ^d thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

17 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^e the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the ^f dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 ^g As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and ^h blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the Lord have ⁱ poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 ^f There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they ^g have devoured souls; ^h they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 ⁱ Her priests have ^j violated my law, and have ^k profaned mine holy things: they have put no ^l difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed ^m difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her ⁿ princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And ^o her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, ^p seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the Lord hath not spoken.

29 ^q The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have ^r oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30 ¶ And I sought for a man among them, that should ^s make up the hedge, and ^t stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

31 Therefore have I ^u poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: ^v their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah. 22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers. 36 The prophet reproveth the adulteries of them both, and sheweth their judgments.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were ^atwo women, the daughters of one mother:

3 And ^bthey committed whoredoms in Egypt: they committed whoredoms in ^ctheir youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and ^dthey were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is ^eAholah, and Jerusalem ^fAholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on ^gthe Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she ^hcommitted her whoredoms with them, with all them that were ⁱthe chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the ^jAssyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These ^kI discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became ^l6 famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And ^mwhen her sister Aholibah saw this, ⁿshe was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms ^omore than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the ^pAssyrians her neighbours, ^qcaptains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way.

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 ^rAnd ^sas soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the ^tBabylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and ^uher mind was ^valienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then ^wmy mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, ^xwherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, ^ywhose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 ^zTherefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God; ^aBehold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, ^bPekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: ^call of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 ^dThey shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy 2 fair jewels.

27 Thus ^eI will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and ^fthy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them ^gwhom thou hatest, into the hand of them ^hfrom whom thy mind is alienated:

29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and ⁱshall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast ^jdone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her ^kcup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord God; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt ^leven drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou ^mhast forgotten me, and ⁿcast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ^oThe Lord said moreover unto me; Son of man, wilt thou ^pjudge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, I declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and ^qblood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, ^rwhom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and ^shave profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, I thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst thy eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabaeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood: because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord God; I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled. 47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Under the parable of a boiling pot, 6 is showed the irreparable destruction of Jerusalem. 15 By the sign of Ezekiel not mourning for the death of his wife, 18 is showed the calamity of the Jews to be beyond all sorrow.

AGAIN in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; y she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust.

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 ¶ The Lord have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back. neither will I spare, neither will I repent: according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Also the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shalt thy tears run down.

17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19 ¶ And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth: and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do: and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, 26 That he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

27 ¶ In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, ^a set thy face ^b against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them:
3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord God: Thus saith the Lord God: ^c Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;

4 Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the ^d men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make ^e Rabbah ^f a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching place for flocks: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

6 For thus saith the Lord God: Because thou ^g hast clapped ^h thine ⁱ hands, and stamped with the ^j feet, and ^k rejoiced in ^l heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore I will ^m stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for ⁿ a spoil to the heathen: and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

8 ^o Thus saith the Lord God: Because that ^p Meab and ^q Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the ^r side of Moab from the cities, from his cities ^s which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-neon, and Kirithaim.

12 ^w Thus saith the Lord God: ^x Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah ^y by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them;

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman: and 2 they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And ^z I will lay my vengeance upon Idom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Tyrus, for insulting against Jerusalem, is threatened. 7 The power of Nebuchadnezzar against her. 15 The mourning and astonishment of the sea at her fall.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^a because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, ^b Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people: she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste;

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and ^c make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets ^d in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God: and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; ^e and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 ^f Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall ^g make a fort against thee, and ^h cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, ⁱ as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy ^j thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the water.

13 ^k And I will cause the noise of ^l thy songs to cease: and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

14 And ^m I will make thee like the top of a rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon: thou shalt be built no more: for I the Lord have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

15 ⁿ Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrus: Shall not the isles ^o shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all the ^p princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their bordered garments: they shall clothe themselves with ^q trembling: they shall sit upon the ground, and ^r shall tremble at every moment, and ^s be astonished at thee.

17 And they shall take up a ^t lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited 2 of seafaring men, the renowned city, which wast ³ strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it!

18 Now shall ⁴ the isles tremble in the day of thy fall: yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord God: When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited: when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee;

20 When I shall bring thee down ⁵ with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory ⁶ in the land of the living;

21 ⁷ I will make thee ⁸ a terror, and thou shalt be no more: ⁹ though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 The rich supply of Tyrus. 26 The great and unrecoverable fall thereof.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, ³ take up a lamentation for Tyrus;

3 And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art ⁴ a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord God: O Tyrus, thou hast said, ⁵ I am ⁶ a of perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the ⁷ midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty.

5 They have ⁸ made all thy ship boards of fir trees of ⁹ Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.

6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; ⁷ the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of ⁸ the isles of Chittim.

7 Fine linen with broidered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; ⁹ blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of ¹⁰ Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy ¹¹ calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

10 They of Persia and of Lud and of ¹² Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made ¹³ thy beauty perfect.

12 ¹⁴ Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 ¹⁵ Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded ¹⁶ the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy ¹⁷ market.

14 They of the house of ¹⁸ Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules.

15 The men of ¹⁹ Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.

16 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of ²⁰ the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and ²¹ agate.

17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market ²² wheat of ²³ Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and ²⁴ balm.

18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 Dan also and Javan ²⁵ going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 ²⁶ Dedan was thy merchant in ²⁷ 6 precious clothes for chariots.

21 Arabia, and all the princes of ²⁸ Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of ²⁹ Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 ³⁰ Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of ³¹ Sheba, Ashur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in ³² 8 all sorts of things, in blue ³³ 9 clothes, and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

25 ³⁴ The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious ³⁵ in the midst of the seas.

26 ³⁶ Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: ³⁷ the east wind hath broken thee in the ³⁸ 2 midst of the seas.

27 Thy ³⁹ riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, ⁴⁰ and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the ⁴¹ 4 midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

28 The ⁴² 5 suburbs ⁴³ shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And ⁴⁴ all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall ⁴⁵ cast up dust upon their heads, they ⁴⁶ shall wallow themselves in the ashes:

31 And they shall ⁴⁷ make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter weeping.

32 And in their weeping they shall ⁴⁸ take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, ⁴⁹ What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 ⁵⁰ When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledest many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

34 In the time when ⁵¹ thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters ⁵² thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.

35 ⁵³ All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people ⁵⁴ shall hiss at thee; ⁵⁵ thou shalt be ⁵⁶ a terror, and ⁵⁷ never shalt be any more.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrus for his sacrilegious pride. 11 A lamentation of his great glory corrupted by sin. 20 The judgment of Zidon. 24 The restoration of Israel.

The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God; Because thine heart is lifted up, and ^a thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, ^b in the midst of the seas; ^c yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

3 Behold, ^d thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 ^e By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, ^f the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet ^g say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that ^h slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of ⁱ the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 ^j Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, ^k take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God; ^l Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in ^m Eden the garden of God; every precious stone ⁿ was thy covering, the ^o sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the ^p beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the ^q emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of ^r thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed ^s cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon ^t the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God; and I will destroy thee, ^u thou covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 ^v Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: ^w thou shalt be ^x a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 ^y Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, ^z set thy face ^a against Zidon, and prophesy against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^b Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon: and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and ^c they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be ^d sanctified in her.

23 ^e For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

24 ^f And there shall be no more ^g a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God; When I shall have ^h gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be ⁱ sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

26 And they shall ^j dwell ^k safely therein, and shall ^l build houses, and ^m plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that ⁿ despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the Lord their God.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 The judgment of Pharaoh for his treachery to Israel. 8 The desolation of Egypt. 13 The restoration thereof after forty years. 17 Egypt the reward of Nebuchadnezzar. 21 Israel shall be restored.

IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^a set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and ^b against all Egypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^c Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great ^d dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, ^e which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But ^f I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee ^g thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the ^h open fields; ⁱ thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: ^j I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the Lord, because they have been ^k a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 ^l When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all thy shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 ^m Therefore thus saith the Lord God;

Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the Lord: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, ¹ and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, ² from the tower of ³ Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 ⁴ No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 ⁵ And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 ⁶ Yet thus saith the Lord God; At the ⁷ end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a ⁸ base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more ⁹ the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 ¹⁰ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, ¹ Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon: and he shall take her multitude, and ² take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt ³ for his labour wherewith he ⁴ served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God.

21 ⁵ In that day ⁶ will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee ⁷ the opening of the month in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 The desolation of Egypt and her helpers. 20 The arm of Babylon shall be strengthened to break the arm of Egypt.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; ¹ Howl ye, Woe worth the day!

3 For ² the day is near, even the day of the Lord is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great ³ pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they ⁴ shall take away her multitude, and ⁵ her foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ethiopia, and 2 Libya, and Lydia, and ⁶ all the mingled people, and Chub, and the 5 men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the Lord; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: ⁷ from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.

7 ⁸ And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be ⁹ destroyed.

9 In that day ¹ shall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord God; ² I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him, ³ the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And ⁴ I will make the rivers ⁵ dry, and ⁶ sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and ⁷ all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the Lord have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; I will also ⁸ destroy the idols and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph: ⁹ and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: ¹⁰ and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make ¹ Pathros desolate, and will set fire in ² Zoan, and will execute judgments in No.

15 And I will pour my fury upon ³ Sin, the strength of Egypt; and ⁴ I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will ⁵ set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of ⁶ Aven and of ⁷ Pibeseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 ⁸ At Tehaphenes also the day shall be ⁹ darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt; and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

20 ¹ And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have ² broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, ³ it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will ⁴ break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 A relation unto Pharaoh, 3 of the glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride. 18 The like destruction of Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; ° Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 ¶ Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon ° with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 ° The waters 3 made him great, the deep 4 set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her 3 little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore 4 his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, 6 when he shot forth.

6 All the ° fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches dwelt all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the 3 garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like his branches: nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because thou hast lifted up thyself in pride, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and 3 his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; 7 he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, 4 the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land: and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 ¶ Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water:

for they are all delivered unto death, ° to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God: In the day when he went down to the grave I caused mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon 2 to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to ° shake at the sound of his fall, when I ° cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and I pall the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, 3 shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that 3 dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 ¶ To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: 4 thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 A lamentation for the beautiful fall of Egypt. 11 The sword of Babylon shall destroy it. 17 It shall be brought down to hell, among all the uncircumcised nations.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ° take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, 4 Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a 3 whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and 4 fouldest their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord God: I will therefore 3 spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then I will leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and 2 will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh 4 upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood 4 the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall 3 put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the ° bright lights of heaven will I make 3 dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also 3 vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people 4 amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 ¶ ° For thus saith the Lord God: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, ^a the terrible of the nations, all of them: and ^b they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters: ^c neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be ^d desolate of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, ^e then shall they know that I am the Lord.16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, ^f even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and ^g cast them down, ^h even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.19 ¶ Whom dost thou pass in beauty? ⁱ go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: ^j she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.21 ¶ The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are ^k gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 ¶ Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23 ¶ Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which ^l caused ^m terror in the land of the living.24 There is ⁿ Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are ^o gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, ^p which caused their terror in the land of the living: yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is ^q Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them ^r uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.27 ¶ And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell ^s with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

29 There is ^t Edom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are ^u laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.30 ¶ There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the ^v Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be ^w comforted over all his multitude, ^x even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord God.32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, ^y even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 According to the duty of a watchman, in warning the people, ^z Ezekiel is admonished of his duty. 10 God sheweth the justice of his way towards the penitent, and towards rebels. 17 He maintaineth his justice. 21 Upon the news of the taking of Jerusalem he prophesieeth the destruction of the land. 30 God's judgment upon the mockers of his prophets.

AGAIN the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to ^a the children of thy people, and say unto them, ^b 5 When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a watchman of their coasts, and set him for their ^c watchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blew the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then ^d whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, ^e his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning: his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned: if the sword come, and take any person from among them, ^f he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 ¶ So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die: if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel: Thus sapeak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we ^g pine away in them, ^h how should we then live?11 Say unto them, ⁱ As I live, saith the Lord God, ^j I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people. The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;

15 If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now be the hand of the Lord upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land; but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the Lord, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the Lord.

31 And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but with their heart goeth after their covetousness.

32 And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 A reproof of the shepherds. 7 God's judgment against them. 11 His providence for his flock. 20 The kingdom of Christ.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord;

8 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, neither did the shepherds feed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord;

10 Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 For thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I judge between 2 cattle and cattle, between the rams and the 5 he goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, which ye eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And I will be their God, and my servant David shall be a prince among them; I the Lord have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and I will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them: but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that I the Lord their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord God.

31 And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXXV.

The judgment of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel.

MOREOVER the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: hith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the Lord was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the Lord, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord God; When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 The land of Israel is comforted, both by destruction of the heathen, who spitefully used it, 8 and by the blessings of God promised unto it. 16 Israel was reproved for their sin, 21 and shall be restored without their desert. 25 The blessings of Christ's kingdom.

ALSO, thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, bear the word of the Lord:

2 Thus saith the Lord God; Because

b the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places ^{are} our's in possession:

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; 2 Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the ⁴rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which ⁵became a prey and ⁶derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about:

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ⁶Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiseful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophecy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have ⁷borne the shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I have ⁸lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8 ⁹But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and ¹¹the wastes shall be builded:

11 And ¹²I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit; and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: ¹³and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; ¹⁴and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth ¹⁵bereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; Because they say unto you, ¹⁶Thou hast devoured up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither ¹⁷bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord God.

15 ¹⁸Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 ¹⁹Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as ²⁰the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them ²¹for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols whereunto they had polluted it:

19 And I ²²scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: ²³according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they ²⁴profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the Lord, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ²⁵But I had pity ²⁶for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; I do not ²⁷this for your sakes. O house of Israel, ²⁸but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be ²⁹sanctified in you before ³⁰their eyes.

24 For ³¹I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 ³²Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: ³³I will wash away all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A ³⁴new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my ³⁵spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 ³⁶And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers: and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also ³⁷save you from all your uncleanness: and ³⁸I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and ³⁹lay no famine upon you.

30 ⁴⁰And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then ⁴¹shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and ⁴²shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 ⁴³Not for your sakes do I ⁴⁴this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden: and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the Lord build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: ³⁷I the Lord have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord God; ³⁸I will

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 By the resurrection of dry bones, 11 the dead hope of Israel is revived. 15 By the uniting of two sticks, 19 is shown the incorporation of Israel into Judah. 20 The promises of Christ's kingdom.

THE ^ahand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out ^bin the spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, ^cthou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones; Behold, I will ^dcause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; ^eand ye shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the ^ffour wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God; ^gCome from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 ^hThen he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, ⁱOur bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^jo my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and ^kbring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And I shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the Lord have spoken it, and performed it, saith the Lord.

15 ^lThe word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, ^mtake thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for ⁿthe children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And ^ojoin them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 ^pAnd when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, ^qWhy thou hast not shewn us what thou ^rmearest by these?

19 ^sSay unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take ^tthe stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, ^ueven with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 ^vAnd the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand ^wbefore their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^xI will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land

22 And ^yI will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and ^zone king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 ^aNeither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with their transgressions: but ^bI will save them out of all their dwellings, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And ^cDavid my servant shall be king over them; and ^dthey all shall have one shepherd: ^ethey shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

25 ^fAnd they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, ^geven they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and ^hmy servant David shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover I will make ⁱa covenant of peace with them: it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and ^jmultiply them, and will set my ^ksanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 ^lMy tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be ^mtheir God, and they shall be my people.

28 ⁿAnd the heathen shall know that I the Lord do ^osanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

A Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee.

7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 ¶ After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, ^mthe mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come ^plike a storm, thou shalt be ^qlike a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord God: It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwallied villages; I will ^rgo to them that are at rest, that dwell ^ssafely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,

12 ¶ To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon ^tthe desolate places that are now inhabited, ^uand upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the ^vmidst of the land.

13 ¶ Sheba, and ^w Dedan, and the merchants ^xof Tarshish, with all ^ythe young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 ¶ Therefore, son of man, prophecy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God;

b In that day when my people of Israel ^cdwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 ¶ And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, ^dand many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 ¶ And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: ^eit shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, ^fthat the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God: Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time ^gby my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For ^hin my jealousy ⁱand in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, ^jsurely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that ^kthe fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, ^land the mountains shall be thrown down, and the ^msteep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will ⁿcall for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God: ^oevery man's sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will ^pplead against him with ^qpestilence and with blood; and ^rI will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and ^sgreat hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnify myself, and ^tsanctify myself; ^uand I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 God's judgment upon Gog, 8 Israel's victory. 11 Gog's burial in Hamon-gog. 17 The feast of the fowls. 23 Israel, having been ploughed for their sins, shall be gathered again with eternal favour.

1 THEREFORE, ^athou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

2 And I will turn thee back, and I leave but the sixth part of thee, ^band will cause thee to come up from ^cthe north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 ¶ Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: ^d¶ I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every ^esort, and to the beasts of the field ^fto be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon ^gthe open field: for I have spoken ^hit, saith the Lord God.

6 ¶ And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell ⁱcarelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 ¶ So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let ^jthem ^kpollute my holy name any more: ^land the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

8 ¶ Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day ^mwhereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down ⁿany out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: ^oand they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the ^pnoes of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call ^qit The valley of ^rHamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, ^sthat they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that ^tI shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out ^umen of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, ^vto cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he ²set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be ³Hamathon. Thus shall they ⁴cleanse the land.

17 ¶ And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God; ⁵Speak ⁶unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, ⁷Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my ⁸sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, ⁹even a great sacrifice ¹⁰upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 ¶ Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of ¹¹goats, of bullocks, all of them ¹²fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 ¶ Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, ¹³with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 ¶ And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and ¹⁴my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 ¶ So the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and forward.

23 ¶ And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore ¹⁵hid I my face from them, and ¹⁶gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

24 ¶ According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; A Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the ¹⁷whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 ¶ After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they ¹⁸dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 ¶ When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and ¹⁹am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 ¶ Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, ²⁰which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

29 ¶ Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have ²¹poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XL.

1 The time, manner, and end of the vision. 6 The description of the east gate, 20 of the north gate, 24 of the south gate, 32 of the east tower, 35 and of the north gate. 39 Eight tables. 41 The chambers. 43 The porch of the house.

I N the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that ^athe city was smitten, in the selfsame day ^bthe hand of the Lord was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 ¶ In the visions of God brought he me unto the land of Israel, ^cand set me upon a very high mountain, ^dby which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, ^ethere was a man, whose appearance was ^flike the appearance of brass, ^gwith a line of flax in his hand, ^hand a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, ⁱA Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew ^jthem unto thee art thou brought hither: ^kI declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold ^la wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 ¶ Then came he unto the gate ^mwhich looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, ⁿwhich was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, ^owhich was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side: they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The ^pspace also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

16 And there were ^q15 narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the ^rarches: and windows were round about ^sinward: and upon each post were palm trees.

17 Then brought he me into ^tthe outward court, and, lo, there were ^uchambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: ^vthirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court ^wwithout, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court ^xthat looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the 2 arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east: and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were 4 five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the inner court: and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court: and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures:

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the inner court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and 9 the sin offering and 7 the trespass offering.

40 And at the side without, 2 as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate: eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were 3 hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about; and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of 6 the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, 7 the keepers of the 4 charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, 8 the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of 9 Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the Lord to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 ¶ The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were 2 pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER XLI.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the A temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the 5 door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

4 So 9 he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 6 And the side chambers were three, 6 one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might 2 have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And ^{3c} there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were ^d a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the ⁴ galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 The door posts, and ⁵ the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, ⁶ sciled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered.

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by ⁷ measure.

18 And it was made ^f with cherubims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces;

19 ^g So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The ⁸ posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 ^h The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is ⁱ before the Lord.

23 ^j And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were ^k narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 The chambers for the priests. 13 The use thereof. 19 The measures of the outward court.

THEN he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into ^a the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was ^b gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit: and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries ² were higher than these, ³ than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forefront of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And ⁴ from under these chambers was ⁵ the entry on the east side, ⁶ as one goeth into them from the utter court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And ^c the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out, were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 ^d Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the Lord ^e shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and ^f the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.

14 ^f When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. 16 He measured the east 2 side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. 17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. 18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed. 19 ¶ He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. 20 He measured it by the four sides: ¶ it had a wall round about, 4 five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the temple. 7 The sin of Israel hindered God's presence. 10 The prophet exhorteth them to repentance, and observation of the law of the house. 13 The measures, 18 and the ordinances of the altar.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate ^a that looketh toward the east:

2 ¶ And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and ^c his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was ^c according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw ³ when I came ^f to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw ⁷ by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 ¶ And the glory of the Lord came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 ¶ So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, ^k the glory of the Lord filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and ^l the man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, ^m the place of my throne, and ⁿ the place of the soles of my feet, ^o where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the House of Israel ^p no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by ^q the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 ¶ In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and ^r the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ Thou son of man, ^u shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the ^v pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon

^w the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: ^y The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the 2 bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the 3 edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit: and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So ^z the altar shall be four cubits; and from ^z the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and ^z his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to ^z sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to ^b the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, ^c a young bullock for a sin offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he ^d shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, ^e without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the Lord.

25 ¶ Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall ^f consecrate themselves.

27 ¶ And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your 7 peace offerings; and I will ^g accept you, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 The east gate assigned only to the prince. 4 The priests prepared for purifying of the sanctuary. 6 Levitical ministers of the prince's house. 15 The sons of Zadok are accepted thereto. 17 Ordinances for the priests.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary ^a which looketh toward the east; and it was shut.

2 Then said the Lord unto me: This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it: because the Lord, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the Lord: he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord: and I fell upon my face.

5 And the Lord said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God: O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord God: No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity: therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

17 And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the utter court to the people, (they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and they shall put on other garments: and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.)

20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord God.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince. 8 Ordinances for the prince.

MOREOVER, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the Lord, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about: and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: d and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.
4 ^e The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the Lord: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.
5 ^f And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for 720 chambers.
6 ^g ^h And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.
7 ⁱ And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.
8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and k my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.
9 ^l Thus saith the Lord God; ^m Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: ⁿ remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord God.
10 Ye shall have just ^o balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.
11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.
12 And the ^p shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.
13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley:
14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer:
15 And one ^q lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel: for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for ^r 4 peace offerings, ^s to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.
16 All the people of the land ^t shall give this oblation ^u for the prince in Israel.
17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the ^v 7 peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.
18 Thus saith the Lord God: In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and ^w cleanse the sanctuary:
19 ^x And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month ^y for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.
21 ^z In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the pass-over, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.
22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land ^a a bullock for a sin offering.
23 And ^b seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the Lord, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days: ^c and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.
24 ^d And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah.
25 In the seventh month, in the fifth day of the month, shall he do the like in the ^e feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oil.

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 Ordinances for the prince in his worship, 9 and for the people. 16 An order for the prince's inheritance. 19 The courts for building and habiting.

THUS saith the Lord God; The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days: but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 ^a And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth: but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the Lord in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt offering that ^b the prince shall offer unto the Lord in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 ^c And the meat offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs 2as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

8 ^d And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 ^e But when the people of the land shall come before the Lord in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.
10 And the prince in the midst of them,

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities ^f the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the Lord, ^g one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth ^h one shall shut the gate.

13 ^A Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the Lord of a lamb ² of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it ⁵ every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the Lord.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering.

16 [¶] Thus saith the Lord God; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover ^k the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 [¶] After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me. This is the place where the priests shall ^l boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall ^m bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, ⁿ to sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court: and, behold, ⁴ in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts ⁵ joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four ⁶ corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

24 Then said he unto me. These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall ^o boil the sacrifice of the people.

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 The vision of the holy waters. 6 The virtue of them. 13 The borders of the land. 22 The division of it by lot.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, ^a waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when ⁸ the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the 2 waters were to the ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, ⁵ waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 [¶] And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the ⁴ bank of the river were very many ⁶ trees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the ⁵ desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the ⁶ rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from En-gedi even unto En-gaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish ⁴ of the great sea, exceeding many.

11 But the mry places thereof and the marshes thereof ⁷ shall not be healed: they shall be given to salt.

12 And ⁸ by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, ⁸ shall grow all trees for meat, ⁷ whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth ⁹ new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof ² for ⁹ medicine.

13 [¶] Thus saith the Lord God; This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: ⁴ Joseph shall have two portions.

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I ⁵ lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall ⁸ fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, (the way of Hethlon, as men go to ^m Zedad;

16 ⁿ Hamath, ^o Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath: ⁴ Hazar-hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be ^p Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall measure ⁵ from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1, 23 The portions of the twelve tribes, 8 of the sanctuary, 16 of the city and suburbs, 21 and of the prince. 30 The dimensions and gates of the city.

NOW these are the names of the tribes. ^aFrom the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath. Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath; for these are his sides east and west; ⁵a portion for Dan.

2 And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Asher.

3 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Manasseh.

5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim.

6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reuben.

7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Judah.

8 ¶ And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be ^bthe offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the Lord shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation: toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the Lord shall be in the midst thereof.

11 ^cIt shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.

13 And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 ^dAnd they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the Lord.

15 ¶ And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be ^ea profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city.

19 ^fAnd they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city.

21 ¶ And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation: ^gand the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have ^ha portion.

24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion.

25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion.

26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion.

28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of ⁱstrife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great sea.

29 ^jThis is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord God.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jehoiakim's captivity. 3 Ashpenaz taketh Daniel, Hananiah, Michael, and Azariah. 8 They refusing the king's portion do prosper with pulse and water. 17 Their excellency in wisdom.

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoia- kim king of Judah ^acame Nebuchad- nezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Jehoia- kim king of Judah into his hand, with ^bpart of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried ^cinto the land of Shinar to the house of his god; ^dand he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 ^e¶ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring ²certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children ^fin whom ^{was} no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as ^{had} ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and ^gwhom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of ³the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might ⁷stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Michael, and Azariah:

7 ^h¶ Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: ⁱfor he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Michael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 ^j¶ But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself ^kwith the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now ^lGod had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces ⁴of worse liking than the children which are of your ⁵sort? then shall ye make ^{me} endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Daniel to ⁶Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Michael, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days: and let them give us ⁷pulse ⁸to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

17 [¶] As for these four children, ^mGod gave them ⁿknowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and ³Daniel had ^ounderstanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Michael, and Azariah: therefore ^pstood they before the king.

20 [¶] And in all matters of ⁴wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 [¶] And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

CHAPTER II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar, forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans, by promises and threatenings. 10 They acknowledging their inability are judged to die. 14 Daniel obtaining some respite, judeth the dream. 19 He blesseth God. 24 He staying the decree is brought to the king. 31 The dream. 36 The interpretation. 46 Daniel's advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, ^qwherewith his spirit was troubled, and ^rhis sleep brake from him.

2 [¶] Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, ^oKing, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be ^scut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 [¶] But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and ⁶rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would ⁷gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, ⁹ there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, ¹¹ except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 ¶ That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret: that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 ¶ Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 ¶ He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and he light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him: Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

28 ¶ But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these:

29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and that the revealer's secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

30 ¶ But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 ¶ Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.

32 ¶ This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, 33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet: that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 ¶ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 ¶ Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 ¶ And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 ¶ Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass ² hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 ¶ Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation ² and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, ³ and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, ⁴ and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and ⁵ chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, ⁶ and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel ⁷ sat in the gate of the king.

CHAPTER III.

1 Nebuchadnezzar delicately a golden image in Dura. 8 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego are accused for not worshipping the image. 13 They, being threatened, make a good confession. 19 God delivereth them out of the furnace. 26 Nebuchadnezzar seeing the miracle blesseth God.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was three-score cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up;

4 Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, ^a O people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, ⁵ dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up:

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour ⁶ be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans ^c came near, and accused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, ^d O king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, ^e that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, ² have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, ³ Is it ³ true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made: ⁴ I will: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; ⁵ and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, ⁶ we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar ⁴ full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: ⁷ therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the ⁵ most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their ⁶ coats, their hosen, and their ⁷ hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the king's ⁸ commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the ⁹ flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his ² counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and ³ they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like ⁴ a Son of God.

26 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the ⁴ mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come ⁵ hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men. Upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither 28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that ^mtrusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

30 Then the king ⁵promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Nebuchadnezzar confesseth God's kingdom, 4 maketh relation of his dreams, which the magicians could not interpret. 8 Daniel hearth the dream. 19 He interpreteth it. 28 The story of the event.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, ^aunto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 ^bI thought it good to shew the signs and wonders ^bthat the high God hath wrought toward me.

3 ^cHow great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is ^dan everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 ^eI Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid. ^eand the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head ^ftroubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 ^gThen came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 ^hBut at the last Daniel came in before me, ^hwhose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, ^kmaster of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; 7 I saw, and beheld ^la tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof ^lwas great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it ^mwas meat for all: ^mthe beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, ⁿa watcher and ⁿan holy one came down from heaven;

14 He cried ^oaloud, and said thus, ^pHew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit:

^qlet the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven ^rtimes pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent ^sthat the living may know ^sthat the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, ^tforasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; ^ufor the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ^vThen Daniel, ^vwhose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, ^wthe dream ^wis to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 ^xA The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it ^ywas meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 ^zIt is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, ^zand thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 ^aAnd whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, ^aand let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This ^bis the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

25 That they shall ^cdrive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee ^cto eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee. ^dTill thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the ^eheavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and ^fbreak off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor: ^fif it may be ^fa ^glengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ^gAll this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king ^hspoke, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 P While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell q a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 And r they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And s at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him t that liveth for ever, whose dominion is u an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And v all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and w he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and x none can stay his hand, or say unto him, y What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; b and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was c added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, d all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: e and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

CHAPTER V.

1 Belshazzar's impious feast. 5 A handwriting, unknown to the monarchs, troubled the king.

10 At the commendation of the queen Daniel is brought.

17 He, reproving the king of pride and idolatry, 25 readeth and interpreteth the writing. 30 The monarchy is translated to the Medes.

BELSHAZZAR the king a made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, whilst he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels b which his c father Nebuchadnezzar had d taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem: and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, e and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 f g In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's h countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the i joints of his loins were loosed, and his k knees smote one against another.

7 l The king cried m aloud to bring in n the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the sooth-sayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with o scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck. p and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: q but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly r troubled, and his s countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonished.

10 t Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, u O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 v There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy w father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy x father, the king, I say, thy father, made y master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and sooth-sayers:

12 z Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, a interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and b dissolving of c doubts, were found in the same Daniel, p whom the king named Belshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, d And thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my e father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even heard of thee, that f the spirit of his gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now g the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst h make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: i now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 j Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy k rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, l the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, m all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 n But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened o in pride, he was deposited from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was p driven from the sons of men: and q his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; ^atill he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and ^bthat he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

²² And then his son, O Belshazzar, ^ahast not humbled thine heart, though thou knowest all this:

²⁴ Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

²⁵ ^eAnd this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

²⁶ This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

²⁷ TEKEL; ^fThou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

²⁸ PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the ^gMedes and ^hPersians.

²⁹ Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and ⁱput a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, ^kthat he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰ ^lAnd that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

³¹ ^mAnd Darius the Median took the kingdom, ²being ⁿabout threescore and two years old.

CHAPTER VI.

¹ Daniel is made chief of the presidents. ⁴ They conspire against him, ⁵within an idolatrous den. ¹⁶ Daniel, accused of the breach thereof, is cast into the lions' den. ¹⁸ Daniel is saved. ²⁴ His adversaries devoured, ²⁵and God wrought by a decree.

¹ It pleased Darius to set ^aover the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom; ²And over these three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

³ Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, ^bbecause an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

⁴ ^cThen the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

⁵ Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

⁶ Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, ^dA King Darius, live for ever.

⁷ All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm ^edecree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

⁸ Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which ^faltereth not.

⁹ Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

¹⁰ ^gNow when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees ^hthree times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

¹¹ Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

¹² ⁱThen they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree: Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, ^jaccording to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

¹³ Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, ^kwhich is of the children of the captivity of Judah, (regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.)

¹⁴ Then the king, when he heard these words, ^lwas sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

¹⁵ Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that ^mthe law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

¹⁶ Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

¹⁷ ⁿAnd a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; ^oand the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords: that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

¹⁸ ^pThen the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of music brought before him: ^qand his sleep went from him.

¹⁹ Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

²⁰ And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, ^ris thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

²¹ Then said Daniel unto the king, ^sO king, live for ever.

²² My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him my innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

²³ Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, ^tbecause he believed in his God.

²⁴ ^uAnd the king commanded, ^vand they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, ^wtheir children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces, ^xas ever they came at the bottom of the den.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Daniel's vision of four beasts. 9 Of God's kingdom. 15 The interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon ^aDaniel ^bhad a dream and ^cvisions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the ^d4 matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts ^ecame up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was ^flike a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, ^gand it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 ¶ And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and ^hit raised up itself on one side, and ⁱit had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl: the beast had also ^jfour heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold ^ka fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and ^lit was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; ^mand it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, ⁿthere came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, ^oand a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ ^pI beheld till the thrones were cast down, and ^qthe Ancient of days did sit, ^rwhose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was ^slike the fiery flame, ^tand his wheels as burning fire.

10 ¶ A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: ^uthousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: ^vthe judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: ^wI beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet ^xtheir lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold,

^yone like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to ^zthe Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 ¶ And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all ^{aa}people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion ^{ab}is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom ^{ac}that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel ^{ad}was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my ^{ae}body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 ¶ These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But ^{af}the saints of the ^{ag}most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of ^{ah}the fourth beast, which was diverse ^{ai}from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet:

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, ^{aj}and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 ¶ Until the Ancient of days came, ^{ak}and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be ^{al}the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 ¶ And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise; and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 ¶ And he shall speak ^{am}great words against the most High, and shall ^{an}wear out the saints of the most High, and ^{ao}think to change times and laws: and ^{ap}they shall be given into his hand ^{aq}until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 ¶ But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the ^{ar}kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, ^{as}whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, ^{at}and all ^{au}dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, ^{av}my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I ^{aw}kept the matter in my heart.

CHAPTER VIII.

in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Daniel, conjuring the time of the captivity, 3 maketh confession of sins, 16 and prayeth for the restoration of Jerusalem, 20 Gabriel informeth him of the seventy weeks.

IN the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the Lord my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To thee, O Lord our God, belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, I all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet I made me not our prayer before the Lord our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the Lord watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city that is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear: O Lord, forgive: O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the Lord my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, while I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to show thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and 2 prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

25 I know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary: and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

CHAPTER X.

1 Daniel having humbled himself seeth a vision.
10 Being troubled with fear he is comforted by the angel.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, of whose name was called Belteshazzar: and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long; and he understood the thing, and had understandings of the vision.

2 In these days I Daniel was mourning three 6 full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is the Hiddekel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz;

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I remained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 And behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, 33a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and ²stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, ³Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, ⁴thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 ⁵But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, ⁶Michael, ⁷one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people ⁸in the latter days: ⁹for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, ¹⁰I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, ¹¹one like the similitude of the sons of men ¹²touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision ¹³my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can ¹⁴the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me.

19 ¹⁵And said, O man greatly beloved, ¹⁶be strong: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that ¹⁷boldeeth with me in these things, ¹⁸but Michael your prince.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia. 5 Leagues and conflicts between the king of the south and of the north. 30 The invasion and tyranny of the Romans.

ALSO ¹I^a in the first year of ²δ Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And ³a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and ⁴do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, ⁵his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven: and not to his posterity, ⁶nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

5 ⁷¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and ⁸one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together: for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make ⁹a¹ agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm: neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and ²he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up ³in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with ⁴their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue ⁵more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons ⁶shall he stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and ⁷one shall certainly come, ⁸and overflow, and pass through: ⁹then shall he return, and be stirred up, ¹⁰even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, ¹¹even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude: but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up: and he shall cast down ¹²many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened ¹³by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come ¹⁴after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also ¹⁵the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take ¹⁶the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither ¹⁷his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him ¹⁸shall do according to his own will, and ¹⁹none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the ²⁰34 glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also ²¹set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and ²²upright ones with him: thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, ²³corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, ²⁴neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince ²⁵for his own behalf shall cause ²⁶the reproach offered by him to cease: without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, ²⁷and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up ²⁸in his estate ²⁹a¹ raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in ³⁰anger, nor in battle.

21 And ³¹in his estate ³²shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 ³³¶ And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; ³⁴yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him ³⁵he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter 2 peaceably even upon the fastest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall 5 forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall 6 overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' 7 hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for 8 yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and 9 his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; 10 and it shall not be as the former, 11 or as the latter.

30 12 For the ships of Chittim shall come to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for 13 yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, 14 and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that 15 maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he 16 corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 17 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: 18 yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, 19 many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, 20 to try 7 them, and to purge, and to make them white, 21 even to the time of the end: 22 because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king 23 shall do according to his will; and he shall 24 exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things 25 against the God of gods, and shall prosper 26 till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, 27 nor the desire of women, 28 nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 29 But 30 in his estate shall he honour the God of 23 forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and 31 pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the 5 most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for 6 gain.

40 41 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him 42 like a whirlwind, with chariots, 43 and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, 44 and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the 23 glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, 45 even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall 4 stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be 4 at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in 5 the 56 glorious holy mountain; 6 yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles.

5 Daniel is informed of the times.

AND at that time shall 2 Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: 3 and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation 4 even to that same time: and at that time thy people 5 shall be delivered, every one that shall be found 6 written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, 7 some to everlasting life, and some to shame 8 and everlasting contempt.

3 And 9 they that be 7 wise shall 8 shine as the brightness of the firmament; 10 and they that turn many to righteousness 11 as the stars for ever and ever.

4 12 But thou, O Daniel, 13 shut up the words, and seal the book, 14 even to 15 the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 16 Then I Daniel looked, and behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the 17 bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank 18 of the river.

6 And one said to 19 the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, 20 How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he 21 held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him 22 that liveth for ever 23 that it shall be for a time, times, and 24 an half; 25 and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of 26 the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed 27 till the time of the end.

10 28 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried: 29 but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but 30 the wise shall understand.

11 And from the time 31 that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and 32 the abomination that 33 maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

13 But 34 do thou thy way till the end be: 35 for thou shalt rest, 36 and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

HOSEA.

CHAPTER I.

1 Hosea, to show God's judgment for spiritual whoredoms, taketh Gomer, a and hath by her Jezreel, 8 Lo-ruhamah, 8 and Lo-ammi. 10 The restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE word of the Lord that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.
